Wethersfield, Conn.—Loan Authorized.—The Town Treasurer has been authorized to borrow $3,000 for current expenses.

Whitney Point (Village), N. Y.—Loan Authorized.—At an election held December 5, 1898, the people voted to borrow $600, in anticipation of taxes, to complete the Central Fire Station. We are advised that the loan will be negotiated with local parties and will mature in six or eight months.

Wichita, Kan.—Bond Contract.—We are advised by the City Clerk that this city entered into a contract with W. G. Eads, Kansas City, Mo., for the sale of $50,000 5% refunding railroad-aid bonds. The City Clerk states that the city was informed this week by the firm of which Mr. Eads is President that they cannot comply with the agreement and request that it be canceled.

Windsor Locks, Conn.—Corrected Date of Bonds.—In the Chronicle last week official notice was given that bids would be received until December 21, 1898, for $30,000 4% coupon bonds and that bonds would bear date January 1, 1899. Owing to the fact that January 1, 1899, is a Sunday, the date of bonds has been changed to January 2, 1899, but the bonds will mature in 10, 20 and 30 years from January 1, 1899.

Winton Place, Ohio.—No Bonds Contemplated.—It has been stated in some of the papers that this village has under consideration the issuance of $15,000 sewer bonds. In reply to our inquiries we learn that the village has no intention of issuing any bonds in the near future.

Yonkers, N. Y.—Bond Sale.—On December 14, 1898, $3,600 4% crematory bonds and $9,000 4% assessment bonds were awarded to Jose, Parker & Co., Boston, at 105·912 and 101·575 respectively. Following are the bids:

The full details of clearings for the week covered by the above statement will be given next Saturday. We cannot, of course, furnish them to-day, bank clearings being made up by the various clearing houses at noon on Saturday, and hence in the above the last twenty-four hours of the week have to be in all cases estimated, as we go to press Friday night.

We present below our usual detailed figures for the previous week, covering the returns for the period ending with Saturday noon, December 17, and the results for the corresponding week in 1897, 1896 and 1895 are also given. The week's total is the heaviest ever recorded. In comparison with the preceding week there is an increase in the aggregate exchanges of one hundred and ninety-six million dollars, and at New York alone the gain is one-hundred and sixty-four millions. Contrasted with the week of 1897 the total for the whole country shows an increase of 24·3 per cent. Compared with the week of 1896 the current returns record a gain of 59·3 per cent, and the excess over 1895 is 38·1 per cent. Outside of New York the increase over 1897 is 16·2 per cent. The excess over 1896 reaches 32·8 per cent, and making comparison with 1895 the gain is seen to be 23·5 per cent.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

The tone on the Stock Exchange this week has been strong and business active, but the movement, though tending upward, has been quite capricious. Industrial conditions, so far as there has been any development, have improved. Railroad earnings have as a rule continued to increase. But the Street is apparently so highly strung that within narrow limits the greater facts are disregarded, and trifling things or rumors, whether favorable or unfavorable, are given undue weight.

The railroad situation has been distinguished by a number of minor events that have taken place, and by others of more permanent importance that have been in process of consummation. Some of the most-discussed preferred stock dividends have been announced. These did not seem to meet the views and expectations of sanguine speculators, being too conservative. Their hopes and plans were based on a larger distribution from both the Atchison and the Southern roads, for those properties have earned more than the one per cent declared, and are still doing remarkably well, as recent earnings show, and as the November statement of the Southern Railway, published Wednesday, further discloses. Much the same is true of the New York Central and its dividend, also an event of the week. But the action of the directors looking to the future of all these organizations is clearly wise and we are inclined to think that other dividends made by other roads will indicate a like conservative course. To be sure the Denver & Rio Grande somewhat unexpectedly advanced its rate of distribution to its preferred stockholders; in that case, though, the act was no less discreet, for after the distribution there was a good surplus left, with earnings still large and increasing. The truth is, railroads are doing so well and are in such good condition financially that they are independent of stage effects. And then, too, there is nothing in the business outlook that is not encouraging and, indeed, full of promise. It is just the time, therefore, for a policy that does not strain for present display but tends to permanency—that is, to free expenditures in building up the condition of the roads, with a gradual increase in the amount distributed among stockholders. That is the only feasible and safe American policy. We are inclined to think, too, that our best railroad properties will be much more nearly held at home in the future, for they are wanted here for permanent investment. It is the general statement of the officers of the companies whose stocks were formerly in Europe that they are now among our own people. This is true of even the Pennsylvania Railroad, whose securities have always been so largely held abroad.

Another class of events of larger importance has been in progress among our carriers. We refer for illustration to the sale of the Chicago & Alton, the rumors with relation to which have for some time been current, but which have finally this week settled upon a syndicate of bankers as the purchaser, several prominent roads being included in the suggested combination. Then, too, the reports two or more weeks old with respect to the Central Pacific having perfected an arrangement with the Commissioners of the Government to pay its Government debt, as provided in the law passed at the last session of Congress, have gained in probability and belief. That end might be reached in accordance with the terms of the statute either by a syndicate agreement to provide money to meet the old debt at once or through the acceptance by the Government Commissioners of new bonds extending the debt. The latter seems hardly possible except as a temporary expedient supplemented by a syndicate arrangement to meet the payment, because the terms are so hard that the company of itself could not meet them. The extreme length of the new bond is fixed by the Act at ten years, with 3 per cent interest, payable principal and interest in ten equal semi-annual instalments. An extension on such terms might be compassed if a syndicate could be formed to assume the payments (with an option to liquidate sooner if it chose) and to substitute new general first mortgage 4 per cent bonds in place of the Government and other liens. The only question then would be whether the Central could pay the interest. The ease with which the Union Pacific has carried its load would almost of itself settle that question in the affirmative. Moreover the Central Pacific is peculiarly well placed for syndicate work. Such a body of capitalists would have nearly a clear field, as substantially all the company's bonded debt is over-due or subject to call at par, or so situated as to be controlled. This is important, as it would enable any reorganization committee to get rid of, without bonuses, the road's high interest bonds, a fact which, together with the very considerable sinking funds the company itself holds, would open the way to make the fixed charges such as the income of the road could easily meet.

A further development in railroad affairs has been the action of the Receivers of the Baltimore & Ohio to prevent rate-cutting. The plan is a novel one. The Receivers announce in a letter to Mr. Knapp, the Chairman of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, that after January 1 1899 the road they represent will maintain scrupulously the published tariff and rates filed with the Inter-State Commission; further that they will ask the Commission to aid them in an effort to prevent competition from taking the form of illegal concessions through secret rates, drawbacks and other devices. In that interest and for the purpose of restricting the practices referred to, the Receivers propose to report to the Commission any departure from published rates, that the facts may be investigated, the truth fully ascertained, and the illegal practices stopped. The wrong-doing which is here sought to be cured covers, no doubt, a class of irregularities most harmful to all interests concerned of any relating to railroad operations. We can but think that every road would like to have them stopped. Since the Supreme Court Trust decision no combination for enforcing stability of rates is legal, and hence we have the reason for the suggestion made by the Receivers. If other roads would adopt the same line of action we do not see why the plan might not work and become effective. The Inter-State Commerce Commission was formed to correct just such dealings and abuses. Here, then, is scope for its energies along the line of the law's chief requirement. Let the roads act individually as probes, giving facts and enforcing duty.

We have suggested above that home investors have such a need now for our best securities that these are not likely to go abroad as freely as heretofore they have done. There are reasons why American capita should hold them at high prices. Quite a large class of railroad bonds has in recent years been opened to savings banks' deposits and those banks are absorbing considerable lines of the permissible securities. This privilege will have to be extended from year to year. Savings institutions find it very difficult to make a sufficient return to their depositors. But aside from that our home capital has increased and great difficulty is met with by private investors and trustees in placing money securely at any but a very low rate of interest. At the same time while all that is true, the futility of an attempt to distribute a Russian loan here is, we think, obvious. The claim is made that such a loan is the subject of negotiation. That is possible and, of course, if the price fixed was low enough, the operation could be carried through successfully. But the loan would not be placed in New York unless Russia could get more favorable terms than London or Paris would offer. That is to say, we, with our smaller accumulations of wealth, and total unfamiliarity with Russian affairs and securities, are going to outbid London and Paris on this occasion. If our people really are to be such eager buyers as is assumed, would it not be wise for the syndicate having the matter in charge to first test the American appetite by buying a few thousand roubles worth of an old issue at London at the current price and auction them off here.

It is many years since the business public has had such occasion for genuine rejoicing at Christmas time as on the present occasion. Activity and prosperity and rising prices are the prevailing conditions and they naturally tend to add zest to the Christmas festivities. Stock Exchange seats are quoted at $30,000, the last sale having been at $29,750. As recently as 1896 they sold at $15,000, and the highest price ever reached was $34,000 in 1885. The volume of transactions is on an unprecedented scale, the dealings having several times fallen but little short of a million shares a day. There have been single days in the past, on occasions of panic or great excitement, when the sales have been heavier, but never before has there been such continuous activity day after day. Unless business next week should dwindle very materially, the aggregate of sales for December 1898 will be the largest for any month in the history of the Exchange. Both brokers and customers are happy, and the internal revenue tax on sales, which ordinarily would be found onerous, passes almost unnoticed. When everybody is making money, no one begrudges Uncle Sam a share of it.

Bank clearings and other trade records tell the same story of a rising tide of activity. Last week's bank exchanges, at 1,752 millions for the whole country and at 1,119 millions for New York, are both the largest ever reached for a single week. This week the totals will be a little smaller, but the aggregate for the month will certainly stand unexcelled. The deposits of the New York Clearing House banks last Saturday for the first time passed the 800-million mark; the previous January they first passed above 700 millions, and never previous to July 1897 had they been up to 600 millions. The gold reserve in the United States Treasury was yesterday reported $246,027,639, which is the very highest figures ever attained. We showed last week that iron production is now on a greater scale than at any previous date. Our foreign trade, we need hardly say, as far as the exports are concerned, is of unequaled magnitude, each month establishing a new record. The balance in the country's favor on the merchandise movement for the late fiscal year (excess of exports over imports) was of such exceptional and extraordinary magnitude, reaching over 615 million dollars, that it was thought unlikely it could be duplicated. Yet, according to present indications, the result for the calendar year will be about equally noteworthy. And so we might multiply the illustrations. Of course there are many causes for this marvelous growth and activity, but underlying them all and back of them all is the victory achieved for sound money at the Presidential election in 1896, re-enforced by the further victory gained at the polls last month. This Presidential election is only two years behind us, and yet how great, how tremendous the change in the interval. Let serious men reflect what the situation would be to-day had the principles of the Chicago platform triumphed.

The records of new track-laying which are now coming to hand bear out the belief that railroad construction is being prosecuted on a greatly increased scale. The "Railroad Gazette" of this city has prepared a preliminary statement which shows that during the twelve months of 1898 no less than 2,867 miles of road have been built, thus greatly exceeding work of this kind in other recent years. The "Gazette" says it is likely later reports will somewhat increase the total. But even as it stands the aggregate is the largest of any twelve months since 1892. In the three preceding years the annual additions have not varied much from 2,000 miles, the increment, according to "Poor's," having been 2,188 miles in 1897, 2,013 miles in 1896 and 1,938 miles in 1895. But this hardly tells the whole story. The outlook is for a still larger addition in 1899—at least the fact that so many companies have plans for new work of this kind makes it certain that unless a setback occurs the aggregate will be heavy.

We have adverted above to the dividend declarations of the Atchison and the Denver & Rio Grande. In both cases the action is the natural, the inevitable outcome of the era of prosperity which the properties are enjoying and the careful intelligent way in which they have been managed. The Atchison is the larger one of the two. It was reorganized, as is known, three years ago. A dividend on the preferred shares did not then seem among the early probabilities. The question raised at that time was as to whether the property could be depended on to earn the interest on the adjustment incomes. But 3 per cent was paid on these incomes in November 1897, and the present year in that month they received the full 4 per cent to which they are entitled out of the earnings for the twelve months ending last June. The income account for this period of twelve months shows that even after paying the income interest, there was left a balance of $1,888,809. The preferred stock is large, amounting to over 120 million dollars, and it takes therefore nearly 1¼ million dollars to pay the one per cent just declared, but it will be seen that the surplus would have warranted a distribution of 1½ per cent had it been deemed advisable to pay that much. Moreover, it should be remembered that the surplus given remained after very heavy outlays for betterments and improvements, which were charged to expenses and deducted from earnings. In our review of the report we pointed out what a prominent feature this had been in the year's operations. The current year thus far, much the same policy has been pursued, which will account for the fact that for the four months to October 31 net earnings are about $205,000 below the result for the same four months of the preceding year. But, as was recently stated in these columns, after the 1st of January 1899 these outlays, it is expected, will be materially reduced, and a considerable improvement in net earnings is looked for from that cause alone.

As to the increase in the dividend on Denver & Rio Grande preferred shares, we have frequently taken occasion to refer to the great advance which this property has been making and how the prospects of the shareholders have as a result steadily improved. Situated in a silver-mining country, no road was harder hit by the depression which came in 1893 and none seemed to have at that time a less inviting prospect. But the management proved equal to the occasion and under their energy and foresight quick progress was made in retrieving the losses resulting from the prostration of the silver-mining industry. After a suspension of dividends for some years, the company resumed in a small way in 1896, paying 1 per cent each six months, or 2 per cent per year. Last July the semi-annual payment was made 1½ per cent. Now two per cent has been declared, payable the coming January, and Chairman George Coppell is quoted as saying that this simply means that the stock is on a 4-per-cent basis. The company's income statement for the six months to December 31 1898 shows that after allowing in full for the two per cent dividend to be charged against the results for these six months, and also after allowing for an appropriation of $105,000 in payment of the cost of new equipment, there was still left a surplus on the operations of these six months of $197,920. In an interview the day before the declaration of the dividend, President Jeffery was quoted as saying that in the seven years he had lived in Colorado he had never seen such evidences of general prosperity existed at present. This applied, he stated, to th[illegible]ds of business—trade, agriculture, and, best is th[illegible] to the mining interests, which form nies w[illegible] of Colorado's prosperity. But on the other hand the dividends received on the holdings of stock referred to have swelled the income from investments in the sum of $946,000. The final result shows a surplus of $560,000 over and above all charges and the one-per-cent dividend on New York Central stock, against a similar surplus for 1897 of only $234,000. Combining this quarter with the preceding quarter, we find that for the half-year there is a surplus of, roughly, $1,113,000 above the two-per-cent dividends for this period in 1898, against a surplus of $935,000 for the corresponding period in 1897.

Money on call, representing bankers' balances, has loaned at the Stock Exchange during this week at 2 per cent and at 4½ per cent. The higher rate was recorded on Tuesday during a brief interval when the regular loaners of money were temporarily absent. The rate quickly fell off to 2½ per cent on the offering of supplies attracted by the high quotation, and thereafter for the remainder of the week the bulk of the business was at 2@2½ per cent, and the average for the week was 2½ per cent. Banks and trust companies quote 2½ per cent as the minimum for new loans. Time contracts are liberally offered, with a fair amount of business, and quotations are 2¾ per cent for sixty days and 3 per cent for ninety days to six months on good Stock Exchange collateral. No new commercial paper is being offered, and probably the supply of paper will continue light until after the turn of the year. The demand continues good and rates are 3 per cent for sixty to ninety day endorsed bills receivable, 3¼@3¾ per cent for prime and 4@5 per cent for good four to six months' single names. The clearings of the associated banks of this city last week were $1,119,863,255, exceeding by $24,154,793 those of the week ending November 19, which were the largest of the year previously recorded. The daily average clearings last week were $186,643,876, against $159,232,190 in 1881, the largest on record. With the exception of some shifting of loans by the banks incident to preparations for the semi-annual settlements and dividend and interest disbursements, there has been little of importance to note in banking circles this week.

There have been no new features in the European political or financial situation. The Bank of England minimum rate of discount remains unchanged at 4 per cent. The cable reports discounts of sixty to ninety day bank bills in London 3⅝@3½ per cent. The open market rate at Paris is 3 per cent and at Berlin and Frankfort it is 5½@5⅝ per cent. According to our special cable from London the Bank of England lost £398,372 bullion during the week and held £30,590,507 at the close of the week. Our correspondent further advises us that the loss was due to the shipment of £471,000 net to the interior of Great Britain, the export of £30,000 to various countries, and the import of £103,000, of which £83,000 came from the Cape and £20,000 from Australia.

With the exception of a brief period of activity on Tuesday, due to a demand to remit for January settlements, the foreign exchange market has been quiet this week, there being no European steamer after Wednesday until to-day (Saturday).

The offerings of commercial bills against cotton and grain have been liberal, but they appear to have been promptly absorbed. One feature has been the exchanging of running off for new sixty day bankers' bills to continue the investment operation. It is announced that £500,000 in gold was shipped on December 20 from Sydney, N. S. W., for San Francisco.

Nominal rates for exchange have remained unaltered during the week, at 4 82½ for sixty days and from 4 85½ to 4 86 for sight. Rates for actual business opened unchanged on Monday, compared with those at the close on Friday of last week, at 4 81½@4 81¾ for long; 4 84½@4 84¾ for short and 4 85@4 85¼ for cable transfers. The tone was steady to firm. On Tuesday, in consequence of the active demand above noted, the market was strong, and rates for actual business were advanced one-quarter of a cent, to 4 81¾ @4 82 for long, 4 84¾@4 85 for short and 4 85¼@4 85½ for cable transfers. After the demand for Wednesday's steamer was satisfied the market grew dull and almost featureless, and it closed on Friday at a reduction of one-quarter of a cent for short and for cables. The following shows daily posted rates for exchange by some of the leading drawers.

THE CASE FOR COLONIAL EXPANSION.

Three incidents of the past week have contributed, each in its own way, to throw light on the problem of our new territorial acquisitions and on the probable attitude of the American people regarding them. One of these incidents, and not the least important, was the testimony of General Merritt, in published interviews on his arrival from Manila, regarding the position of the Philippine natives. Gen. Merritt, whose opportunities for study of the question have been exceptional, gives his opinion positively that the Filipinos are not now capable of self-government, because they are uneducated, ill-civilized and without even competent leaders. This assertion he enforces by the statement that the only bond which held together the native insurgents in their long siege of Manila was the hope of looting a captured city. That the natives might in time be educated to capacity for self-government Gen. Merritt is inclined to believe, and on the other hand he expresses his decided judgment that they will readily and contentedly submit themselves now to government by the United States. The Filipinos are, he adds, an "amiable, mild and well-disposed people." "What they want," in Gen. Merritt's opinion, "is a fair government, and what they must have is a strict government."

We are inclined to give weight to these views as we are not to the General's very unwise and needless expression of his opinion at Thursday's New England dinner, that "we have outgrown the Constitution" and that "it is not worth while to discuss it." On the latter point we doubt if conservative people will resort to an army commander for enlightenment. But when Gen. Merritt speaks of phases of the problem within his own sphere of observation, his conclusions command respect. His views regarding the Philippine natives, which agree, so far as we are aware, with the opinions expressed by Admiral Dewey, are important for the light they throw on the distinctive elements in our existing territorial problem as contrasted with those involved in our earlier territorial acquisitions. The distance of these islands from our shores, their occupation by a populous race untrained in the practices of civilization, and the necessity for at least many years of a government adapted to their peculiar traits and weaknesses—all serve to set apart the problem from the precedents created in the case of Louisiana, Florida and even Alaska. As we have said before, our general theory of governing the Indian tribes, our denial to them of the right of suffrage and our treatment of them as a necessarily subject race, afford the nearest parallel for our dealing with the Filipinos. The mistakes of Indian administration we ought to avoid; the underlying principle of such administration, recognized by our Government both before and after the establishment of the Constitution, must in the nature of the case be accepted.

The second recent incident of real significance is the very evident development of an era of national good feeling. That such complete and unqualified reconciliation had already occurred between the East and West was made manifest seven weeks ago by the results of the Congressional elections and the ready acquiescence of the Western people in the results. That any sectional division which may have remained, up to the present year, between the North and South was similarly being obliterated, had become evident even before the outbreak of the Spanish war. But the popular reception of the President on his Southern tour this month, the expression of loyalty on the part of entertainers and of good-will on the part of the guest, have set a formal seal on the reconciliation. As we take it, this was as far as possible removed from a partisan demonstration. We may be pardoned if we say it was something very different from and very much larger than a personal tribute to Mr. McKinley. It was the South's spontaneous declaration of its wish to bury the past and enter as a united people on the pressing problems of the future. We are confident that partisan orators will be very careful hereafter to avoid appeals to the sectional misunderstandings of thirty-eight years ago, and we greatly doubt the probability of any future Presidential candidate announcing as the programme of his stumping tour the invasion of "the enemy's country."

These signs of complete sectional reconciliation are, in our judgment, peculiarly important at this time. Nothing, we think, could have been more unfortunate than the consideration of our present weighty Constitutional problems by a divided people and by a Congressional majority and minority hopelessly split apart on other and wholly irrelevant lines of cleavage. That no such embarrassing and unsettling complication can exist in the pending Congressional debates has already been foreshadowed by the proceedings of the Senate, which we regard as the third important incident of the week. The opening speech against colonial expansion has been made by Senator Vest, long a conspicuous figure in the free-silver opposition; the opening speech in favor of it by Senator Platt of Connecticut, an Eastern conservative. Yet, far from being followed by partisan divisions for and against the Administration policy as such, each of these introductory speeches promptly evoked support in very unusual directions. Mr. Vest has been sustained in the Senatorial colloquy by Mr. Hoar, a foremost figure in the Administration ranks. Senator Platt's line of argument has been emphasized and re-enforced this week by Senator Teller, once the recognized leader in the financial opposition.

To us this distribution of support and opposition seems a sign of the highest promise. It means, beyond dispute, that this great and epoch-making question promises to be considered and settled strictly on its individual merits; that old political prejudice and affiliation, except on points directly involved in the main issue, will no longer influence legislative judgment. This situation, it is interesting to observe, is in all respects clearer and more promising even than that which existed during the last great Senatorial debate on the powers of the Government, sixty-nine years ago. It was well understood that Mr. Webster, replying to Senator Hayne in January 1830, was marshalling the arguments of the North as opposed to those which were cherished in the South. The speeches already made in the pending debate show that geographical prejudice is quite obliterated. It is to this general temper of the national legislature, in the presence of an overshadowing public issue, that the country as a whole owes its complete immunity from the wrangling and legislative threats which for years have made the December session of Congress an object of terror to the financial public.

The speech delivered by Senator Platt, of Connecticut, last Monday, in support of the theory that our Government possesses what may be called the colonizing power, was chiefly noteworthy as a reply to Senator Vest's argument of the previous week. Mr. Platt rests his main contention on the Constitutional point to which we invited notice in these columns a week ago: namely, that the findings of the Dred Scott decision of 1857, whether considered as formal construction or as simple dictum, have been superseded by the arbitrament of war. A very interesting declaration of Mr. Justice Miller on this point is quoted by Mr. Platt, to the effect that the Dred Scott decision is "only an incumbrance on the reports of the Supreme Court of the United States."

The Senator from Connecticut goes further, arguing that the right to acquire and hold territory to be administered in the Federal Government's own discretion has been inherent to the United States since the acceptance of the Constitution, as indeed it was inherent in any or all of the several States or colonies as independent Powers before the Constitution. He reasons that the right to hold territory was exercised by New York, by Connecticut and by other States before the Union, and that in the Constitution "the right to acquire territory was not reserved, and therefore is an inherent, sovereign right." As showing the recognition of this right in the early days of the Republic, Mr. Platt quotes a Cabinet opinion drawn up for President Jefferson by Albert Gallatin, in which it is affirmed that "the United States as a nation have an inherent right to acquire territory," and "that whenever the territory has been acquired Congress have the power either of admitting into the Union as a new State, or of annexing to a State with the consent of that State, or of making regulations for the government of that territory." The last of the three suggested alternatives is particularly in point. President Jefferson had his misgivings; yet, in the words of Justice Miller, cited by Senator Platt, "Congress adopted Mr. Gallatin's theory of construction rather than that of Mr. Jefferson and Mr. Quincy."

We have not space to go further at the present time into Mr. Platt's presentation of the case. Suffice it for us now to say that the Senator rests his final argument in opposition to Senator Vest on the provision of the Constitution that Congress "shall have power to dispose of, and make all needful rules and regulations respecting, the territory or other property belonging to the United States." "There is,' commented Mr. Platt, "no qualification here. It is to make all needful rules and regulations for the government of the territory of the United States; not the territories." This clause, as interpreted by Mr. Platt, would seem to answer even the often-cited declaration of Mr. Webster, that this "is a government of strictly limited powers; of enumerated, specified and particularized powers; and that whatsoever is not granted is withheld."

We heartily recommend to our readers, during the course of this debate, to procure and study copies of the "Congressional Record" for December 12 and December 19, where the speeches of Senators Vest and Platt are reported in full, and for such other dates as may be distinguished by well-considered discussions of this Constitutional question. It was through such wide-spread popular reading of the full Congressional debates, earlier in the century, that the arguments of Mr. Webster and Mr. Calhoun obtained their powerful hold on the minds of their constituencies.

We hope, however, that the Senatorial discussion will go further than examination of general principles. Whether, without some additional and distinct provision, even Senator Platt's construction of the law (if admitted and confirmed) would relieve our people from the danger of a hasty conversion at some future date of one or all of these island acquisitions into States, is a matter to which we trust the Senators will give careful attention. The progress of the debate has inclined us to believe, and we are glad to believe, that statesmen of all shades of opinion on the general question are awake to the popular repugnance to the plan of admitting even Hawaii, not to mention Porto Rico and Luzon, into a share in the government of the American Republic. Nevertheless, the possibility of such a move, under pressure of future political exigency, will remain unless it is formally and in terms excluded. Readers of this week's Washington advices will not have failed to observe that the bill to provide a government for Hawaii, reported last Wednesday by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, distinctly describes this new acquisition as a territory under existing laws, and declares all persons who were qualified citizens of Hawaii at the date of annexation to be now citizens of the United States. No unusual political discernment is needed to discover what attempt would presently follow such unqualified legislation. And if Hawaii, later on, were to be admitted as a sovereign State, with what grace could the application of the precedent be denied to other distant islands?

For ourselves, we must confess to having been much impressed by a suggestion lately made by Congressman Hepburn, of Iowa, to the effect that a Constitutional amendment be adopted prohibiting admission into Statehood of any Territory not now part of the United States, except by a three-fourths vote in both houses of Congress. This proposition has at least the merit of dealing ingeniously with the real point of danger—namely, hasty admission of these outlying acquisitions for the sake of enlarging and fortifying narrow party majorities in a single Congress.

Requirement of a three-fourths vote would put an effective veto on any project inspired by precisely this motive. Requirement that a future vote to admit outlying territory into Statehood must, like a Constitutional amendment, await the further approval of three-fourths of the States already in the Union, would in our judgment be still more wise and feasible, and would contain an element of undoubted justice in that our people would thereby have a fair chance of voicing their own opinion as to a plan for extending to other remote communities the privilege of sharing in the government of our own affairs. We trust to hear something on this very important phase of the question before the Senatorial debate has closed.

RAILROAD PROSPERITY AND THE WAGE CLASSES.

There is a lesson in the existing railroad situation, and the results springing from it, which should be very instructive to those who think that the general community have no concern in the welfare of these great industrial enterprises. We all know how demagogues have for years sought to incite the masses against the roads—how at various times farmers, merchants and labor rs have been arrayed in opposition by false and specious arguments that these transportation agencies were corporate monopolies and therefore inimical to the public good. In many of the Western and Southern States legislation has been so persistently hostile that the result has been in large measure to repel capital from further investments in that way in those sections. At this very moment the Kansas Legislature is in session (in obedience to the call of Governor Leedy, whose term is about to expire) engaged in the attempt to frame a new schedule of rates for the railroads, intended to effect a reduction of 20 to 30 per cent from existing tariffs.

No one will suppose that the Western law-makers would knowingly undertake to damage the interests of their constituents, and the motives that have prompted their short-sighted course in the past are therefore obvious enough. They have proceeded on the assumption that legislation adverse to the carriers was simply a blow at the hated capitalists—that only the bond and shareholders would suffer. To them it has seemed that it could make no manner of difference whether the roads prospered or not—that the owners stood quite on a separate plane and what befell them was a matter of no consequence. But how widely at variance with that idea has been the experience during the years of depression in the railroad world succeeding the panic of 1893, and how different is the experience at present when the carrying industry is enjoying a renewed era of prosperity. We commend this thought to the consideration of our Kansas friends.

It is not our purpose to-day, however, to enter into a general discussion of this large subject and which is becoming very much better understood with the lapse of time. Our intention is to bring to the notice of the reader some recent happenings showing how direct and immediate are the benefits to one important class of the population, namely those in the employ of the roads, from an improvement in the prospects of these transportation companies. The present week no less than three large systems have made announcement of a higher scale of wages for the coming year. The circumstance that these advances—or to be more accurate, restorations of wages previously reduced—are accepted quite as a matter of fact, and have passed almost unnoticed, does not alter their significance. The roads we have reference to are the Louisville & Nashville, the Southern Railway and the Missouri Pacific. These three systems together operate or control close to 10 per cent of the entire railroad mileage of the country.

In noting this action in these cases it is well to observe at the outset that these are all properties where a reduction in wages because of the unfortunate circumstances of the roads was imperative during the years when the carrying industry was so severely prostrated. The Southern Railway, as is well known, is the old Richmond & West Point Terminal system reorganized. The Louisville & Nashville and the Missouri Pacific have both been obliged to withhold dividends from their stockholders for years—the former having paid nothing since 1893, the latter since 1891. And this calls attention to the reluctance with which managers make reductions in the wage scale, only entering upon such a course as a last resort. Where there was still a margin of dividends for the shareholders wages were not cut. In proof of this statement we point to the fact that on most of the leading railroad systems of the country the old rate of pay was maintained all through the times of depression. Stockholders might have to content themselves with smaller returns, but the effort everywhere was not to lower the compensation to the employe, if such a step could be avoided without risk of insolvency. The force of employes of course had to be cut down, but the pay for the service was continued. On the other hand, where, as in the case of the Louisville & Nashville, the Missouri Pacific and the Southern Railway, the dividend margin had already been exhausted, there was of course no alternative but to scale wages down in the attempt to prevent utter collapse.

Now that revenues are again increasing and the outlook brightening, what do we find? The first step is not in the direction of giving the proprietors some remuneration after their going for several years without anything; that will come by and by, if the present conditions continue. Instead, the first concern is to see that those who give their services to the roads are restored to their former status in this matter of pay. Nor is this the result of a hasty or sudden decision. It is a policy deliberately entered upon a long time ago, and now being carried out in accordance with this early purpose and resolution. Of the Louisville & Nashville particularly is that statement true. The last annual report contained a reference to the matter and an announcement to that affect. The original reduction amounted to 20 per cent on salaries in excess of four thousand dollars and 10 per cent on salaries and wages less than that amount. It will be seen that all employes were affected, the high-priced ones to the largest proportionate extent.

On July 1 1898 the managers, finding conditions already greatly improved, made a partial return to the old rate by restoring one-half the reduction. Assurances were then given that the remainder of the cut would be eliminated January 1 1899 should circumstances warrant. It is in accordance with this promise that the company is now acting. The telegraphic dispatch conveying the information states the order affects 18,000 men, from which one may judge what the step means. The news must be welcome to the men, and they are to be congratulated that they have now got back to where they stood prior to 1893. But the public, and especially that part of it which is prone to decry railroads and railroad managers, should not lose sight of the fact that the stockholders in the matter of dividends have not yet got back to the basis prevailing previous to the 1893 panic. The company is doing very nicely, and an early resumption of dividends is well within the range of probabilities. But the important point is that dividends to the employes precede those to the stockholders.

These remarks apply with equal truth to the action of the Missouri Pacific and the Southern Railway, except that the step in those cases involves, according to the newspaper accounts, a smaller body of men. The Southern Railway several years ago was obliged to cut the wages of its mechanics 10 per cent. Now the old pay is to be accorded. The dispatch says this will affect over 1,200 men in Atlanta alone. On the Missouri Pacific system the remuneration of passenger train conductors is to be increased. Under the old rules the maximum compensation for conductors was $100 per month. Now the rate when the train's mileage exceeds 5,000 miles is to be $125 per month. Missouri Pacific shareholders, as we have already pointed out, have had no return on their investment since 1891. Nor is the prospect for an early resumption of payments in that case so promising as in that of the Louisville & Nashville. The Southern Railway it is true has been giving its preferred stock the trifling return of one per cent per annum, but this preferred stock represents in large part previously existing bond issues.

Nor are the benefits attending the revival of railroad prosperity compassed in the mere restoration of wages. There is the further fact that the men get fuller and larger employment. One of the first effects of the falling off in traffic and earnings succeeding 1893 was the large number of men who were thereby put in enforced idleness. The statistics prepared by the Statistician of the Inter-State Commerce Commission bring this out in a striking way. In the fiscal year ending June 30 1893 873,602 men were employed in the railroad service. The very next year the number dropped to 779,608, a falling off of almost one hundred thousand men. June 30 1897 (these are the latest figures available) the aggregate was up to 823,476, but this is still fifty thousand below the number in 1893. Now of course large additions are again being made to the force and it will not be long, we may be sure, before we shall see a full million men at work on the railroad system of the country.

This refers only to the ordinary operations of the roads. Besides this a large amount of new mileage is being added. We have adverted on a previous page to a statement of the "Railroad Gazette" of this city showing that more miles of new road have been built in 1898 than in any year since 1892. But judging by current indications this is only the beginning. In 1899 new track-laying will rise to still larger proportions. Consider also the effect on other industries, arising from the purchases of rails, locomotives, cars, &c. How many extra men, for instance, are given employment in the iron and steel trades, how many in building locomotives, how many in manufacturing cars. Go a step further and study the numberless ways in which the extension and increase in spending power of this growing mass of employes is going to act and inter-act on all the various lines of industries throughout the length and breadth of the land. With such results before him let no one hereafter imagine that harm can be done to the railroads without involving the whole community and the whole range of industries.

MUNICIPAL POWERS IN GRANTING FRANCHISES FOR WATER AND GAS.

A case was decided last month by the United States Supreme Court which involved an unusual number of important questions bearing upon the right and power of municipalities to grant franchises and make contracts for supplying the inhabitants with water and gas. The case was that of the City of Walla Walla (Wash.) versus the Walla Walla Water Company. In plain language the city was engaged in an attempt to violate a contract and to repudiate the obligation resting thereon. When brought into Court, the city set up a number of ingenious objections to the validity of the contract, some of which seemed to possess force. It is the Court's ruling on these contested points that gives to the action wide interest.

It appears that in 1887 the City Council of Walla Walla passed an ordinance granting to the water company, under certain restrictions, for a period of 25 years, the right to lay mains, pipes, &c., in the streets, highways, &c., for the purpose of furnishing the inhabitants of the city with water. The city also bound itself to pay the company a rental of $1,500 per annum. Right was reserved to the city to take, condemn and pay for the water rights and works of the company at any time, but the contract was to be voidable only for substantial failure on the part of the company to fulfil its requirements, and then only "upon the judgment of a Court of competent jurisdiction." Until so voided the city bound itself not to erect, maintain or become interested in any other water works. Notwithstanding this solemn obligation the Council in 1893, after the contract had been in force and the stipulated rentals paid for about six years, passed an ordinance providing for the construction of a system of water works by the city itself, and the issue of bonds to amount of $160,000 to provide the necessary funds. The proposition was submitted to a vote of the people and approved. The city was about to act in accordance with this ordinance when the water company filed a bill and secured an injunction, first temporary and then permanent, restraining all proceedings thereunder. An appeal was then taken direct to the U. S. Supreme Court.

One of the questions determined as the result of this suit is that a municipal corporation may lawfully contract for a supply of water or gas, or a like necessary, and may stipulate for the payment of annual rental for the water or gas furnished each year, notwithstanding the aggregate of its rentals during the life of the contract may exceed the debt limit fixed by its charter. Such a contract the Court says does not create a debt except conditionally. Walla Walla's charter limit of indebtedness at the making of the contract was $50,000. The debt of the city at the time was $16,000. As the contract called for a yearly rental of $1,500 for twenty-five years, or $37,500 in the aggregate, it was contended that this sum added to the then existing indebtedness of $16,000 would create a debt in excess of the $50,000 limit.

Justice Brown, who delivered the opinion of the Court, said there is a considerable conflict of authority respecting the proper construction of such limitations in municipal charters. There could be no doubt that if the city proposed to purchase outright or establish a system of water works of its own, the limitation would apply, though bonds were issued payable in the future. There are also a number of authorities, he asserted, to the effect that the limitation covers a case where the city agrees to pay a certain sum per annum if the aggregate amount payable under such agreement exceeds the amount limited by the charter. Still the weight of authority, as well as of reason, favored the more liberal construction. There is a distinction between a debt and a contract for a future indebtedness to be incurred provided the contracting party perform the agreement out of which the debt may arise. There is also a distinction between the latter case and one where an absolute debt is created at once, as by the issue of railway bonds, or for the erection of a public improvement, though such debt be payable in the future by instalments. In one case the indebtedness is not created until the consideration has been furnished; in the other the debt is created at once, the time of payment being only postponed. In the present instance the annual rental did not become an indebtedness, within the meaning of the charter, until the water appropriate to that year had been furnished. If the company had failed to furnish it the rental would not have been payable at all; and while the original contract provided for the creation of an indebtedness, it was only upon condition that the company performed its own obligation.

It is also pointed out that a different construction might be disastrous to the interests of the city, which is obviously debarred from purchasing or establishing a plant of its own exceeding in value the debt limit, and is forced to contract with some company willing to incur the large expense necessary in erecting water-works upon the faith of the city paying its annual rentals. The obvious purpose of limitations of this kind in municipal charters is to prevent the improvident contracting of debts for other than the ordinary current expenses of the municipality. Such limitations certainly have no reference, Justice Brown argues, to debts incurred for the salaries of municipal officers, members of the fire and police departments, school teachers, or other salaried employes to whom the city necessarily becomes indebted in the ordinary conduct of municipal affairs, and for the discharge of which money is annually raised by taxation. For all purposes necessary to the exercise of their corporate powers, municipalities are at liberty to make contracts regardless of the statutory limitations, provided at least that the amount to be raised each year does not exceed the indebtedness allowed by the charter. Among these purposes is the prevention of fire, the purchase of fire engines, the pay of firemen, and the supply of water by the payment of annual rentals therefor.

It would be quite out of question in the limits of a newspaper article to notice all the objections to the validity of the contract raised by the city, and which, without exception, have been overruled by the Court. We shall confine ourselves to a consideration only of two other contentions advanced in behalf of the city: (1) That the contract creates a monopoly which, in the absence of an express grant from the Legislature of power so to do, or such power necessarily implied, is void as in contravention of public policy; and (2) that the contract is void as an attempt to contract away a part of the legislative power of the City Council. With reference to the first proposition the Court points out that by Section 10 of the charter the city is authorized to grant the right to use the streets for the purpose of laying gas and other pipes to any person or association of persons for a term not exceeding twenty-five years, "provided always that none of the rights or privileges hereinafter granted shall be exclusive or prevent the Council from granting the said rights to others." As the contract in question was expressly limited to 25 years, and as no attempt was made to grant an exclusive privilege to the water company, says Justice Brown, the city seems to have acted within the strictest limitations of the charter. Had the privilege been an exclusive one, the contract might be considered objectionable upon the ground that it created a monopoly without an express sanction of the Legislature to that effect. But he does not think that an ordinance granting a right to a water company for 25 years to lay and maintain water pipes creates a monopoly or prevents the granting of a similar franchise to another company. "Particularly is this so when taken in connection with a further stipulation that the city shall not erect water works of its own. This provision is not devoid of an implication that it was intended to exclude only competition from itself and not from other parties whom it might choose to invest with a similar franchise."

With reference to the argument that the contract is void as an attempt to barter away the legislative power of the city council, this rests upon the assumption that contracts for supplying a city with water are within the police power of the city, and may be controlled, managed or abrogated at the pleasure of the council. Justice Brown says the Court has doubtless held that the police power is one which remains constantly under the control of the legislative authority, and that a city council can neither bind itself nor its successors to contracts prejudicial to the peace, good order, health or morals of its inhabitants. Under this power and the analogous power of taxation, the city council might take such measures as were necessary or prudent to secure the purity of the water furnished under the contract of the company, the payment of its just contributions to the public burdens and the observances of ordinances respecting the manner in which the pipes and mains of the company should be laid through the streets of the city. But where a contract for a supply of water is innocuous itself and is carried out with due regard to the good order of the city and the health of its inhabitants, the aid of the police power cannot be invoked to abrogate or impair it.

Nor could the Court find anything objectionable in the stipulation that the city would not erect water works of its own during the life of the contract. An agreement of that kind was a natural incident to the main purpose of the contract. In establishing a system of water works the company would necessarily incur a large expense in the construction of its power house and the laying of its pipes through the streets; and as the life of the contract was limited to 25 years, it would naturally desire to protect itself from competition as far as possible, and would have a right to expect that at least the city would not itself enter into such competition. It is not to be supposed, the opinion goes on, that the company would have entered upon this large undertaking in view of the possibility that, in one of the sudden changes of public opinion to which all municipalities are more or less subject, the city might resolve to enter the field itself (a field in which it undoubtedly would have become master) and practically extinguish the rights it had already granted the company. Cases are not infrequent where under a general power to cause the streets of a city to be lighted, or to furnish its inhabitants with a supply of water, without limitation as to time, it has been held that the city has no right to grant an exclusive franchise for a period of years. But such cases are not applicable because they do not touch upon the question how far the city, in the exercise of an undoubted power to make a particular contract, can hedge it about with limitations designed to do little more, says Justice Brown, than bind the city to carry out the contract in good faith, and with decent regard for the rights of the other party.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS OF GOLD AND SILVER AT SAN FRANCISCO.

The Collector of Customs at San Francisco has furnished us this week the details of imports and exports of gold and silver through that port for the month of November, and they are given below in conjunction with the figures for preceding months, thus completing the results for the eleven months of the calendar year 1898. The imports of gold have been heavy, although less than in either September or October. The amount received reached $3,700,464, of which $3,597,790 was in coin. Of silver there came in $145,631, of which $137,453 was bul lion. During the eleven months there has been received a total of $30,640,403 gold and $1,505,970 silver, which compares with $10,364,700 gold and $1,956,158 silver in 1897. The shipments of gold during November were $238,825, all but $2,100 in coin, and the exports of silver have been $151,173 coin. For the eleven months the exports of gold have reached $802,361, against $862,778 in 1897, and $4,430,434 silver has been sent out, against $9,781,136 in 1897. The exhibit for November and the eleven months is as follows:

Monetary and Commercial English News

[From our own correspondent.]

LONDON, Saturday, Dec. 10, 1898.

There is decidedly less activity on the Stock Exchange this week, owing to a recurrence of political apprehension. On Tuesday evening Sir E. Monson, the British Ambassador at Paris, speaking at the annual dinner of the British Chamber of Commerce there, made a speech re-affirming what has been so often said by cabinet ministers, and warning France that, if good relations between the two countries are to be preserved, she must adopt a less hostile policy. Naturally this has been understood to mean that we have not yet come to a settlement with the French Government; and in the present condition of France, when the struggle between the civil and military authorities is so fierce, people are naturally uneasy as to what the outcome may be.

Then, again, the state of Spain is growing more and more desperate. Financially she is utterly bankrupt, and there is a general expectation of a Carlist rising, possibly of a Carlist revolution, before long. It is reasonably to be supposed that the great French capitalists who are so largely interested in Spanish finance have by this time made all necessary preparations. Still there is a fear that the effect of a complete collapse in Spain upon the Paris Bourse and the Paris money market may be worse than the most careful observers expect.

Moreover, France has lent immense sums in Germany. Some good banking authorities in Paris estimate the amount as high as a milliard of francs, or 40 millions sterling, or 200 million dollars. The figures seem utterly incredible. Probably half the amount would be nearer the mark. But at all events, the present advances of the great French banks to the great German banks are very large, indeed; and the crisis in Berlin is leading to apprehension on that account likewise. The best opinion here undoubtedly is that if peace is maintained there is no danger of any serious disturbance either of the Paris money market or of the Paris Bourse. But then operators and speculators are not generally very well informed, and for the moment there is uneasiness on account of the internal condition of France.

In Germany the crisis continues. Apparently, indeed, it is growing worse. Perhaps it would be truer to say that the people are at last beginning to see that the wild speculation must be brought to an end. At all events, there has been this week a decline in the prices of industrial securities. The best opinion in London, as well as in Paris is that though there will be numerous failures among the smaller operators, the great capitalists will not fail, and that there will be for many years a large lock-up of capital. Trade in Germany has been wonderfully active, and the country has made great progress. Still, it is a comparatively poor country; and the trial it is going through now is very severe. So long as there are no serious political apprehensions the French banks are not likely to withdraw money from Germany; and an alarm on the part of the French banks is the real danger in the case.

In Austria-Hungary the race animosities and the conflicts of parties are growing keener and keener. As long as the Emperor Francis Joseph lives there is a very confident feeling everywhere that there will be no actual outbreak. But what will happen after him is a question that it is better not to attempt to answer. The numerous and brutal expulsions of the Slav subjects of the Austrian crown from Prussia, and indeed from some other parts of Germany also have excited great indignation, naturally, among Austrian Slavs, and threaten to bring about very strained relations between Austria and Germany.

In opening the Reichstag on Tuesday the German Emperor spoke of the Emperor Francis Joseph as his faithful ally. We are bound to conclude, therefore, that the Triple Alliance still exists. But there are grave doubts not only abroad, but likewise in Germany and Austria themselves, whether the Alliance would bear the test of actual war. The condition of the Continent being such, it is very natural that it should create some anxiety here as well as elsewhere. And it is matter for congratulation that those who were beginning to speculate rather wildly have been pulled up in time. They were very small in numbers. The public at large did not take part in the speculation.

Our foreign trade continues somewhat unsatisfactory, our exports showing for November only a nominal increase. Looking at the state of the Continent it is not surprising that the Continental peoples are unable to buy much. But it is odd that there is no increase in our exports either to the United States, Argentine or India, all of which are so much better off than they were a couple of years ago. No doubt the war with Spain and the Dingley Tariff account for the small American purchases. But there is as little expansion in the Indian and the Argentine purchases. Regarding India, however, large orders are being placed in this country at present, and if peace is maintained, therefore, we shall see an early improvement.

In the home trade, on the other hand, there is wonderful activity. Indeed, it may be said without exaggeration that never before in the history of the country has the home trade been so perfectly sound as good. All through the Baring crisis and the bad times that followed, and all through the period of political anxiety that came immediately afterwards, the internal trade has continued expanding, and it is growing larger still. For instance, the Clearing House returns show a very considerble increase upon last year, and so do the railway traffic returns. In fact, within the past five years the railway traffic returns record a gross increase of about 60 millions sterling.

The Directors of the Bank of England have made no change in their rate of discount this week, as indeed was generally expected, since they have done nothing to enable them to get control of the outside market. Possibly they may be unwilling to do anything that would render the crisis in Germany more acute than it is, and they may think that the crisis is now nearing an end. At all events, about half a million sterling in gold has been withdrawn from the Bank during the past week, and nearly as much more has gone into the internal circulation.

Meanwhile the India Council continues to sell its drafts wonderfully well. On Wednesday it offered for tender 45 lacs, and the applications exceeded 367 lacs. The whole amount offered was sold at prices ranging from 1s. 3 15 16d. to 1s. 4d. per rupee, by far the greater part at the lower price. Next Wednesday 50 lacs will be offered.

WALL STREET, FRIDAY, DEC. 23, 1898.—5 P. M.

The Money Market and Financial Situation.—The traditional holiday features have been scarcely perceptible this week in Wall Street. On Monday and Tuesday operations were somewhat restricted, since which the markets have resumed activity and strength nearly equal to that which was so conspicuous a feature last week. There is nothing distinctively new in the general situation. Factors which have contributed to the buoyancy of the security markets for some time past continue in force despite the approaching holiday season and the tendency to curtail operations which usually prevails during the closing weeks of the year.

The transactions for foreign account have continued large, and contributed in no small degree to the volume of business recorded, but the balance of these operations seems to have little or no effect upon values. The markets are strong and prices are advancing, chiefly because American capital is seeking investment and absorbing all offerings from whatever source, with no perceptible evidence that the demand is decreasing. There was reported to be a little more inquiry for sterling exchange early in the week, but the amount needed for January 1st settlements is smaller than in former years, and the effect of such purchases was limited. The money market is easier as the week draws to a close, and it seems improbable that the adjustment of accounts incident to the season will produce any important change.

The open market rates for call loans on the Stock Exchange during the week on stock and bond collaterals have ranged from 2 to 4½ per cent. To day's rates on call were 2¼ to 2½ per cent. Prime commercial paper quoted 3 to 3¾ per cent.

The Bank of England weekly statement on Thursday showed a decrease in bullion of £398,372, and the percentage of reserve to liabilities was 42·03, against 50·40 last week; the discount rate remains unchanged at 4 per cent. The Bank of France shows a decrease of 650,000 francs in gold and an increase of 1,450,000 francs in silver.

The New York City Clearing-House banks in their statement of Dec. 17 showed an increase in the reserve held of $2,761,100 and a surplus over the required reserve of $16,973,375, against $16,743,300 the previous week.

The Clearing-House, on Oct. 80, 1897, also began issuing weekly returns showing the condition of the non-member banks which clear through the Clearing-House institutions. The statement in full for the latest week will be found on a preceding page.

Foreign Exchange.—A somewhat better demand for sterling exchange during a part of the week caused a firmer tone to the market and rates were fractionally advanced. The increased demand was chiefly for Jan. 1st settlement, and therefore temporary. The market is easier at the close.

To-day's actual rates of exchange were as follows: Bankers' sixty days' sterling, 4 81¾@4 82; demand, 4 84⅛@4 84¾; cables, 4 85¼@4 85½; prime commercial, sixty days, 4 81@4 81¼; documentary commercial, sixty days, 4 80½@4 81⅛; grain for payment, 4 81½@4 81¾; cotton for payment, 4 80¾@4 81; cotton for acceptance, 4 81⅛@4 81½.

The market for railway bonds has been less active than last week, but otherwise the same general characteristics have prevailed. The daily transactions averaged about $4,500,000 par value, and were well distributed, chiefly among low-priced issues. Colorado Fuel & Iron 5s were conspicuous for an advance of 7 points on limited transactions. This advance, with that of the shares, and the advance in Tennessee Coal Iron & Railway bonds and stocks, was accompanied by rumors of an alliance with Federal Steel. Atchison adjustment 4s and Texas & Pacific 2ds continued prominently active, and made a further advance of 1½ and 2 points, respectively. Wisconsin Central trust receipts were relatively active and advanced 1 point.

Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks.—During the early part of the week the stock market was less active than of late, but the volume of business steadily increased after Tuesday, and the average is nearly up to that of last week. While the tendency of prices has been with some irregularity upward, not many issues which are usually prominent for activity have advanced more than about a point. The strongest features were stocks some of which, it is presumed, will be more or less benefited by a change in the management of Chicago & Alton, including Chicago & Alton, Baltimore & Ohio, Central Pacific, Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific issues. Atchison preferred has continued the most active on the railway list, but has receded somewhat from the high quotations noted last week. The grangers have been active and strong, the leaders of the group having advanced an average of over a point. Lake Erie & Western preferred advanced over 9 points and the common nearly 8 points on a good demand for the shares.

The speculative element has been specially interested in some of the newer issues on the miscellaneous list. Of these Federal Steel common was by far the most active, and advanced 10 points American Steel and Wire common and preferred advanced 8¼ and 8⅛ points respectively. International Paper was also prominent for activity and strength. American Sugar Refining fluctuated over a range of 6 points, and closes with a net gain of 1⅝ points.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

The following table shows the gross earnings of every STEAM railroad from which regular weekly or monthly returns can be obtained. The first two columns of figures give the gross earnings for the latest week or month, and the last two columns the earnings for the period from January 1 to and including such latest week or month.

The returns of the street railways are brought together separately on a subsequent page.

STREET RAILWAYS AND TRACTION COMPANIES.

The following table shows the gross earnings for the latest period of all STREET railways from which we are able to obtain weekly or monthly returns. The arrangement of the table is the same as that for the steam roads—that is, the first two columns of figures give the gross earnings for the latest week or month, and the last two columns the earnings for the calendar year from January 1 to and including such latest week or month.

Street Railway Net Earnings.—The following table gives the returns of STREET railway gross and net earnings received this week. In reporting these net earnings for the street railways, we adopt the same plan as that for the steam roads—that is, we print each week all the returns received that week, but once a month (on the third or the fourth Saturday) we bring together all the roads furnishing returns, and the latest statement of this kind will be found in the CHRONICLE of December 17, 1898. The next will appear in the issue of January 21, 1899.

Kansas City Memphis & Birmingham RR.

(Report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1898.)

Mr. Edward S. Washburn, President and General Manager, says in part:

In September, 1897, yellow fever appeared in various places in the South and fear of an epidemic led to rigid quarantine regulations which seriously affected passenger business. Had it not been for the yellow fever quarantine, results from freight business, which, as it is, show increased earnings of $147,314, would have been still more satisfactory. Local freight trains were abandoned from Oct. 22 until Nov. 10, and through freight was only handled by changing crews at State lines from Oct. 23 until Nov. 10. Betterments included in operating expenses for the year ending June 30, 1898, aggregated $42,877. With the exception of $300 resulting from exchange of securities under the readjustment agreement, there has been no charge to construction. During the year the equipment was increased by the purchase of two hundred box cars of 60,000 pounds capacity and fifty flat cars, also of 60,000 pounds capacity, all of which are equipped with air brakes and automatic couplers and are included in the above statement. The property is now in better condition than ever before.

Kansas City Fort Scott & Memphis RR.

(Report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1898.)

Mr. Edward S. Washburn, President and General Manager says in part:

In the autumn of 1897 yellow fever appeared at various places in the South, producing apprehension of a serious epidemic, which led to the enforcement of rigid quarantine regulations that seriously affected both our freight and passenger business to and from Memphis and beyond. Aside from this interruption to traffic, the anticipations mentioned in the report last year of improvement in volume of business were realized, but full benefit in revenue was not derived therefrom, owing to disturbance in rate conditions. In the spring of this year the Mississippi Valley was visited by a flood that reached a trifle above the maximum height of the flood of last year, but as, in the meanwhile, the track in low places had been slightly raised, it was possible; but with great difficulty, at an expense of $4,980, to keep the track open and trains moving. However, the results for the year as compared with recent years are encouraging.

Decided improvements were made in the condition of track, bridges and equipment, and it is the intention to continue the policy that has been pursued in the past to have the property at the end better than at the beginning of each year. The betterments included in operating expenses for the year ending June 30, 1898, aggregate $115,339.

There were laid 40·91 miles of 75-pound steel in the main track.

Bonded Debt.—During the past year $738,000 of the reserved consolidated mortgage 6 per cent bonds have been issued, retiring a like amount of obligations of the company, viz.: $150,000 10-year 6 per cent notes, due Jan. 15, 1896; $170,000 10-year 6 per cent notes, due Dec. 1, 1895.—Feb. 15, 1896; $338,000 Kansas City Springfield & Memphis RR. Co. plain 6 per cent bonds, due May 1, 1894, heretofore carried in suspense; $80,000 notes payable on demand.

Statistics of operations, etc., compiled for the CHRONICLE show:

Richmond Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad.

(Report for the year ended June 30, 1898.)

President E. T. D. Myers says:

The revenue from freight trains is the largest in the history of the company, the ton mileage having been 10 per cent greater than for any previous year. The average rate received was 1·01 cents per ton per mile. The average rate per passenger mile was 2⅛ cents. The passenger business includes the transportation of about 8,000 soldiers. The volume of freight traffic to and from Richmond increased 13·7 per cent and to and from Fredericksburg 20·4 per cent. The investments of the company are stated at cost, which is considerably below the present market price. There are ample funds for the payment in July, 1899, of the 7 per cent debt of $80,803 then maturing. The condition of the property has been carefully maintained.

The interest of the State of Virginia now amounts to $467,800, upon which the dividends paid this year were $32,746. Her original and entire input was $275,200, in return for which she has received cash dividends of $330,755, and her holding is now worth some $539,000 at the present market prices.

Bangor & Aroostook Railroad.

(Report for the year ending June 30, 1898.)

Vice-President F. W. Cram says in part:

The earnings in the last year show gains excepting from the one item of potatoes. From shipments of these we earned $50,000 to $70,000 less than from the crop of 1896. The acreage is much greater this year than ever before with every promise of the average yield per acre. During the year 15¼ miles of new main line, Caribou to Limestone, with sidings, buildings, etc., complete have been, as per your authority, made part of the system. This additional mileage, built under charter to the Aroostook Northern RR Co., is leased to the Bangor & Aroostook RR. Co. in perpetuity at a rental of $11,250 per year, the interest upon the bonds ($225,000).

The roadway and its appurtenances have been in all ways kept in full repair, in many directions improved. The leading improvements consist of ballasting—32,000 yards—mostly on the Bangor & Piscataquis section, the complete rebuilding, or replacing by steel pipe, of 64 culverts and short trestles; the laying of 37,784 standard, and 28 sets of switch ties; the rebuilding of 9,538 and repairing of 4,772 rods of fence, and the construction of one new flanger car.

(For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1898.)

President T. G. Bush says in part:

After providing for the year's interest on the prior lien bonds and 2 per cent on the 1st mortgage income bonds for the six months ending June 30, 1898, and $8,078 for work done at new wharves, etc., there remains a balance of $16,514 to be carried forward. The loss in passenger earnings occasioned by the yellow fever quarantine was $10,813, and there is reason to believe that without these interruptions the gross earnings would have shown a considerable increase over those of the preceding year. The general condition of the road has been much improved during the year.

A comparison of the revenue account with that of the previous two years shows as follows:

Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

(Report for half-year ending Oct. 31, 1898.)

William Mahl, Assistant to the President, says in substance:

The decrease in "earnings" from exchange and the increase in "expenses" for exchange result from stating the company's earnings and expenses, beginning with this fiscal year, on the basis of United States gold. From its organization, in 1848, the company in its reports of earnings and expenses, treated on a parity the gold and silver of the countries at whose ports its steamers called. This method of dealing with the two metals was entirely proper while the parity continued, but the depreciation in the value of silver in recent years disturbed comparison of operations and it is thought best to state earnings and expenses, assets and liabilities, exclusively in United States gold. Although diminishing an apparent income, the effect of this change was to reduce the expenses attending the operation of steamers and the maintenance of agencies in the silver countries, and will account for a large part of the decrease in the steamer and agency expenses, as compared with the previous year.

Commencing with this fiscal year the company deducted from the current earnings for a fund for "general and extraordinary repairs of steamers" 5 per cent per annum upon the cost of steamers and other floating equipment, following the practice of English companies in respect to this matter. This will explain the increase of $125,030 in the "fund for general and extraordinary repairs of steamers." On Nov. 16 the directors declared a cash dividend of 1½ per cent on the outstanding capital stock, payable Dec. 1st, 1898. The steamers referred to in the last annual report as chartered to the Government of the United States of America have been returned, with the exception of the steamship Newport, which has been re-chartered to the Government.

In the same period the current liabilities have increased only $95,202, being now $277,358. The excess of capital stock and liabilities over assets has by these and other changes been reduced by $460,222 to $10,473,324.—V. 67, p, 1056.

Terre Haute Electric Railway.

(Report for year ended Oct. 31, 1898.)

Receiver Joshua Jump, in his first annual report, states that he has issued, under order of court, $33,520 of receiver's certificates to pay over-due taxes and to purchase new cars, boilers and other appurtenances. He has received authority to pay off $1,266 of the certificates and requests authority to pay an additional amount of $10,000. The cost of repairs during the year, he says, has been greater by several thousand dollars than it would have been except "for the very bad physical condition of the tracks, equipment and power plants" when he took possession. For the years ending June 30, 1897 and 1896, respectively, the company reported gross earnings of $157,440 and $161,671. The receiver now reports:

Chicago Packing & Provision Company.

(Report for half-year ending Oct. 31, 1898.)

The fiscal year has been changed to end Oct. 31. Chairman C. Ashworth at the annual meeting said:

The excessive competition amongst the American packing companies has been of an unprecedented character, both in buying hogs and in selling their manufactured products, and although the business of the company during the period is one of the largest ever done by it, the result has been unsatisfactory. The number of hogs purchased for six months and twenty-four days between April 1 and October 24 amounted to 472,885, comparing with 688,295 for the whole previous twelve months to March 31, 1898; still, the loss on the business of the American Company was $74,302. The previous six months showed a net profit of $60,705, which, deducted from the figures now exhibited, would reduce the loss to $13,597. Notwithstanding this loss, the American company has paid us a dividend of £8,000 from reserve account. The surplus fund of $188,756 remains intact, whilst the balance of profit and loss appears as $211,273, from which the dividend has still to be deducted. The bond account remains the same, $550,000, $14,000 of the bonds having been purchased but not yet redeemed. With regard to the balance sheet of the London company the profit of £7,540 2s 11d added to the balance brought forward enabled your directors to pay the interest on the preference shares due Nov. 1 and to carry forward £590 11s.

The capital stock is £400,000 of which £200,000 is 8 per cent cumulative preferred, and there are also, as said above, $550,000 of 6 per cent bonds.—V. 66, p. 1088.

Chicago & Northwest Granaries Company.

(Report for the year ending Aug. 31, 1898.)

The annual report says in part:

For the first time in the history of this company the American companies have failed to earn a dividend and a loss has been incurred. Up to Feb. 1 last the half-year's profits of the American companies were estimated at $50,000. During the next half-year the extraordinary state of the wheat market and the abnormally high price of cash wheat caused by the extensive speculation in wheat then prevailing in America converted these essential profits into a loss.

After crediting the revenue account with £3,000 from the reserve fund, together with the amount of £954 4s 3d. brought forward from last year, there remains to the debit of profit and loss account the sum of £2,376 3s 2d. The agreement for management between G. W. Van Dusen and the American companies expires on Aug. 1, next, and the subject of its renewal will be brought before the meeting. During the last year the American companies handled 4,463,415 bushels of wheat (against 6,625,682 in 1896-97) and 2,304,172 bushels of oats and other grain.

Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills Company, Limited.

(Report for the year ending August 31, 1898.)

The report, it is stated, affords the following:

The Managing Director says: "The past year has been a very disastrous one for the flour mills in the United States, and the mills that have come out without heavy losses are greatly in the minority. This was due to the manipulation of the wheat markets by a large speculator, which kept the price of wheat in the United States, and in the Northwest particularly, at fictitious prices, and much above its actual value; so that it was impossible during a large part of the season to buy wheat at prices that would admit of its being manufactured into flour without a loss." Owing to the delay which took place in the completion of the lower dam and certain difficulties connected with the installation of the electric power, it was not until Jan. 1 that the company began to receive the full revenue. But for this delay, it is said, the revenue derived from the water power alone would have been sufficient to pay the whole year's interest on the debentures of the company.

The common and preferred stock (the latter 8 per cent cumulative) each aggregate £500,000, and in addition there is a first mortgage securing 6 per cent bonds, subject to call at 110 after May 1, 1900, for the authorized amount of £875,000, and a small issue of 7 per cent preference income certificates.—V. 65, p. 1171.

American Sugar Refining.—Mr. Searles to Retire.—John E. Searles, Secretary and Treasurer, has sent a letter to President Havemeyer, saying: "Under the advice of my physician, I am compelled to decline to be a candidate for re-election to the board of directors of the American Sugar Refining Co." The annual meeting will be held Jan. 11.—V. 67, p. 632.

American Tin Plate.—Officers.—Officers and directors are:

President, D. G. Reid; First Vice-President, William B. Leeds; Second Vice-President, William P. Graham; Third Vice President, Warner Arms; Treasurer, Frederick S. Wheeler; Secretary, William F. Dutton; Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, E. G. Applegate; Auditor, W. P. Beaver. Directors, D. G. Reid, W. H. Moore, W. B. Leeds, W. P. Graham, J. H. Moore, James McLean, C. A. Robinson, J. B. Dill, W. E. Reis, F. S. Wheeler, J. A. Matthews, Warner Arms, R. R. Quay, George Greer, W. H. Donner.—V. 67, p. 1261.

About 95 per cent of the tin-plate mills of the United States, it is claimed, are embraced in the consolidation. The main office will be in the Marquette Building, Chicago. Dividends on the preferred stock are to be payable quarterly, beginning on or about April 1, 1899.

The Chicago "Inter-Ocean" gives the following, which it believes to be a conservative estimate of the company's earning capacity, based on last year's output:

Gross output (boxes)	7,633,556
Estimated profits at 35c. per box, on present basis of oper. expenses	$2,671,754
To which add estimated reduction in operating expenses	1,000,000
Making total estimated profits	$3,671,754
From which deduct—
Dividends, 7 per cent on preferred stock	1,260,000
Leaving applicable to dividends on common	$2,411,754

Two millions of the $20,000,000 preferred and a like amount of the $30,000,000 common stock remain in the treasury.—V. 67, p. 1261.

Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe Ry.—First Dividend.—The company has declared the first dividend on its preferred stock, namely, 1 per cent, payable Jan. 26. Books close Jan. 9 and re-open Jan. 27. The preferred stock outstanding aggregates $120,686,000. The dividend will therefore call for $1,206,860.—V. 67, p. 1261.

Baltimore City Passenger Ry.—Baltimore Consolidated Ry.—Negotiations.—The stockholders of the Baltimore City Passenger Ry. have received a circular in substance, saying:

Alexander Brown & Sons, Henry A. Parr and George R. Webb have made an offer to purchase the capital stock of the B. C. P. Ry. Co., which your directors believe it to be advantageous to accept. The price offered is $90 per [$25] share and embraces both the old full paid stock and the new stock, upon which as yet only two instalments of the subscription price of $50 a share have been paid. To entitle the latter to receive the price of $90 a share under the offer, the holders must first pay to the company the balance of $15 per share required to make such new stock full paid. The offer must be availed of before January 21, 1899. It is conditional upon a satisfactory confirmation by experts of the written statements submitted as to the road. The purchasers are to pay for the stock after Jan. 20, and within 90 days from Dec. 8, 1898.

Pending Consolidation.—It was reported last Saturday that an agreement had been reached for the consolidation of the Baltimore City Passenger Ry. lines and the Baltimore Consolidated Ry., in short for the consolidation of all the street lines of the city; but some hitch occurred, and though negotiations are understood to be still pending, at last accounts no definite agreement for uniting the properties had been reached.—V. 67, p. 1261, 1159.

Baltimore & Ohio RR.—To Invoke Aid of Inter-State Commerce Commission.—The receivers, under date Dec. 21, have addressed a letter to the Inter-State Commerce Commission, saying that in view of the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of the Joint Traffic Association they believe the railroads should look to the Commission to exercise "its powers to investigate complaints of illegal rate cutting and to put a stop to all illegal practices." They accordingly make this announcement:

The receivers of the Baltimore & Ohio RR. Co. will maintain, on and after Jan. 1, 1899, upon the lines operated by them, the rates, fares and charges shown on the tariffs published and filed with the Commission as required by law. We believe that all or nearly all of the railroad carriers within the territory above mentioned will likewise maintain their published tariff rates from that date. To prevent a relapse, however, to the conditions now existing, it is necessary that no important carrier shall long depart from the published tariff of rates. Should such a departure occur to the detriment of the interests in our charge, we shall invoke the aid of the Commission to stop it. We hope and believe that many other carriers will do the same.

Parkersburg Branch Foreclosure.—The trustees under the Parkersburg Branch collateral trust mortgage of 1879 for $3,000,000 have been authorized by United States Judge Morris to institute suit to foreclose the mortgage and sell the bonds of the Parkersburg Branch Railroad Company pledged as security for the B. & O. loan.—V. 67, p. 1261.

Boston & Montana Consolidated Silver & Copper Mining.—Litigation.—At Butte, Montana, December 16 Judge Clancy appointed Thomas R. Hinds receiver of the company in the suit of James Forester and John MacGinnis, holders of 200 shares of stock, who allege an attempted diversion of the assets through transfer of the property from the Montana to the New York corporation. The following day the Supreme Court of Montana granted a writ of review staying all progress of the suit, the case to be heard Jan. 6.

On Wednesday, according to a newspaper despatch, the Supreme Court of Montana decided adversely upon the motion of the company for a new hearing in the matter of the injunction obtained early in December by the same petitioners, who ask for a receivership against the transfer of the property to the New York corporation.—V. 67, p. 899.

Brooklyn Rapid Transit.—Refunding and Conversion Plan.—As is generally known, a plan has recently been under consideration looking to the merging of the subsidiary companies (Brooklyn City RR. etc.), the refunding and conversion of their bonds and guaranteed stock into 4 per cent bonds and the consequent setting free of the $4,000,000 guarantee fund as well as a reduction of fixed charges. It is now said the plan has encountered opposition and is by no means certain of being adopted. An official, however, says:

A general blanket mortgage, covering all the present bond issues, and at the rate of 4 per cent would greatly simplify matters, and if the exchange was offered in reasonable terms to the present security holders there is every reason to believe it would be accepted. In regard to the Brooklyn City RR. stock, it is reasonable to suppose that the holders would gladly exchange even a guaranteed stock for what would be a gilt-edged bond and a first lien on the property. The stock has nothing behind it but the guarantee and the guarantee fund, while the bond would be secured by the property, on which the bonds would be the first lien. Some $4,000,000 to $5,000,000 has been spent in betterments and improvements on the system since the lease with the Brooklyn City was executed, and this adds just so much to the value of the property. We are confident that a fair and reasonable proposition to exchange the stock for a first class bond would be accepted. —V. 67, p. 954.

Central Michigan RR.—Michigan & Ohio Belt RR.—Prospectus of Projected Lines.—These companies propose to build a railway from Grand Haven, Mich., via Grand Rapids, Battle Creek, Coldwater and Camden, Mich.; Napoleon and Bowling Green, Ohio, to Fremont, 245 miles. Car ferry connection between Milwaukee and Grand Haven is part of the scheme. An issue of $7,000,000 of 5 per cent first mortgage forty-year gold bonds is intended to furnish the necessary funds. The authorized capital stock is $5,000,000. About 200 miles of right of way, it is claimed, has been put under contract, and 145 miles graded and nearly ready for cross-ties and rails. J. W. Boyanton, of Grand Rapids, Mich, is President.

Central Vermont RR.—Called Bonds.—The following 6 per cent equipment bonds have been drawn by lot and will be paid, with accrued interest, Jan. 1, 1899, viz.:

Nos. 32, 42, 57, 93, 94, 108, 130, 143, 152, 153, 161, 171, 218, 222, 240, 283, 287, 312, 321, 339, 373, 397, 430, 478, 480.—V. 67, p. 1034.

Chicago Great Western Ry.—Extension to Omaha.—New Locomotives.—President Stickney has made a statement saying in substance:

The boycott against the road has done us no harm. On the contrary, it has resulted in our making new arrangements which are likely to be better than the old ones.

The matter of the extension to Omaha is under consideration. We do not propose to go into any building enterprise, except upon sound knowledge of what it is going to cost and what the chances are for returns. Western Iowa is a rough country, expensive for railroad building. All the railroads through there have bad grades. We have surveyed some routes and can, perhaps, get a satisfactory grade, provided we are willing to pay what it will cost. There are about a hundred miles of light building and perhaps 70 miles of heavy building. When we know what the average cost will be and what we shall have to pay for a road with about a 5 10 grade, we shall be in a position to say something definite.

The general prospect for business on our line is as good if not better than it was a year ago. Our elevator business has been considerably larger, and our net earnings have shown a material increase, even at the lower rates which have been in force. We have come to the point of beginning dividends on the A stock. I see no reason why these dividends should not be continued.

We could have earned more money this year if we had had more locomotives. We have just ordered ten of the largest type. The use of these heavy locomotives, however, involves a good deal more. It means that where we have to spend $100,000 for locomotives we have to spend $300,000 more in strengthening bridges, lengthening side tracks and getting in position to handle heavier trains, which is the main reason for using the heavier locomotives.—V. 67, p. 1206.

Chicago Street Railroads.—Franchises Withheld.—The City Council by a vote of 39 to 25 has adopted a resolution declaring that no ordinances extending street railroad franchises should be entertained until the Allen law is repealed. The Lyman ordinance was referred to the Railroad Committee, and it is believed is practically dead. Public sentiment is strongly opposed to granting new privileges to the companies excepting under onerous conditions.—V. 67, p. 1206.

Chicago Wisconsin & Minnesota RR.—Milwaukee & Lake Winnebago RR.—Deposits Called For.—Holders of the first mortgage bonds of these companies are requested to communicate with F. J. Lisman & Co., 30 Broad Street, N.Y., "with a view of protecting their interest, as an attempt is about to be made to disturb their lien."—V. 64, p. 903.

Citizens' Street RR.—City Ry. Co of Indianapolis.—Decision.—The Supreme Court at Indianapolis on Dec. 16 reversed the case of the City Railway Co. vs. the Citizens' Street RR. Co. and the City of Indianapolis, and decided that, the franchise of the Citizens' company will expire in 1901, and that the contract between the City Railway Co. and the city is valid. The City Company, it is understood, can therefore occupy at once any street not already occupied by the Citizens' company, and any street in the city after 1901. The Circuit Court held recently that in 1901 the city would be under no obligation to either company, and as such freedom is desired, it is said, a rehearing of the case now decided will undoubtedly be asked.

The contract between the city and the City Railway Co. was approved by the Common Council and signed by the Mayor April 25, 1893. The franchise rights granted to the City company date from May 1, 1898. The contract provides:

The company is to pay for the first five years of the franchise period 10 per cent of the gross receipts. During the next five years, 12½ per cent; during the next five years, 14½ per cent; and for the remaining period of the contract 14½ per cent of all gross receipts, all to be in addition to taxes. The fare for each passenger is required to be not more than 5 cents, when a single cash fare is paid, including transfer. Six tickets must be sold for a quarter entitling the purchaser to all privileges of a cash fare.

The grantee must pay for paving and keeping in repair the portion of the street between all rails, including the space between tracks, where there are double tracks, and eighteen inches on the outside rail of the track, with granite blocks on concrete foundation, or with the same material as is used elsewhere in the street, according to the election of the city. The grantee must pay into the treasury the cost of paving between tracks which has already been paid for by property owners, which sum must be paid pro rata to the property owners. The grantee must pay for sweeping, cleaning and sprinkling between its tracks and for eighteen inches each side.—V. 67, p. 28.

Colorado & Southern Ry.—Incorporated.—This company was duly incorporated on Dec. 20 as successor of the Union Pacific Denver & Gulf and Denver Leadville & Gunnison companies, per plan in V. 67, p. 748. The new company is authorized to issue $31,000,000 of common stock, $8,500,000 of 4 per cent first preferred and the same amount of 4 per cent second preferred stock, and $20,000,000 of first mortgage 4 per cent gold bonds.—V. 67, p. 1109, 1112.

Council Bluffs Gas & Electric Light.—Sold.—On Dec. 16 at the foreclosure sale under the first mortgage the entire property was purchased by Frank T. True, acting for the reorganization committee, for $288,179. The reorganization committee consists of W. B. Hord and C. F. Street of New York and James A. Patton, cashier of the First National Bank of Council Bluffs, and represents $240,000 of the $250,000 first mortgage bonds. The reorganized company has been incorporated under the laws of New Jersey as the Council Bluffs Gas & Electric Co. It will issue new bonds to the amount of $300,000, part, if not all, of which will be exchanged for the $250,000 of old first mortgage 6s.—V. 67, p. 900,

Delaware Lackawanna & Western RR.—President Sloan to Retire.—President Samuel Sloan having passed his eightieth year has decided to retire from the presidency of the road some time during the coming year.—V. 67, p. 1003.

Denver & Rio Grande RR.—Dividend Increased.—The company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on its preferred stock, payable Jan 16. This places the stock on a 4 per cent basis. In the calendar year 1898 the rate was 2½ per cent yearly and in 1896 and 1897, 2 per cent. The actual surplus for the four months ending Oct. 31, 1898, over all fixed charges, taxes, etc., was $528,870, and the estimated surplus earnings for November and December are $252,250, making the total estimated surplus for the six months $775,920. The company issues the following:

STATEMENT (ESTIMATED) FOR SIX MONTHS ENDING DEC. 31.

Surplus.	Equipment.	2% Dividend.	Balance.
$775,920	$105,000	$473,000	$197,920

The "equipment" above includes ten locomotives. In addition the board of directors has authorized the purchase of 500 box cars of 80 tons capacity, 250 palace stock cars and 250 coal cars, 40 tons capacity, which will be paid for out of assets in the treasury. The board has also authorized the standard-gauging of the line from La Veta to Alamosa, a distance of 60 miles, involving an important reduction in grades and curves. This improvement will extend the standard-gauge system to the San Luis Valley, and bring southwestern Colorado several hours nearer to Denver. The cost will be defrayed from the special renewal fund without encroaching upon earnings.—V. 67, p. 1160.

Dubuque (Ia.) Water Co.—Mortgage for $800,000.—The company is reported to have a mortgage for $800,000 to provide for improvements, etc.—V. 66, p. 914.

Fox River Electric Ry. of Green Bay, Wis.—Foreclosure Sale.—Judge Hastings was expected to sign on Dec. 14 the foreclosure decree authorizing the sale of the property on Jan. 14. The holders of 97 per cent of the bonds, it is understood, have united to effect a reorganization.

Hempstead (N. Y.) Water Co.—Mortgage.—First Dividend.—This company, it is stated, has canceled its issue of $50,000 bonds and made a new loan for $70,000 to the New York Security & Trust Co. as trustee. Of the new bonds $10,000 will be held in escrow for future improvements. A 5 per cent dividend has been declared, the first in four years.

Houston & Texas Central RR.—Lines to be Purchased—New Securities.—The company announces its intention to apply to the next Texas Legislature for a special law authorizing it to own and operate the Central Texas & Northwestern, the Fort Worth & New Orleans, the Lancaster Tap, the Austin & Northwestern and the Granite Mountain & Marble Falls City. These lines are already a part of the Southern Pacific system. The company will further ask authority to increase the aggregate of its bonds and stocks to an amount not exceeding the value of the property purchased, as determined by the Railroad Commission.—V. 67, p. 1260.

International Paper Co.—Control of Canadian Company's Output —Arrangements have been perfected whereby the company has secured the control and sale in the English market of the output of new paper made by the Great Laurentide Pulp Co., of Grand Mere, Quebec, Canada, which owns the largest mills in the Dominion. Sir William C. Van Horne, of the Canadian Pacific Ry., is President of the company. This business will be handled by the Great Britain Division of the International Paper Co., recently established in London to handle the export trade of the company and its various connections.—"New York Sun."—V. 67, p. 1109.

International Silver.—To Be Acquired.—Simpson, Hall, Miller & Co., of Wallingford, Conn., it is understood have agreed to sell out to the International Co.—V. 67, p. 1160.

Kansas City Pittsburg & Gulf Ry.—Consolidation.—With reference to the reports of possible reorganization, Director Edward P. Merwin is quoted as saying: "The statement published is misleading. A plan looking to the consolidation of the Kansas City Pittsburg & Gulf with other interests is under consideration, the result of which will accrue to the benefit of the security-holders of the Kansas City Pittsburg & Gulf Railroad." It is believed the plan involves the consolidation of the Kansas City Pittsburg & Gulf with its allied lines, the Kansas City & Northern, the Quincy Omaha & Kansas City and the Omaha & St. Louis, and may provide for an exchange of the present 5 per cents for 4 p. c. bonds and preferred stock.—V. 67, p. 1110.

Kansas Southwestern Ry.—St. Louis Kansas & Southwestern Ry.—Reorganized Company.—The Kansas Southwestern Railway Co. has filed articles of incorporation at Topeka, Kan., with authorized capital stock of $3,000,000, as successor of the old St. Louis Kansas & Western RR., formerly in the St. Louis & San Francisco system, but in October last foreclosed and acquired by Samuel Baker, of Hamilton, Ont., for Canadian parties. The road extends from Arkansas City to Anthony, Kan., 59 miles, and may be extended into Oklahoma and Indian Territory.—V. 67, p. 902.

Kings County Electric Light & Power.—Notice to Edison Stockholders.—The Central Trust Company will be ready, Dec. 28, to issue temporary certificates calling for the 6 per cent 99-year gold bonds which are to be issued in exchange for the Edison stock deposited.—V. 67, p. 1055.

Kingston & Pembroke Ry.—New Preferred Stock Offered.—Secretary T. W. Nash gives notice that he will receive subscriptions until Jan. 9 from stockholders, bondholders and others for the $1,000,000 of 5 per cent non-cumulative first preferred stock, which is to be issued in $50 shares and sold at 40 cents on the dollar for the purpose set forth in the plan of readjustment (see V. 67, p. 274).—V. 67, p. 901.

Lake Erie & Western RR.—New President.—George Lewis Bradbury, Vice President and General Manager of the company, has been elected President to succeed the late Calvin S. Brice.—V. 67 p. 1004.

Lehigh Valley RR.—Resignation of Vice-President.—Vice-President Charles Hartshorne, after thirty years in the service of the company, has resigned his position as Vice-President. He will remain a director.—V. 67, p. 1207.

Muskegon Grand Rapids & Indiana RR.—Coupon Payment.—Coupons due July 1, 1896, are being paid through Winslow, Lanier & Co. The funds available for this distribution are as follows: Balance June 1, 1898, $2,702; net earnings June to September, both inclusive, $20,071; from which deduct for above mentioned coupon, $18,750; balance as of October, 1898, $4,023.—V. 67, p. 74.

New York Central & Hudson River RR.—Quarterly.—Earnings for the quarter and the six months ending Dec. 31 have been reported (partly estimated in 1898) as follows:

3 mos. end. Dec. 31—	Gross earnings.	Net earnings.	Other income.	Charges.	Balance for dividends.
1898.....	$12,150,000	$4,452,000	$1,100,000	$3,992,000	$1,560,000
1897.....	11,734,150	4,273,971	154,313	3,193,387	1,234,897
6 months—
1898.....	$23,544,397	$8,828,214	$2,190,968	$7,905,575	$3,113,607
1897.....	24,013,098	9,030,444	289,170	6,383,681	2,935,939

Dividends of one per cent call for $1,000,000 quarterly or $2,000,000 for the six months.—V. 67, p. 1110.

New York Lackawanna & Western.—Bonds Purchased.—Redmond, Kerr & Co. have purchased $4,000,000 terminal 4 per cent bonds, the balance of the authorized issue of $5,000,000, $1,000,000 of which are already in the hands of the public. The bonds are guaranteed, principal and interest, by the Delaware Lackawanna & Western. They have been reported outstanding for some time and no doubt have been held by the D. L. & W.

Pennsylvania RR.—Modification of Trust.—The stockholders will vote March 28, in pursuance of the recommendations contained in the annual report for 1897 (V. 66, p. 474) on a proposition to change the trust agreement of October 1878 (as modified), so that the managers of the trust shall be authorized to invest the funds within the control of the trust, not only as now stipulated, but also in the purchase of bonds, shares and securities "guaranteed by the Pennsylvania RR. Co. and Pennsylvania Company, or either thereof, and also of bonds and securities of the Pennsylvania Company." This fund is in the nature of a sinking fund, it having been established to improve the credit of the company. To Dec. 31, 1897, the income of the trust had been $11,180,604, and there had been purchased there from securities aggregating at par $8,720,410.—V. 67, p. 789.

Philadelphia & West Chester Traction.—Bonds Offered.—An offering is being made at 97½ of $100,000 of the company's new issue of $400,000 five per cent first mortgage gold bonds. The following facts are given:

The bonds are secured by mortgage of Oct. 1, 1898, to Girard Life Insurance, Annuity & Trust Co., Trustee, and constitute a first lien on all the franchises and property now owned or secured hereafter by the company and the underlying companies now a part of the system which connects with the Union Traction lines at Sixty-third and Market streets, and is now completed to West Chester. The roadway has been ballasted and thoroughly equipped. Coupons are payable January and July, and both principal and interest are payable in gold coin.—V. 67, p. 30.

Philadelphia Gas Co. of Pittsburg—Allegheny County Light—Pittsburg Light Consolidation.—Options Exercised.—George Westinghouse on Thursday announced that Brown Brothers had exercised their options mentioned in this column last week. He says:

Messrs. Brown Brothers & Co. have exercised their option to purchase the stock of the Philadelphia Co. at $40 per share and the stock of the Allegheny County Light Co. at $180 per share. The contracts have been signed, whereby all the details will be concluded on or before March 1, 1899. Notice will be forthwith mailed to all stockholders of both companies, who will be required to deposit their shares on or before Jan. 15.—V. 67, p. 1264.

Railroad Building.—Preliminary Statement for 1898.—The "Railroad Gazette" has issued its preliminary statement of the railroad building in the United States during the year 1898. The total reached is 2,867 miles, the largest of any year since 1892, when the new lines aggregated 4,419 miles. In 1897 and 1896 the totals were 2,188 and 2,112, respectively. Of the 2,867 miles built this year more than one third was constructed by or as extensions of the following roads, the length of new line being as here indicated, viz:

	Miles.
Great Northern (mostly between Duluth and Fosston, Minn.)	165
St. Louis & San Francisco (including St. Louis & Oklahoma City Ry., Sapulpa to Oklahoma City, 103 miles)	142

St. Paul & Duluth RR.—Redemption of Preferred Stock.—The company invites proposals to sell its preferred stock for cancellation out of the funds restored to the "land and stumpage account" at not over par. Proposals must be made by Jan. 6, and be addressed to S. F. Rollins, Assistant Treasurer, 32 Liberty Street. The sum to be restored to the above account per plan for issuing the new consols was $690, 776.—V. 67, p. 734.

Seaboard & Roanoke RR.—Charges Denied.—Judge William Fisher, of Baltimore, and Goodrich Hatton, Esq., of Portsmouth, counsel for the Seaboard Air Line, on Dec. 20, filed in the United States District Court a general denial of the charges of mismanagement made by Thomas F. Ryan. The matter will come up in the Court in February. On Dec. 7 Col. John A. Tompkins, of Baltimore, and Hamilton S. Corwin, of New York, expert accountants, were appointed by the special committee of stockholders and directors, of which Decourcy W. Thom is Chairman, to examine into the condition of the company relative to the aforesaid charges.—V. 67, p. 948.

Southern Ry.—Third Dividend.—After the close of business on Tuesday the company announced a dividend of 1 per cent upon its preferred stock.—V. 67, p. 1209.

Standard Trust Co. of New York.—Increase of Stock.—The stockholders will vote Jan. 10 on a proposition to increase the capital stock from $500,000 to $1,000,000.—V. 66, p. 1047.

Texas & New Orleans RR.—Consolidation.—The company announces its intention to apply to the next Legislature of Texas for a law authorizing it to buy and absorb the Sabine & East Texas, the Louisiana Western Extension and the Texas Trunk companies. The Texas Trunk RR. extends from Dallas to Cedar, Tex., 52 miles, and has long been in the hands of a receiver. The other lines are already a part of the Southern Pacific.—V. 61, p. 612; V. 62, p. 1140.

Third Avenue RR. of New York.—Purchase of Fifth Avenue Stage Line.—The Fifth Avenue Stage Line has been purchased by President Albert J. Elias, Henry Hart and Edward Lauterbach of the Third Avenue RR. Co., and will be improved and operated as an adjunct to the Third Avenue RR. Some form of automobile traction is proposed and the route followed is likely to be extended to Desbrosses Street ferry, via West Broadway and Canal Street, with transfer stations to the Third Avenue and Boulevard lines at junction points.—V. 67, p. 1264.

Toledo St. Louis & Kansas City RR.—New Directors.—On Dec. 20 Grant B. Schley, James S. Stout, J. F. Clinch and J. S. Bache, all of New York, were elected directors to succeed J. S. Osgood, R. G. Ingersoll, J. P. Kneeland and A. L. Mills. Frank H. Johnstone and Charles Miller, of Franklin, Pa., were re-elected to the board.—V. 67, p. 1264.

Traverse City RR.—Coupon Payment.—Coupons due Jan. 1, 1899, on the first mortgage bonds are being paid through Winslow, Lanier & Co. The funds available for this distribution are as follows: Balance May 1, 1898, $1,049; net earnings May to September, both inclusive, $2,773; total, $3,822; from which deduct for above coupon, $3,750; balance as of October, 1898, $72.—V. 67, p. 75.

Trenton Gas-Light—People's Gas Improvement.—Purchased.—These rival companies, which had lowered the price of gas to 45 and 25 cents, respectively, have been purchased by Thomas C. Barr, of Orange; Col. Anthony R. Kuser, of Newark, and Ferd. W. Roebling of Trenton, the parties who recently purchased the local electric company. The three enterprises, it is said, will be combined with the Delaware River Improvement Co., which owns a valuable water privilege at Morrisville, Pa., directly opposite Trenton. The "Philadelphia Times" says:

The price paid for the Trenton Gas Company's stock and franchise was about $300,000, or at the rate of $31 per share. The price paid for the electric-light company was $[illegible]. The price given for the Trenton Gas Improvement Co. has not been made public, but it is estimated to be $300,000.—V. 67, p. 1056.

Union Tobacco Co.—Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co.—Purchase.—The Union Tobacco Co., as stated last week, has purchased a majority interest in the $4,000,000 capital stock of Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co. for $17 in cash per $25 share, equal to $2,720,000 for the entire issue. No stock bonus, however, is given, the Durham Company having reduced its dividend rate from 6 to 4 per cent. Almost all the stock has been turned over, and it is possible the entire issue will be acquired. Holders will receive the $17, less the Trust Company's charge of ¼ of 1 p. c. thereof.—V. 67, p. 1264.

West Virginia & Pittsburg RR.—Baltimore & Ohio RR.—Plan of Adjustment.—Brown, Shipley & Co., in a circular to the holders of certificates of deposit for the first mortgage bonds of the West Virginia & Pitts. RR., recommend the acceptance of the following proposition, by which the road will be operated under lease by the reorganized Baltimore & Ohio RR.: A lease shall be made providing for a rental, from a date not later than April 1, 1899, equal to 4 per cent per annum on the mortgage, with a provision to insure the appropriation of this rental to the payment of interest on the bonds. In consideration of this agreement the reorganized Baltimore & Ohio shall have the option, for five years, from April 1, 1899, to purchase the bonds at par and accrued interest, on sixty days' notice. To make the agreement effective all the certificates of deposit, or such lesser amount as the reorganization managers shall accept, must sign on or before Jan. 7 next the written acceptance of the proposed arrangement. Provision is made for acceptances to be received by Brown Bros. & Co. of this city.—V. 67, p. 948, 1261.

Wheeling & Lake Erie Ry.—Foreclosure Decree.—At Cincinnati, Dec. 17, Judge Taft in the United States Court ordered the foreclosure sale of the property under the consolidated mortgage, which secures $1,600,000 of outstanding bonds. The upset price is $1,000,000 and the sale will be subject to the underlying first mortgages, aggregating $6,000,000.—V. 67, p. 579.

Wm. Cramp & Sons Ship & Engine Building Co.—$1,500,000 New Bonds.—A circular to the stockholders announces that a special meeting will be held Feb. 21 to authorize an issue of $1,500,000 thirty-year first mortgage 5 per cent gold bonds. The new loan will have a sinking fund to redeem $25,000 of bonds yearly and will be subject to call either as an entirety or in amounts to satisfy the sinking fund requirements, at any time, at 110. Since 1890, it is stated, the company has acquired the entire plant of the I. P. Morris Co., adjoining the present works, for $620,213, additional real estate for $365,221 and new tools for $1,187,433. Bonds paid off and canceled amounted to $190,000. The proposed mortgage will retire all outstanding obligations, including $387,000 maturing mortgage bonds and $500,000 of secured floating indebtedness and provide working capital. It is said there are now on the stocks $12,000,000 to $13,000,000 vessels, and as much of this is Government work and therefore to be paid for slowly, considerable working capital is essential.—V. 67, p. 1112.

Williamsport Gas—New Bonds.—The new owners having virtually completed all the improvements (including the laying of 10 miles of new mains and the erection of a 500,000 cubic foot holder), have arranged to issue about Jan. 15, 1899, $350,000 of first mortgage 5 per cent bonds. The property since it changed hands, it is stated, has shown an increase in output over last year of about 33 1-3 per cent, notwithstanding that only a few of the sections of the city reached by the extensions are included in the year's business.—V. 67, p. 824.

Wisconsin Central.—Objection to Receiver's Certificates.—Mark T. Cox, of Robert Winthrop & Co., has appealed to the Circuit Court of Appeals at Milwaukee from the recent order of Judge Jenkins authorizing the issue of $1,000,000 receiver's equipment certificates. Contracts have been let for nearly all of the new equipment.

Deposits.—As to deposits of leased line bonds see Chicago Wisconsin & Minnesota item above.—V. 67, p. 1264.

COMMERCIAL EPITOME.

FRIDAY NIGHT, December 23, 1898.

Although the holiday season now at hand has continued to have a tendency to hold business operations in check, there has been nevertheless a fair amount of activity to the general trading. It has been noticeable in many lines of business that the larger houses have in a number of instances shown a disposition to stock up to some extent, based upon the favorable outlook for business during the coming year. Reports relative to Russia negotiating a large loan in this city have received considerable attention, but have been generally discredited. The new Cuban tariff which becomes operative on January 1, 1899, has been made public It shows an average reduction of about 60 per cent from the old Spanish law. According to press reports new tariff controversies are imminent between the United States and Germany. At a meeting before the House Committee at Washington a strong impression was made, it is thought, in favor of improving New York Harbor.

Lard on the spot has been in only limited demand, but prices have advanced in sympathy with an advance in futures, closing at 5·47½c. for prime Western, 5·07½c. for prime City and 5·55c. for refined for the Continent. Speculation in the market for contracts has been fairly active at advancing prices. Buying by outsiders and a falling off in the receipts of swine have been the strengthening factors. The close was firm.

Speculation in cotton for future delivery has been less active and there has been a gradual sagging of prices. Owing to the near approach of the holiday season there has been a falling off in the demand from outsiders for investment account. More favorable weather at the South for picking and a freer movement of the crop also have had their influence in checking the demand and weakening values. The demand for actual cotton at the South has continued fairly brisk from domestic spinners, but there has been something of a falling off in the export demand, with the result that the offerings from the South have been a little freer, and at slightly easier prices. This also has had its influence against values, as have quiet and easier foreign advices. To-day the market opened steadier in response to slightly better foreign advices than had been generally expected. Subsequently, however, under moderate offerings prompted by the full movement of the crop for the week values weakened a few points. The close was steady at a net loss in prices for the day of 2 points. Cotton on the spot has been quiet but steady. To-day prices were advanced 1-16c., closing at 5⅞c. for middling uplands.

The rates on and off middling, as established Nov. 16, 1898, by the Revision Committee, at which grades other than middling may be delivered on contract, are as follows.

Middling Fair	7/8 on	Good Middling Tinged	Even

Strict Low Middling	3/16 off	Strict Low Mid. Stained	1 off
Low Middling	7/16 off	Low Middling Stained	1⅜ off

NEW ORLEANS COTTON EXCHANGE.—At a meeting held on Wednesday, December 7, the new board of directors of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange re elected Mr. Henry G. Hester Secretary and Superintendent for his twenty-ninth consecutive term. The following standing committees to serve during the ensuing year were also appointed: Supervision—C. H. Minge, Chairman, W. F. Hardie, H. R. Labouisse, E. Bornemann, A. Lionnet. Finance—Manrice Stern, Chairman, H. C. Ludlow and S. Hyman.

—Mr. Walter T. Miller, a member of the New York Cotton Exchange since its organization, and for many years past its Treasurer, has this week placed himself in an enviable position. In 1888 Mr. Miller was forced to suspend by the failure of several firms with which he had dealings; but a compromise with his creditors was made and he resumed business. Mr. Miller at the time expressed the wish eventually to discharge his obligations in full if ever in condition to do it. He has since then been so far prospered as to be able this week to celebrate Christmas by carrying out his desire. On Monday he mailed checks covering the full balance of his indebtedness to all those to whom he owed money at the time of the failure. Mr. Miller has secured a very promising basis for an extremely happy new year, and we wish with all our heart that it may be his portion.

GALVESTON COTTON EXCHANGE.—CHANGE IN RULES.—The board of directors of the Galveston Cotton Exchange at a recent meeting adopted the following: "Resolved, That Rule 5 be repealed; effective on and after Dec. 15, 1898."

The rule referred to reads as follows:

Section 1. After cotton has been examined and passed upon by the broker or agent of the buyer, no claim shall be made against the seller for any irregularities whatever; and in consideration of such guaranty and exemption from reclamation the seller shall pay to the buyer or his broker, 5 cents per bale on the cotton passed by the broker or agent of the buyer.

Sec. 2. Irregular cotton shall be sold with all faults, and the seller shall pay to the buyer no guaranty fee against such reclamations.

NEW ENGLAND MILL SITUATION.—The Farmersville Cotton Mills, Millbury, Mass., have resumed operations in full after a shut-down of a month. It is reported from Fall River that twenty-five mills manufacturing narrow goods have entered into an agreement by which the output of these goods will be handled somewhat after the plan adopted by the producers of wide goods.

COMPARATIVE PORT RECEIPTS AND DAILY CROP MOVEMENT.—A comparison of the port movement by weeks is not accurate as the weeks in different years do not end on the same day of the month. We have consequently added to our other standing tables a daily and monthly statement, that the reader may constantly have before him the data for seeing the exact relative movement for the years named. The monthly movements since September 1, 1898, and in previous years, have been as follows:

This statement shows that up to November 30 the receipts at the ports this year were 303,547 bales more than in 1897 and 627,910 bales greater than in 1896. By adding to the totals to Nov. 30 the daily receipts since that time we shall be able to reach an exact comparison of the movement for the different years.

We add to the table the percentages of total port receipts which had been received to Dec. 23 in each of the years named.

A considerable portion of the Sea Island cotton shipped to foreign ports goes via New York, and some small amounts via Boston and Baltimore. Instead of including this cotton for the week in which it leaves the Southern outports, we follow the same plan as in our regular table of including it when actually exported from New York, &c. The details of the shipments of Sea Island cotton for the week will be found under the head "Shipping News," on a subsequent page.

Quotations Dec. 23 at Savannah, for Floridas, common, 8½c.; medium fine, 9½c.; choice, 13c.

Charleston, Carolinas, medium fine, 18c.; fully fine, 23 to 25c.; extra fine, 40 to 50c.

EGYPTIAN COTTON CROP.—The following report on the cotton crop in Egypt, issued by the Alexandria General Produce Association under date of November 30, has been furnished to us by Mr. Fr. Jac. Andres of Boston, agent of the Anglo-Egyptian Bank, Limited, of Alexandria:

The temperature in November was favorable; nevertheless, as the second and third pickings had already been gathered during the first ten days of the month, the good weather had scarcely any effect. The diminution of the second picking, previously mentioned in our last report, was still further accentuated. As for the third picking, which was already compromised, there could not be any improvement. This condition of things obliges us to reduce our estimate to 5,750,000 cantars, about

Later mail advices to Mr. Andres state that "the crop is not likely to exceed 5½ million cantars, equaling 720,000 bales, perhaps less."

BREADSTUFFS.

Friday, December 23, 1898.

Only a limited volume of business has been transacted in the local market for wheat flour. Buyers as a rule have shown a disposition to hold back, the purchases made being confined to such supplies as have been needed to meet current wants. Advices received from the Western mills, however, have reported a fair business doing for both export and the home trade, and at slightly better prices than the local trade has been disposed to pay. Included in the business transacted during the week has been a fairly large line of winter straights, taken for export to Havana. Rye flour has been firmer, on light offerings. Buckwheat flour has been quiet, and under slightly freer offerings prices have weakened some. Corn-meal has been higher, in sympathy with the advance in the grain.

Speculation in wheat for future delivery has been only moderately active, and no decided changes have occurred in values. Immediately following our last there was a fractional decline in prices under weaker foreign advices, accompanied by a moderate number of selling orders. A freer movement of the crop in the Northwest also had its influence against values. Monday there was a recovery as foreign advices had turned stronger. Toward the close, however, realizing sales, prompted by a large increase in the visible supply, resulted in a slight reaction from the best prices of the day. Tuesday the market was again easier, reflecting weaker foreign advices. Wednesday and Thursday the tone was firmer. The improvement was largely in sympathy with an advance in the coarser grains, which were influenced by an unusually active export demand. Business in the spot market has been only moderately active, as exporters have been only limited buyers. Values have held fairly steady. To-day the market was firmer on moderate buying, stimulated by stronger foreign advices, large clearances, and a more active export demand. The close showed prices ½@¾c. higher for the day. The spot market was fairly active and firmer. Sales for export here and at outports were 512,000 bushels.

Indian corn futures have been more active and prices have advanced. There has been a fair amount of activity to the demand for investment account, both regular operators and outsiders being buyers, and prices have been steadily advancing. The principal strengthening features have been unfavorable weather conditions in the corn belt, stronger foreign advices, and an active export demand. Business in the spot market has been active. Exporters have been large buyers at the seaboard and in the interior, and have paid higher prices. To-day the market was steadier on continued buying for investment account. The spot market was fairly active and firmer. Sales for export here and at outports were 425,000 bushels.

Speculation in oats for future delivery at the Western markets have been moderately active and there has been an advance in prices. The improvement has been largely in sympathy with an advance in corn, although wet weather at the West has also been a strengthening factor. Business in the spot market has been fairly active at firm prices and advices from interior markets report fair sales for export. To-day the market was firmer, in sympathy with the advance in other grains. The spot market was steadier with a moderate demand from the home trade.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, P. M., December 23, 1898.

The strength of the cotton goods division has again been the most remarkable feature of the dry good trade. The demand has not in the aggregate reached the dimensions of recent weeks but has still been of fair proportions and larger than usual for this time of year, when holiday and year-end influences are generally restrictive factors. It is probable that this quieter condition will continue until the second or third week in January, but that is not likely to effect the general tone nor to stay the upward progress of prices in some descriptions of cotton goods. Sellers are now as a rule too well situated to have their confidence in the future disturbed by a quiet interval; they have no stocks of any account to bother them and in many instances are sold ahead on the products of their mills for some months to come. Print cloths are now in a very strong position; the recent advance seems certain to hold and may be further improved upon. In the woolen goods division the market shows no change of importance in either men's-wear fabrics or dress goods. The retail holiday trade here and elsewhere is reported to be abnormally large. Collections are good.

WOOLEN GOODS.—There has been a slight increase in the re-order demand for light-weight woolens and worsteds for men's wear and for this stage of the season fair results have been secured. There are apparently considerable quantities of both staples and fancies in the market, as buyers are met with freedom and prices show more or less irregularity. There is no disposition on the part of sellers to force the new heavy-weight season. A few lines of low-grade goods have been opened, but none of importance enough to indicate probable course of prices. Satinets are slow and doeskin jeans dull. In overcoatings a quiet business is reported mainly in plain-faced fabrics. Cloakings are inactive and featureless. Woolen and worsted dress goods quiet, prices irregular. Flannels and blankets dull and unchanged.

DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS.—The exports of cotton goods from this port for the week ending December 19 were 24,761 packages, valued at $782,413, their destination being to the points specified in the tables below:

* From New England mill points direct.

The value of the New York exports for the year to date has been $11,606,411 in 1898, against $9,733,125 in 1897.

Brown sheetings and drills are exceedingly firm in both heavy and lighter weights, and prices tend against buyers for both home and export account, with occasional open advances of ⅛c. per yard. Fine yarn gray goods are scarce and strong. In bleached shirtings leading makes have again advanced, Lonsdale 4-4 to 5¾c. long price and Fruit of the Loom and Masonville, 4-4 to 5½c. net. Other grades are hardening, particularly low qualities, under the immediate influence of print cloths. Duck is in fair demand and firm in price. Brown Osnaburgs firm. Wide sheetings improving and cotton flannels and blankets firm at current prices. Coarse colored cottons have been in moderate request only, but sellers are firmer than of late. Kid-finished cambrics, silesias and other cotton linings advancing. Printed calicoes are occasionally ¼c. per yard higher, and sellers are conservative on both fancies and staple lines. Staple ginghams are firm but quiet, and dress styles well sold up. Print cloths are unchanged on the basis of 2⅜c. for regulars. A good business has been done and sellers are reserved at current prices.

FOREIGN DRY GOODS.—Conditions in this division of the market continue unsatisfactory. The orders for staple lines for spring are light and moderate for specialties. Importers are not as yet in the market with goods for next fall.

Alabama.—Bill Providing for Tax Exemption.—The State Legislature has passed a bill providing for the exemption from taxation for ten years of all manufactories which may be established in the State during the next five years.

Constitutional Convention.—The State Legislature has passed a bill providing for a Constitutional Convention to revise and amend the State Constitution.

Buncombe County, N. C.—Bonds Illegal.—The State Supreme Court recently affirmed the decision of the lower court declaring illegal the $98,000 bonds issued in aid of the Buncombe Asheville & Spartanburg Railroad. Since the above decision was handed down the Board of County Commissioners have adopted resolutions (according to reports) declaring that the bonds were issued in good faith to secure an honest debt and ordered that the County Attorney take proper action to legalize the issue.

Cape May Point.—News Relative to Old Bonds.—The Philadelphia "Public Ledger" on December 12, 1898, contained the following:

The holders of bonds issued by the now defunct borough of Cape May Point, amounting to $11,000, have given notice that they will apply to the Legislature for the re-incorporation of the borough so that its property may be assessed for the payment of these bonds. The indebtedness was contracted in 1891, when the borough was incorporated under an Act declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court in 1895. Ten years' interest is due on the bonds, and no effort has ever been made to pay either principal or interest, the impression prevailing that as the borough was illegally constituted all of its acts were illegal and its debts outlawed. The inhabitants and property owners are, as a rule, opposed to re-incorporation and are content to remain a portion of lower township as at present. The notice is given by Lawyer Howard M. Cooper of Camden, who is himself an investor in the bonds.

Charlotte, N. Y.—Bonds Not Questioned.—It has been stated in some of the papers that suit had been entered against the President and Board of Trustees of this village to nullify the issue of $35,000 bonds for the construction of a new system of water works and electric lights. In reply to our inquiries, Mr. Peter M. Schwartz, Village Clerk, writes us that the legality of these bonds was not questioned. The suit from which this rumor arose was brought before Justice E. A Nash in the Supreme Court by John C. Henderson, and was heard on December 3, 1898. The only question raised was the legality of the creation of the Municipal Board which has this work in charge. Judge Nash has denied the motion for a permanent injunction restraining this board from expending the village funds for the construction of a water and electric light system.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—Bond Agreement Illegal.—On December 12, 1898, the Circuit Court handed down an opinion sustaining Judge Spiegel in his decision last August declaring illegal the contract with Roberts & Co., New York, to refund the $15,615,000 outstanding Cincinnati Southern Railroad bonds at 3½%.

Iowa.—Opinion in Warrant Case Withdrawn.—The Omaha "Bee" on December 18, 1898, stated that the Supreme Court, just before adjournment December 17, entered an order withdrawing its opinion filed in October (see CHRONICLE Nov. 5) in the case of N. C. Phillips, appellant, against W. B. Read, Treasurer, from the Pottawattamie District Court. This was the case in which the Court decided that cities must pay warrants with the proceeds of taxes raised within the year in which the warrants were issued. The order of the Court says that the opinion is recalled for further consideration of the proposition as to whether the rule announced applies to cities organized under general law since 1881.

Jeffersonville, Ind.—Bonds Legal.—On December 20, 1898, the Supreme Court declared valid $57,000 bonds, issued 28 years ago to pay expenses incident to the removal of the county seat of Clay County from Charlestown to Jeffersonville. The suit was brought by Louis Schneck, a tax-payer, who questioned the constitutionality of the Act of the Legislature passed in 1897 legalizing the bonds, on the ground that the amendment to the constitution adopted in 1881 forbids cities to incur any indebtedness above 2% of the assessed value of the taxable property they contain; and as the city was indebted to the limit of 2% in addition to these bonds, it was contended that the Legislature had no power to fix what was, in effect, a new debt on the city by legalizing an old debt which could not be enforced.

The Court's decision states that the ratifying Act of 1897 cannot be said to fasten unwillingly upon the city the indebtedness and thereby compel its payment. In a sense it simply gives effect to the will of the city as expressed by it in 1876 through its Common Council, and no doubt also ratifies the desire of a large majority of the resident freeholders, expressed presumably to the Common Council by means of petition or otherwise.

"These bonds had existed unchallenged for a period of nearly twenty years after their execution and after the city had derived the benefit of their proceeds, and not until the institution of the Myers suit, so far as we are apprised, was their validity assailed."

See CHRONICLE January 8 and 15, 1898.

Keith County, Neb.—Interest Not Paid.—We are advised that this county has stopped paying interest on the $35,000 ditch bonds issued some ten years ago and now held by the Citizens' Savings Bank of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. E. A. Winslow, Clerk of the County Court, writes us that while no suit has yet been instituted in the District Court by the savings bank to recover the unpaid interest, it is presumed that such suit will be filed if interest remains unpaid.

Pelican Rapids, Minn.—Temporary Injunction.—The city has been temporarily enjoined from issuing the $14,000 water-works and electric-light bonds recently voted. The suit was instituted by R. L Frazee, who claims that the judges who conducted the special election acted without proper authority from the Village Council.

Texas.—Bonds Approved by Attorney-General.—An interesting statement was published in some of the Texas papers recently, showing that during the past two years the following city and county bonds had been passed upon by the Attorney-General's Department, as required under the Act of the State Legislature passed April 29, 1893:

County bonds approved for the year 1897, $1,312,699, and for the year 1898, $1,210,202, a total of $2,522,901.
City bonds approved for the year 1897, $755,500, and for the year 1898, $477,700, a total of $1,233,200.
School-district bonds approved for the year 1897, $11,000, and for the year 1898, $13,250, a total of $24,250.
Bonds approved for the State School Board for the year 1897, $323,248, and for the year 1898, $100,052, a total of $723,300.

A great many other applications for the issuance of bonds were presented, but were rejected upon being investigated.

Bond Calls and Redemptions.

Ballston Spa, Saratoga County, N. Y.—Bonds Redeemed.—This village recently redeemed the last of its 6% bonds, amounting to $6,500.

Beaverhead County (P. O. Dillon), Mont.—Bond Call.—County Clerk, E. H. Mayers, has called for payment within 30 days from December 3, 1898, $20,000 redemption bonds Nos. 1 to 40, bearing date December 15. 1887. Bonds will be redeemed at the County Treasurer's office.

Another proposition from the same syndicate offers to place 3½% bonds on a 3·05 interest basis, 3½% bonds on a 3·185 basis, 3% bonds on a 3·15% basis. The First National Bank of Cincinnati proposes to extend the bonds at 3½% and to pay a premium of 1½, amounting in the aggregate to $100,000, for the privilege. Abram White, Trustee, of New York offers a premium of 7·35 for the privilege of extending all or any portion of the bonds. "The Editor Commercial & Financial Chronicle:

"DEAR SIR:—In the CHRONICLE of December 17, 1898, in page 1278, appears the following:

"The City Clerk states that the city was informed this week by the firm of which Mr. Eads is President that they cannot comply with the agreement and request that it be canceled.'

"The first part of the above is true. The latter part is inaccurate and misleading. The facts very briefly are: The certified record furnished us by the city of Wichita, purporting to show the legality of the proposed issue, shows that they are seeking to refund an issue of bonds dated December, 1897, due in thirty years straight (consequently no right to call in the old bonds). We ask that the matter as stated in your paper be corrected, and if you desire the contract and certified record referred to, we will gladly send them to you. Your article makes it appear that we are in default, when such is not the case. Yours truly,

"W. G. EADS."

The full details of clearings for the week covered by the above statement will be given next Saturday. We cannot, of course, furnish them to-day, bank clearings being made up by the various clearing houses at noon on Saturday, and hence in the above the last twenty-four hours of the week have to be in all cases estimated, as we go to press Friday night.

We present below our usual detailed figures for the previous week, covering the returns for the period ending with Saturday noon, December 24, and the results for the corresponding week in 1897, 1896 and 1895 are also given. In comparison with the preceding week there is a decrease in the aggregate exchanges of one hundred and twelve million dollars, and at New York alone the loss is ninety-seven millions. Contrasted with the week of 1897 the total for the whole country shows an increase of 51·8 per cent. Compared with the week of 1896 the current returns record a gain of 88·0 per cent, and the excess over 1895 is 46·7 per cent. Outside of New York the increase over 1897 is 37·0 per cent. The excess over 1896 reaches 61·2 per cent, and making comparison with 1895 the gain is seen to be 37·1 per cent.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

On Tuesday, after the Christmas holiday, the stock market opened with the same buoyant spirit that prevailed at the close of the previous week. Sales that day reached nearly one million shares (931,150), the largest, except on a single occasion, ever recorded, and prices in many instances advanced from 2 to 6 points. Such large transactions at rising prices —continued without material reaction for the past two weeks or more—gave rise to a feeling that the market was nearing an unsafe condition. The recent advance, it was claimed, had been mainly controlled by speculators, and was chiefly a manipulation of industrial stocks, a kind of security fluctuating widely, about which as a rule very little information is made public, the movement up and down in such cases being more the result of idle rumor than of substantial facts. Consequently Wednesday (aided by a temporary rise in call money) there was a natural reaction, but it was a very temporary and partial affair. Thursday the recovery was general, with a buoyant closing, and although stock transactions aggregated much less than on Tuesday—being 721,153 on Thursday, against 931,150 on Tuesday—the aggregate still disclosed active trading. Much the same conditions prevailed again yesterday, the stock sales being 852,600 shares and the market buoyant.

The explanation of the speedy recovery is the rising tide of prosperity pervading trade circles. With regard to the business outlook, there has been no setback for weeks and months, but a constant favorable development. While this feature continues, a serious reverse movement at the Stock Exchange would be out of character. It is no exaggeration to say that there never was an occasion in the history of the country when the industrial and financial situation showed such vitality and were as free from inflated values, and therefore so hopefully conditioned as they are to-day. Evidences are multiplying on every hand of increasing consumption of products, which is the distinguishing mark of real prosperity. We give small place to the rise in the price of print cloths as proof of improvement, because print cloths are sold now by a single agency and production is curtailed, so that for a time the agency can charge what it wills. But when the fact is added that the purchases for consumption have not only used up the current production but three-quarters of the old stock, which has been depressing the market for two or more years, we have substantial evidence that the enlarged consumption which has been for some time visible in almost every other productive department has at last also struck the cotton goods market. Then there are the coal trade and the coal carriers, very nearly the only department besides cotton goods that has lagged behind in the recovery, which give new promise this week of being soon in the fore rank of the advance. For a summary of the latest evidences of the changes taking place, see a subsequent item in this article. We cannot omit to refer again to the phenomenal activity in iron, which, as the year closes, has likewise given evidence of its staying qualities, not only in the large new orders recently booked, but in the increasingly favorable outlook in every direction for work which calls for an expanding consumption of iron and steel.

There is indeed but one cloud visible on the industrial horizon. We refer of course to our currency. It is at present harmless. But it only requires little different conditions to make it an actively disturbing agent. Our attention is called to the subject by the receipt a few days ago of the report on currency reform made by the committee of five appointed at the annual meeting of the American Economic Association, held in Cleveland in December 1897.* This week the annual meeting of the Association for 1898 was held at New Haven, when the report was read, having received the approval of all the committee. The experience of the last five years has proved a unifying force of great power in producing oneness out of extreme diversity in the views of sound money classes. We had striking evidence of this in the plan evoked through the work of the Indianapolis convention, and subsequently in the report made by the Banking and Currency Committee of the House at its last session. Now, again, it is highly gratifying to find that professors of our colleges, representing the East and the West, who have made economics their special study, find themselves also in accord with one another, and that all three of these authorities are in harmony in the leading methods of reform they advocate.

We well remember the opposition we elicited when, more than ten years ago, we began to write in favor of a currency based on bank assets. We showed then that it was the only kind of paper money that could in the nature of the case be responsive to the wants of commerce. We likewise demonstrated the impossibility of making a bond-secured note issue elastic. Taking out such notes had at that time become unprofitable. Consequently the only hope of an increase in such a currency was then, and is now, when for any reason bonds are abnormally low so as to be a good purchase, and the only time a decrease is assured is when bonds are abnormally high so as to be a good sale. There is no way to secure through such an arrangement "that easy adjustment of volume to need," as this committee of the Economic Association well expresses it, "which constitutes genuine elasticity," a requirement which they, in common with the makers of the plans we have referred to above, think is an essential part of any new system. We did not intend to give the details of the various suggestions of the committee. It has presented the case forcibly and clearly. It realizes the urgency there is for speedy Congressional action; the peculiar timeliness of the present occasion for making the effort; and indicates the essentials of a new system. We trust that the Administration will agree with them as to the necessity and desire there is for speedy action, and will give us an extra session of the new Congress soon after the 4th of March.

The anthracite coal securities have been active and strong, and it is evident that there has been a great improvement in the outlook for these properties. Arrangements have been in progress for some time for securing closer co-operation between the different companies, with the view to avoiding the friction and rate-cutting which has been such an unfortunate feature in affairs. Details as to the precise nature of the plan which is under consideration for effecting these ends have not yet transpired. Entirely apart, however, from what may be accomplished in that direction, the developments have latterly been decidedly encouraging. In the first place the recent cold weather has served materially to stimulate the demand. This week the announcement has come that an advance in prices would be made of 25 cents a ton at both Chicago and Buffalo. This advance has been in contemplation for some time, but previous efforts for one reason or another all miscarried. Furthermore, it seems certain now that Mr. Samuel Sloan, who for so many years has been the guiding spirit in the Delaware Lackawanna & Western, will retire from the active management of that property at the coming annual election. This is taken to mean that there will be a change in the policy of that road, so that the Lackawanna is less likely to be a free lance than heretofore, and less likely to interfere with attempts to regulate the coal trade in accordance with modern business methods.

Perhaps the most encouraging feature, however, bearing on the condition and prospects of the anthracite properties is that their revenues are already showing noteworthy signs of improvement. The monthly returns of two of the larger companies have been received this week, namely the Central of New Jersey and the Reading. The exhibits cover the month of November, and the results show that even in that month the state of things had already greatly changed for the better. The Central of New Jersey statement relates only to the railroad operations. As compared with the same month last year it indicates $67,341 gain in gross earnings and $61,913 gain in net earnings. The Reading exhibit embraces both the railroad business and the coal-mining operations. Both record noteworthy gains. For the Railway Company gross receipts are reported $2,185,462, against $1,924,717, and net receipts $1,000,366 against $932,410; for the Coal & Iron Company gross is given $2,476,572 against $2,227,059, and net $225,960, against $117,563. Allowing for income from other sources, the final result for the combined companies shows net of $1,252,120 for November 1898 against only $1,087,174 for November 1897, an increase of $164,946, or 15 per cent. It is many months since the Reading Company has presented such an encouraging exhibit.

We have had this week another court decision denying the right of a State or a railroad commission to force railroad carriers to move traffic at non-paying rates. There have been quite a number of cases of this kind submitted for judicial determination the present year, and in each instance the State making the attempt has been defeated in its purpose. Last March we had the ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court in the celebrated cases involving the validity of the Nebraska Maximum Freight Law. The Court, in clear and unequivocal language, refused to sustain this enactment. At the beginning of the present month we had the decision of Judge McCormick at Dallas enjoining all the various schedules of the Texas Railroad Commission because examination showed that these schedules were confiscatory in their nature. Now we have the judgment of the Circuit Court condemning the rates fixed by the Railroad Commission of the State of North Dakota. While these decisions all rest on the same fundamental principles, and follow the doctrines laid down by the U. S. Supreme Court, yet being cumulative in effect they should serve as a deterrent upon the Western legislator in his misguided efforts. For obviously if he persists, his work must go for naught, since it is made perfectly plain by these decisions that the courts will see that the roads are not harmed by such acts.

The facts in the North Dakota case are very simple. Laws passed in 1897 empowered the Railroad Commissioners of that State to fix schedules of maximum freight rates which the roads were required to adopt under certain severe penalties for refusal. The Commissioners sought to put a schedule of that kind in effect on July 1 of that year. The Great Northern Railway, the Northern Pacific and the Milwaukee & St. Paul, finding that such rates were unreasonable and unremunerative, secured a temporary injunction against the Commission. The case then came up for hearing before Thayer, Circuit Judge, and Amidon, District Judge, who have now, after a lengthy and exhaustive examination of all the arguments and data submitted by both sides, rendered judgment against the Commission. The Court points out that much of the argument on behalf of the Commissioners was devoted to an attempt to show that under existing rates the roads are earning from their entire business, both inter-State and local, a high rate of income upon a grossly excessive capitalization of their property. But even conceding this to be true, the Court says, it would under the ruling of the Supreme Court in the Nebraska rate cases be wholly immaterial—unless it further appeared that the income derived from business done within the State was such as to produce an unreasonable return upon the fair value of the property in doing that business. Excessive income derived from inter-State traffic can be reduced by Congress alone, which has exclusive jurisdiction of commerce among the States. Judge Amidon then analyzes the rates of the Commission. He finds that the schedules are not only lower than the distance tariff in force in Minnesota, a State having more than six times the population of North Dakota, but are likewise lower than any of the specially low terminal tariffs, with the exception of that on grain, mill stuffs, &c., and as to that, are but slightly higher. He makes careful computations to determine the probable effect of the proposed rates. These computations reveal that on the basis of the Commission's schedules the Great Northern would for the four years ending June 1897 have lost $1 19 for every $100 of business done—that is, operating expenses would have exceeded receipts in that amount—and the Northern Pacific for the same period would have lost $13 25 on every $100 received for its services. In the face of such a showing, of course, the Court had no alternative but to issue a decree in accordance with the prayer of the bill of complaint.

A matter of some moment, particularly in its bearing on the future relations of two great properties, is the announcement this week that the Southern Pacific Company and the Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company have reached a definite agreement, by which the latter will be accorded trackage rights over the line of the Southern Pacific between Mojave and Bakersfield, Cal. It will be remembered that when the Atchison recently arranged to purchase control of the San Francisco & San Joaquin Valley Railway, thus gaining a line which, when completed, will run from Bakersfield to San Francisco Bay, there was still a gap of about 70 miles remaining to be covered in some way between the Atchison's main line and Bakersfield before that company would possess an unbroken line from Chicago to San Francisco. The hope was expressed that running rights over the existing line of the Southern Pacific might be secured but it was by no means certain with what spirit the overtures of a competing road about to enter the important district of which San Francisco is the focus would be met. The event above referred to not only removes the necessity for the building of a second line, where the traffic is not more than enough for one (the Bakersfield & Los Angeles was incorporated last September before the Atchison's purchase was announced to construct the connecting road), but is an earnest that the two companies will work on a harmonious basis.

The Pennsylvania Railroad statement of earnings for the month of November was issued late yesterday afternoon, and we have obtained the figures by telegraph. They show but moderate changes as compared with the corresponding month last year. This does not mean that there was no expansion in the volume of traffic. It merely indicates that the rate situation was very unsatisfactory and that the road was obliged to do a greatly increased amount of work for the same amount of money. The results in this particular indeed are a duplicate of those for the Vanderbilt roads, which we review in a subsequent article. On the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburg and Erie the return shows $6,100 increase in gross and $24,700 increase in net, while on the lines west of Pittsburg and Erie there is $5,500 increase in gross with $254,500 decrease in net. It deserves to be noted that in the same month last year the gains were heavy, reaching $573,500 in gross and $164 400 in net on the Eastern lines and $918,900 in gross and $594,900 in net on the Western lines, or $1,492,400 in gross and $759,300 in net on the combined system. The following shows the figures for the Eastern lines for six years.

One feature o' the week was a flurry in the market for money on call on Wednesday. Such events are not unusual, indeed they are expected at the end of the year, and it is somewhat remarkable that, considering the volume of transactions at the Stock Exchange and the buoyant rise in the stock market, the flurry should have been comparatively slight and of such brief duration. On Wednesday morning there had been considerable calling in of loans incident to preparations for the January settlements, but, lulled into security by the apparent abundance of money offering and by the absence of extraordinary demand, borrowers from whom the loans were called did not attempt to obtain a supply until almost 2:30. Then a quite general demand for money quickly forced the rate up to 6 per cent from 2¼@2½ per cent, the rates previously ruling, and large sums were loaned at the higher rate and also from 4 to 5½ per cent. The flurry was soon ended, the supply speedily became abundant and the rate dropped to 2 per cent by the close of the day. On Thursday, profiting by the experience of the previous day, borrowers early provided themselves with funds, and though the rate rose to 4 per cent, the market closed at 2 per cent. On Friday the rate was 2 to 4 per cent, closing at 2 per cent, with offerings, but no loans, at 1½ per cent.

The range for the week for money on call, representing bankers' balances, has been, as above indicated, from 2 per cent to 6 per cent. The bulk of the business on Tuesday was at 2¼ per cent; on Wednesday at 2½ per cent; on Thursday and on Friday 3 per cent, and the average for the week has been fully 2¾ per cent. The banks and trust companies quoted 2½ per cent as the minimum on Tuesday. On the following day renewals were made at this rate, but new loans later in the day were as high as 6 per cent. On Thursday 3 per cent was the minimum and some loans were made at 3½ per cent. The rate on Friday was 3@3½ per cent. Time money was not in the least influenced by the flurry in call loan rates. The demand was moderate and the offerings liberal; quotations were 3 per cent for sixty days to four months and 3½ per cent for five to six months on good Stock Exchange collateral. Sixty day loans on sterling exchange security are made at 2½ per cent. The supply of commercial paper is quite limited, while the demand is active, and inquiries for paper are general, not only from city institutions but from banks and other buyers at the East, and also at comparatively remote Western cities. Rates are 3 per cent for sixty to ninety day endorsed bills receivable, 3½@3¾ per cent for prime and 4@5 per cent for good four to six months' single names. With the exception of the movement usual at this season incident to the semi-annual settlements, there has been no special feature in the banking situation. The daily exchanges at the Clearing House have been much above the normal, reaching $226,087,466 on Thursday, reflecting Wednesday's business. The payment of 10 per cent of Pacific Railroad money on deposit with specially-designated depository banks, caused the Assistant Treasurer to be creditor $413,031 at the Clearing House on Thursday.

There has been no special feature in the European political or financial situation this week. The Bank of England minimum rate of discount remains unchanged at 4 per cent. The cable reports discounts of sixty to ninety day bank bills in London 3½ per cent. The open market rate at Paris is 3 per cent and at Berlin and Frankfort the "spot" rate is 5½ per cent, while the rate "to arrive," or for bills which will be presented after the beginning of the new year, is 4⅝ per cent. According to our special cable from London the Bank of England lost £1,252,666 bullion during the week, and held £29,337,841 at the close of the week. Our correspondent further advises us that the loss was due to exports of £698,000 (of which £428,000 were to Germany and £270,000 to Argentina), to shipments of £775,000 net to the interior of Great Britain, and to imports of £220,000, of which £170,000 were bought and £50,000 from the Cape.

The foreign exchange market has been without change in rates this week except a reduction in nominal of ½ on Thursday by one bank and a reduction for actual business on Wednesday of ¼ for short sterling. There has been a demand for long sterling and also an inquiry for cable transfers, in connection with the semi-monthly settlement in London, with moderately free offerings of short sterling, principally running-off bills. The buying of sixty day sterling for investment grew lighter after the middle of the week. Offerings of commercial bills against grain and cotton continue large, but they seem to be promptly absorbed and they command full prices and especially those which are of such a character as to be promptly rebatable on arrival. It is expected that considerable amounts of long sterling which was bought for investment early in November will not be renewed when it begins to run off next month and the pressure of these bills may force sight exchange to such a point as will make gold imports profitable.

As stated above, the range for nominal rates for exchange remained unaltered at 4 82½ for sixty day and from 4 85½ to 4 86 for sight until Thursday, when there was a reduction in the higher short rate and bankers uniformly posted 4 82½ for sixty day and 4 85½ for sight. Rates for actual business opened on Tuesday unchanged, compared with those on Friday of last week, at 4 81¾@4 82 for long, 4 84½@4 84¾ for short and 4 85@4 85¼ for cable transfers. The tone was steady until Wednesday, when it grew easier, though no change was made in rates for actual business except for short sterling, which was reduced one-quarter of a cent, to 4 84¼@4 84½. The market was steady on Friday. The following shows daily posted rates for exchange by some of the leading drawers:

ENGLISH POLITICS AND THE NEW FOREIGN PROBLEMS.

A situation has arisen in English politics which is interesting in itself, but perhaps particularly interesting from some points of resemblance to our own political conditions. Since Mr. Gladstone's retirement from politics, followed by his death last May, the Liberal opposition in Great Britain has had no recognized leader. Many of the duties of that position seemed to devolve on Sir William Vernon Harcourt, who had undertaken the leadership of the party in the House of Commons during the last few years. Sir William may, in fact, be described as the titular head of the Parliamentary opposition, and could probably, in accordance with precedent, have claimed the right to continue in that office through the coming sessions of the British Legislature.

In one sense Sir William Harcourt's Parliamentary leadership has been undisputed, for his one conspicuous rival in the party held a seat, not in the Commons, but in the Lords, and therefore could not very well interfere with the action of his party in the other house as regards selection of a leader. The natural ambition of a really powerful party leader in the Commons, however, is to attain the office of Premier on his party's accession to power. This honor Sir William Harcourt, despite a long and useful service, has never attained. When Mr. Gladstone relinquished the leadership and the premiership in May 1894, Sir William was quietly passed over in favor of the Earl of Rosebery, who ruled as Prime Minister during the subsequent thirteen months.

So long as Mr. Gladstone lived, the claims of party subordinates were adjusted without great friction. It was quite well understood, however, that the urgent appeal two years ago for the old statesman to resume the leadership of his party was very largely occasioned by the difficulty of harmonizing the factions in the party. His death removed the element of reconciliation and a curious condition of interregnum followed. Lord Rosebery, having occupied the premiership in the last previous period of Liberal supremacy, naturally assumed the formal authority as spokesman of the party. Sir William gave no sign to indicate his purposes. A good deal of comment was indeed made on the fact that during the very important episodes of the Spanish-American war and the Fashoda dispute with France, the opposition leader of the Commons was employing himself in a newspaper controversy over an ecclesiastical question. Lord Rosebery spoke publicly at intervals; in the matter of Anglo-

French diplomacy he strongly sustained the position of the Salisbury Ministry. But Sir William Harcourt said nothing.

Two weeks ago the matter came to a final head with the publication of a letter from Sir William to his friend and political associate, Mr. John Morley. The letter amounted to a resignation of all position of responsibility in the Liberal Party. Although restrained and dignified, its tone was bitter. It made plain reference to the "impossible situation" arising from a "disputed leadership beset by distracted sections and conflicting interests," referred to "unworthy insinuations" circulated against his personal status with the party, and ended by declaring that he could best discharge his duty towards the party "in an independent position in Parliament."

As a Parliamentary event the episode would possess no special interest to Americans. Some curiosity would doubtless be excited by a breach of leadership in a neighbor legislature at a more or less critical juncture in foreign politics. There would be much conjecture, even outside of England, as to the influence on party strategy in the House of Commons of the appearance as a free lance of so formidable a debater as Sir William Harcourt. The seeming lack of serious misgiving or concern in the Liberal press over the incident would perhaps furnish further matter for contemporary interest. But the episode, in its actual causes, reaches still further, and throws some light on general conditions common to Great Britain and the United States.

A party rupture of this sort very rarely occurs when the political organization within which it happens is either active in pursuit of a distinct political purpose, or which has in view the probability of an early return to power. In either case, minor ends and personal preferences are sunk in the united struggle for victory at the polls. But if the tide of public favor is seen to be running against a party, and in particular if the party's historic platforms are disappearing as urgent public issues, to be replaced by new questions on which the sentiment of legislators and constituents in the party is divided, then it is easy to see how the bonds of party loyalty may be relaxed to a greater or less extent. Both these factors seem to be at work in the case of the English opposition, as they are equally at work in more than one other government.

It would, perhaps, be less accurate to speak of the Liberal Party's loss of public favor than it would be to say that there is no general dissatisfaction with the Conservative Party now in power. There has, indeed, been criticism over various public actions of the Salisbury Government. The Premier's policy in the Cretan matter, during 1897, was not altogether gratifying to the English public. There has been more or less subsequent complaint, whether just or not, of a policy of supineness elsewhere in diplomacy, prior to the brush with France over Fashoda. But even while such complaints were circulated, visible signs existed of contentment of the average Englishman with the present government; a feeling which cannot be wholly disconnected from content with business conditions in Great Britain.

We are aware of the somewhat general impression that the trade of Great Britain has lately suffered serious reverses, and the Board of Trade returns certainly show a heavy decline in merchandise exports as compared with previous years. Such exports during the eleven months ending with November decreased £2,395,000 from the same months of 1897 and the full year's export trade of 1897 had itself fallen off £2,195,000 from 1896 and £34,000,000 from 1890, the maximum of recent English commerce. That this heavy shrinkage was occasioned by a contraction in the buying power of some of England's foreign markets—notably India and Argentina—by the immense reduction in American purchases of foreign goods, and by the competition of German and American goods in other export markets, is sufficiently well known. Some, perhaps most, of these causes are temporary, but they all serve to point out at least some change in the distribution and direction of the world's export trade in manufactures. The so-called "colonial policy" of the various European states is in the main a sequel to these trade phenomena.

This is not, however, the first occasion when such a readjustment has been forced on international commerce, and it has quite invariably been found that English exporters, trained by experience and fortified with accumulated capital, were the first to adapt themselves to the new order of things. The very decided increase in this year's English exports of machinery, for instance, as against last year's contraction in the trade, is one indication of the movement. But ignoring for the moment the country's export trade, there are other indications which are as far as possible from confirming theories of unsatisfactory home conditions. The mere fact that despite the smaller exports, English imports are steadily and rapidly increasing, is one of these indications. The London "Saturday Review" affirms, somewhat pessimistically, that the double process means that England "is beginning to pay out of her capital for the manufactures and food which she takes from abroad." This may be temporarily true, but no such movement ever continues long in England.

Nor do the figures of the country's internal trade show any evidence of weakness or misgiving. The latest returns at hand of this year's investment of London capital in new loans and companies shows that the total up to date, though somewhat smaller than in 1897 and 1896, is still three times as great as that of the slack year 1893, and approaches even that of the active year 1888. Exchanges at the English clearing-houses—an index to trade activity universally accepted in this country—show such large gains for the year to date as 7 per cent at London, 5¼ at Liverpool and 4½ at Manchester. Current English railway receipts quite uniformly show increase over 1897. And in fact, despite the year's very large exports of gold from England, imports of the same precious metal have simultaneously increased in so much more rapid a percentage that the net gold import of the year exceeds £9,000,000. These new importations have passed, not, as in the dull trade years following 1890, into an idle surplus at the Bank of England, but into the channels of interior trade. These various indications seem to us to show a condition of English trade such as will cause satisfaction in the bulk of the country's industrial community, and such contentment commonly results in support of the dominant party.

But the divisions in the English opposition may be traced to a still more interesting cause; the rise of new situations for the Government to confront, demanding new lines both of administration and opposition. On these new questions—chiefly, as may be supposed, touching the field of foreign policy—the opposition is certainly not united. A somewhat parallel position exists in our own political affairs, and there, as here, the party in power, if its policy is at once firm and conservative, has the advantage of the situation. The Home Rule issue, on which Mr. Gladstone united the Liberal opposition, is no longer uppermost in the minds of English voters; the fiscal question, in dealing with which Sir William Harcourt won his most honorable distinction, is settled. But on the questions of England's attitude towards other nations, whether as a rival European power or as a colonial empire, the Liberal leaders have parted company. Lord Rosebery, as we have said, has taken his position on the side of the "larger England;" Sir William Harcourt and his immediate associates hang back. Union under such circumstances, with foreign problems the order of the day, was impossible, whether in power or in opposition, and Sir William's letter certainly suggests that his own position is no longer that of the majority of his party.

This recent episode in English politics, then, seems to us only one of the numerous signs of a change in the character of public questions pressing for solution, not only in Great Britain but throughout the world. How profoundly this altered direction of governmental problems has already affected our own political affairs, we do not need to point out. To our own people the movement of events in England ought to be most interesting as proof that the new order of things in our relations with outside States is only one phase of a phenomenon common to the civilized world, which will set its distinctive mark on the history of these last few years of the century.

THE VANDERBILT RETURNS.

The preliminary annual statements of the Vanderbilt roads issued this week—we mean the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern and the Michigan Central—throw a flood of light on the conditions under which the operations of the trunk lines are carried on at the present time. Some persons had looked for higher dividend declarations, while no change has been made in the rate of distribution. But in view of the indifferent character of the exhibits, higher payments would have been very decidedly surprising. To be sure, Lake Shore stockholders will actually be getting one per cent more out of the earnings of 1898 than what they received out of the earnings of 1897, the semi-annual dividend having last July been raised from 3 to 3½ per cent, which figure is now maintained though not further increased; but as far as earnings are concerned, this extra one per cent could have been paid in the previous year. There was substantially no material addition to the net. The only difference is that the shareholders are this time given more nearly the full amount available.

This lack of growth in revenues is a striking and at the same time a very significant fact. It shows that in speaking of improvement in railroad earnings it is necessary to distinguish sharply between the roads in the East and those in the West. Western transportation systems, we know, have made tremendous gains. The great appreciation in the value of their securities which has occurred during the past twelve months and the numerous additions to, and increases in, their dividends, are at once the evidence and the fruit of this improvement. In the East the market value of shares and bonds on railroad properties has likewise sharply risen. But here is where the analogy ends. For gains in receipts, instead of being heavy, as in the West, are only moderate, while as to dividends there are few cases, at least among the standard stocks, where shareholders have been apprised of any augmentation in the rate of return on their holdings.

The exhibits of the Michigan Central and of the Lake Shore serve to reveal this difference with great clearness. The Lake Shore in the calendar year 1897 earned $20,297,722 gross, in the calendar year 1898 it earned $20,738,900, being an addition of only a little over two per cent. In the net the change has been even smaller, the total having been $6,755,231 in 1897 and $6,812,728 in 1898, or an increase of less than one per cent. Similarly, the Michigan Central earned $13,697,000 gross in 1897 and $13,924,000 in 1898, and $3,447,000 net in 1897 and $3,499,000 in 1898. The New York Central, too, records only a trifling enlargement of its revenues. The Central's fiscal year, as is well known, does not correspond with the calendar year, but ends June 30. By combining, however, the returns for the separate quarters, we get the results for twelve months ending December 31. In this way the showing is by no means brilliant. We should not be inclined to lay especial stress on the comparison as to the net (where there is a loss of $882,000), since the management, as we have frequently pointed out, has been very liberal in certain special outlays for improvements which have been charged to expenses. But no such reasoning holds good in the case of the gross, and yet here the comparison is not much more favorable, the total having risen only from $45,081,728 to $45,305,540—about one-half of one per cent.

We have thought it would be interesting to bring together the figures of the three roads mentioned for the last three years, both as to gross and net, in order to furnish a more striking exemplification of the feature referred to. Accordingly we give the following:

	Gross Earnings.			Net Earnings.
	1898.	1897.	1896.	1898.	1897.	1896.
	$	$	$	$	$	$
Lake Sh. & M. So.	20,738,900	20,297,722	20,193,958	6,812,728	6,755,231	6,467,803
M. C. & Can. Sou.	13,924,000	13,697,239	13,821,514	3,499,000	3,447,729	3,429,264
New York Central	45,305,540	45,081,728	43,367,869	16,060,998	16,943,249	15,432,026
	79,968,440	79,076,689	77,383,441	26,372,726	27,146,209	25,329,093

It will be observed that for the three roads combined the addition to the gross earnings, as compared with the previous calendar year, has been not quite $892,000. How different this is from the results on Western roads will appear when we say the Chicago Burlington & Quincy alone, once or twice during the year, recorded nearly as large a gain as this for a single month. Even if we compare with 1896 the improvement is but little over 3 per cent. In the net there is (on account of the falling off on the Central) actually a loss of $775,000 for 1897 and an improvement over 1896 of but about 4 per cent.

In brief, then, in a year of supposed great prosperity for the railroads, the Vanderbilt lines between Chicago and the seaboard have remained substantially stationary in their income. To what must this apparent anomaly be attributed? No fault of management can be charged, for the personnel of these roads ranks among the ablest and strongest in the country. Of course, business in the East has all along been less prosperous than in the West. It is also true that as the agricultural tonnage forms a larger percentage of the total tonnage on Western roads than on Eastern roads, an expansion in that class of tonnage would bring proportionately heavier improvement on the former than on the latter. But neither of these circumstances will explain a practically complete absence of any growth, for no one will deny that whether the agricultural tonnage was large or small, and whether or not business prosperity was moderate or decided, the aggregate of traffic in 1898 over the trunk lines was materially heavier than in 1897. Much the same remark applies as to a possible contraction from a smaller grain movement. During two or three months, when comparison was with extraordinary shipments last year, there was in 1898 undoubtedly a falling off in the wheat tonnage. But we should doubt whether, taking the whole twelve months together, any loss would be shown even in the wheat traffic; while there must have been an expansion in the traffic in the other cereals.

We are thus driven to the conclusion that a greatly increased amount of transportation service was rendered by these important lines without any appreciable increase in their income. There can be but one explanation. The traffic must have been carried at a further great reduction in rates. That, as it happens, accords fully with our knowledge of the railroad situation. It is the unanimous testimony of railroad officials that never before has there been such utter demoralization of rates. The situation has been bad also in the West, but not to the same extent. Quite recently the roads have been carrying grain from Chicago to New York for 10 cents per 100 lbs. How many persons appreciate what this means? It means that the compensation to the roads is two mills per ton per mile! No other comment is necessary than this bare statement of the fact. With that fact before him, too, the reader can see the need for some such step as that which the Baltimore & Ohio receivers took last week when they sent their letter to the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Fortunately the position of the Vanderbilt lines is one of great strength. But obviously the process of rate reductions is not one that can be continued indefinitely even in the case of these lines. The Lake Shore actually earned a little over 8 per cent (8·07 per cent) on the stock, while paying but 7 per cent. In the previous year the amount earned was equal to 7·57 per cent. The gain is not accounted for, as we have already seen, by an improvement in net earnings. It follows mainly from a saving in fixed charges arising from the refunding of the debt at a lower rate of interest. The following shows the yearly results on the Lake Shore back to 1880.

As to Michigan Central, the amount earned was but little over 4 per cent in both years—4·39 per cent against 4·24 per cent. Dividends are 4 per cent. The Canada Southern earned $301,600 for its stock in 1898, while the 2 per cent dividends call for $300,000. We annex the following statement carrying the yearly results for the Michigan Central and Canada Southern combined back to 1879.

*ABNORMAL STATE IN THE FOREIGN TRADE OF JAPAN.

Tokio, November 1, 1898.

Japan is experiencing the after effects of her victorious war, viz., financial embarrassment. This has been caused by the rapid development of her industries, by the undue expansion of the army and navy, by the rapid increase of currency, by the rise in prices of general commodities, and finally by the extraordinary excess of imports. With the growth of our industries came the import of machinery and raw materials on a large scale. With the expansion of army and navy came the import of war vessels and other munitions of war; and finally with the general rise of prices came rapid imports of general commodities. All these movements took place simultaneously, and resulted in a very large excess of imports over exports. There were in Japan one thousand and fifty-five commercial firms and manufacturing companies, with a capital of one hundred million yen, a year before the war; but in a single year after the war we find one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four commercial firms and manufacturing companies, with a capital of two hundred and seventy million yen. During the same interval railway enterprise has been active throughout the country, and we find additional routes constructed of nearly one thousand miles in length, involving one hundred million yen of new capital invested. Meanwhile our Imperial Government has spent about one hundred and fifty million yen for the war and one hundred and thirty-five million yen for the improvement of the fighting power of the nation. Again, before the war we had in this country but a moderate amount of paper currency, say one hundred and fifty million yen, but after the war our paper currency swelled suddenly, and we had two hundred and thirteen million yen. The following table gives a cursory view of the important rise in prices which has taken place.

The above facts were misinterpreted by the Matsukata Cabinet, for Count Matsukata and his colleague maintained that the rise in price of general commodities in his country was due to the falling price of silver in the world's market, and that the excessive import was solely due to the higher prices of commodities. Therefore, in order to check these unfavorable tendencies, his cabinet established the gold standard in the spring of 1897. Nevertheless the general prices continued to advance, and imports to exceed exports.

In studying the Custom House reports, we find that the excessive imports began in December 1895, six months after exchange of ratifications of the Shimonoseki treaty, and that the foreign gold began to flow in in March 1896, when a portion of the Chinese indemnity was paid. Ever since December 1895, though our exports have increased our imports have always exceeded our exports, and as our London representative discontinued November 1897 to remit any portion of the Chinese indemnity fund deposited with the Bank of England, our gold began to make its net outward movement, while imports of merchandise grew greater than ever. In the nine months ending with last September, the excess of imports reached the large sum of one hundred and seven million yen; paying for these nearly exhausted the gold recently imported here in order to build a basis of our new gold standard. The bank reserve in the Central Bank was reduced to its minimum, being only one-third of the floating notes. This fact alarmed Japanese officials and they again ordered their London representative to remit thirty-five million yen out of the Chinese indemnity fund. This movement relieved our monetary derangement, but at the same time the tendency toward the excessive imports was greater than ever. The following table gives in yens the details, showing the abnormal conditions of our foreign trade since the termination of the late war.

*Nine months to Sept. 30.

Why is it that we have had such a constant excess of imports since July 1895 and such an extreme inflow during nine months ending with Sept. 1898? We had only one half of the 1898 excess in any previous single year. Several of the reasons have already been suggested; but there are others. A foremost influence was the elation caused by the close of our victorious and highly successful war, which gave an impulse to all our industries. Another was the large Government disbursements of the indemnity China paid. Another was the expansion of our currency (1) by the influx of foreign gold due to the Chinese indemnity payments, and (2) by the larger issues of paper money. Besides these there have been two other special circumstances which go far towards explaining the situation, especially the later development.

1. During the last two years the rice crop in this country has proved very poor; the market price of Japanese rice was increased between thirty and fifty per cent in a single year. Thereupon the foreign rice was imported on a large scale, making the total of forty two million yen in seven months ending at the last July.

2. Then there is another important cause for the present excessive import. Hitherto our tariff has been limited by treaties and fixed at the universal rate of five per cent. But as treaties were revised recently, our Imperial Government has proposed to make a considerable increase of duty. The following are proposed rates of import duty for several prominent articles.

	Per Cent.		Per Cent
Guns and swords	25	Clocks	20
Watches	25-30	Shirts and hosieries	20-25
Spirits	40	Half-manufactured steel	10
Raw irons	5	Waxes	10-1
Cotton yarns	10	Cotton goods	15
Wools	10	Woolen goods	15
Raw silks	15	Silks	20-25
Jutes	10	Linens	15
Tobaccos	35-40	Liquors	25-40
Rail'y carriages and wagons	10

This programme was made known to the public a year before the last spring, and it was declared that it would be enforced immediately after the exchange of ratifications of the Japano-Austrian treaty, which happened to be the last one of all the revised treaties in which Japan is a principal party. As we all expected the ratifications would be exchanged last spring between the two Powers concerned, our Imperial Government notified the public that the new tariff was likely to be put in force from July 1898. In consequence of this impending change our merchants hastened to import foreign goods in large quantity so as to escape the pending burden of higher duty. But the exchange of ratifications of the treaty was postponed on account of the Austro-Hungarian trouble, and the new tariff was then supposed to be postponed to September 1898. But September came, and still the ratifications of the treaty could not be exchanged, and hence the Austro-Hungarian Government guaranteed that their ratification should be made before the coming January, else the treaty should be enforced without going through the usual ratification by the Austro-Hungarian Parliament.

These successive postponements aggravated each time the tendency towards excessive imports. Now it appears as if Japanese merchants had already imported more than they could safely take care of. Every warehouse in Kobe and Yokohama is filled with those imported commodities and foreign brokers resident at foreign settlements here are daily pressing upon Japanese merchants to receive the goods. Under these circumstances, the import trade is much curtailed and consequently it is now reported that our foreign trade is beginning to flow into another channel and that in the opening week of October there was excess of exports amounting to several million yen. Beside, our rice crop for this autumn is said to be exceedingly fine and is expected to gain about 30 per cent above the usual crop. This is certainly very gratifying news; not only will it no longer be necessary to import foreign rice, but our farmers will become very prosperous and the abnormal condition of our foreign trade, so far as the movement of rice has produced it, be corrected.

THE RAILROAD DIVIDEND RECORD.

As 1898 was a year of great improvement in railroad affairs, the dividend record is naturally an encouraging one. Many roads have entered the dividend ranks. Many others have been able to increase their rate of payment. It becomes evident, however, before we proceed very far in our analysis that the course of the movement is marked by considerable irregularity—that there has been no uniform or general expansion in the rate of distribution. In reviewing the earnings of the Vanderbilt lines for the calendar year 1898, in a previous article, we show that the character of the returns of Eastern roads differs widely from that of Western roads. In much the same way the dividend record varies. New and increased returns come mainly from the West, in very few instances from the East.

There is this further distinction; even in the West there has been very little change as far as the larger systems and standard dividend-paying shares are concerned. This, however, simply means that in these cases the managements have been very conservative, and have deemed it best to devote their extra earnings to improving and strengthening the properties rather than in making increased returns to the shareholders. In truth, the additions to the dividend list are represented mainly by new or reorganized companies. Such dividends would not necessarily be an indication of an improved railroad situation, for most of these companies were so conservatively reorganized that their early entry to the dividend ranks would probably have followed in any event. As a matter of fact, however, railroad conditions did improve, and improve very materially as we all know, and hence the dividend results in these cases are particularly striking.

The North Pacific Coast section is the one particularly favored in this respect. Here there have been some noteworthy transformations under a really marvelous recuperation and expansion in earnings. The Northern Pacific, but recently reorganized, has now begun dividends on its common stock, in addition to paying the full dividends on the preferred shares. The Oregon Navigation is likewise paying both on its common and its preferred, the Pacific Coast Company on its common and on its first and second preferred. The Union Pacific in October paid 1½ per cent on its $75,000,000 of preferred stock.

Passing to other sections, the Atchison has just announced the first dividend (1 per cent) on its $120,000,000 of preferred stock. The St. Louis & San Francisco, which in 1897 began paying on its first preferred shares, has now begun also on the second preferred. The St. Joseph & Grand Island is distributing the full 5 per cent on the first preferred stock. The Choctaw Oklahoma & Gulf is paying 5 per cent on its preferred shares. The Denver & Rio Grande has got up to 4 per cent on its preferred shares. The Rio Grande Western, besides giving the preferred shareholders 5 per cent, has made a small stock dividend on the common shares.

The larger companies, as already stated, show changes in comparatively few cases. The Mil. & St. Paul and Chic. & North West. both continue their payment of 5 and 7 per cent respectively on common and preferred shares; the Illinois Central has not deviated from its 5 per cent rate, and the Chicago & Alton sticks to 7 per cent on common and preferred. On the other hand, the Burlington & Quincy has paid to its stockholders during 1898 5½ per cent and is really up to a basis of 6 per cent, as quarterly dividends are 1½ per cent. The Great Northern has paid 6½ per cent and is up to 7 per cent. The Rock Island, besides giving its proprietors 10 per cent in stock, has turned over to them 4½ per cent in cash, and the last quarterly rate was 1¼ per cent, or 5 per cent per year. The St. Paul & Omaha, besides the 7 per cent on the preference issue, has during 1897 and 1898 distributed 2 per cent per annum on the common shares. Here is a ten-year record for the leading roads. It shows the dividends actually paid in each year.

Among the Eastern trunk lines, it is a remarkable fact that the Lake Shore, which last July raised its semi-annual dividend to 3½ per cent (or 7 per cent per year), is the only one among the leading systems that has added anything to the shareholders' portion, as will be seen by the following.

In the New England section there are very few changes at any time and the record is a pretty even one. In truth many of the stocks are guaranteed, so that there could be no variation in any event. ¶ Increase due to change of dividend period.
(a) Exchanged for New York New Haven & Hartford stock.
(b) Change from 7 per cent due to change of dividend period.

There are very few new dividend distributions in the territory between Chicago and the seaboard even among the minor companies. The Buffalo Rochester & Pittsburg is now up to 2 per cent on its preferred stock, and the Evansville & Terre Haute on its preferred shares recently declared 4 per cent—2 per cent payable October 1898 and 2 per cent April 1899. The Chicago & Eastern Illinois has entered its common stock in the dividend ranks. We may mention as a noteworthy instance of large distribution on a property allied to the railroads that Pullman's Palace Car Company besides the regular 8 per cent in cash paid an extra 20 per cent in cash, and also gave a bonus of another 50 per cent in stock.

In the South the list has always been a meagre one. The Louisville & Nashville has not yet resumed. The Southern Railway has been paying 1 per cent per year on its preferred shares. Norfolk & Western proferred got 1 per cent in February and 2 per cent in August. The Mobile & Ohio made the first distribution (1 per cent) in its history. The Atlantic Coast Line distributed 100 per cent in stock. The Georgia Southern & Florida is returning 5 per cent on the 1st preference shares and 3 per cent on the 2d preference.

[From our own correspondent.]

LONDON, Saturday, Dec. 17, 1898.

The more hopeful feeling with regard to politics which has been noticed once or twice before in this correspondence is decidedly more pronounced this week. The conclusion of the treaty of peace between the United States and Spain, the position taken up in the Pacific by the United States, the similarity of interests between the United States and the United Kingdom, and the better feeling which has grown up during the year between the two peoples, all lead us to hope that no nation will be rash enough to provoke war in the Far East.

Moreover, the German Minister for Foreign Affairs in the German Parliament this week confirmed the statement previously made more than once by Mr. Chamberlain that this country and Germany have come to an arrangement respecting a large number of questions as to which their interests agree. What form the agreement has taken, what it includes and what it excludes are not known. As yet nothing positive and official has been stated on the matter. But it is felt everywhere that the better relations that now exist between this country and the United States on the one hand and Germany on the other are a powerful guaranty for peace. Even this is beginning to be perceived in France. It is true that some of the French newspapers are advocating an alliance with Germany. But no encouragement is given by the German press, the leading organs of which, indeed, inform the French that the question of Alsace and Lorraine must be dropped once for all if there is to be anything like a friendly feeling between the two countries.

It is quite true, of course, that the internal condition of France continues very anxious, if not actually dangerous; that the state of Spain is desperate; and that the strife of the nationalities in Austria-Hungary is as bitter as ever. Still, the hope is growing that even internal disorders will somehow or other be avoided in these countries, except possibly in Spain, where a revolution may occur at any moment.

As a natural consequence of the more hopeful political feeling there has been a decided improvement upon the Stock Exchange this week. American securities of course led the movement. But the American market has been influenced much more by that of New York than by purchases here, although undoubtedly members of the Stock Exchange and professional operators have been dealing upon a considerable scale. And it is even said that investors are beginning to buy.

In the Argentine market there has also been more business than for a long time, and generally there has been an improvement, though as yet neither very pronounced nor very extended, in all other departments. Assuming that political confidence revives, the general feeling in the city is that there will be a great outburst of activity early in the new year. Money will then become cheap and plentiful. Trade is wonderfully good here at home as well as in the United States. There are hopes that no great crisis will occur in Germany, and there is an evident improvement both in India and in Argentina.

Above all there is at present outside of the American Department no speculation. For nearly three years business on the Stock Exchange has been very restricted, and consequently everything is prepared for a very considerable rise. In France, even, there are signs of improving business. It is hardly possible that either trade or investment can expand while the condition of the country remains as at present. Indeed, what, between foreign adventures, domestic alarms, and the recent rules depriving the Coulisse, or outside Stock Exchange, of nearly all the business it used to do formerly, the Bourse is now practically paralysed. But the members of the Coulisse still have the whole mining market in their hands, mining being forbidden to the Parquet, or official market. And the members of the Coulisse have, for the last week especially, been buying gold shares, and to some extent also diamond and copper shares, upon a very large scale.

In Germany the crisis still continues. The discount rate of the Imperial Bank remains at 6 per cent. In the outside market the rate is fully 5⅛ per cent and over, and probably the market will tighten up as the year draws to a close. Still, no great failure has occurred; prices have been maintained with scarcely any fall except a slight decline in bank shares, and a general hope is beginning to grow that, as money will become cheap and plentiful in January, the crisis may end without serious consequences, although, of course, even in the best event there must be a large lock-up of capital.

As the Christmas holidays approach money is becoming scarcer and dearer in London. On Thursday, which was pay day on the Stock Exchange, a very large amount had to be borrowed from the Bank of England at 4 per cent. And the market will continue more or less tight until the end of the year. But in the first week in January immense sums will be paid out. One of our greatest houses, which is agent for several foreign governments and corporations, will, for example, in that one week pay in dividends and interest as much as a million and a-half sterling, or 7½ million dollars. Then the interest upon the British debt will be payable on the 5th, amounting to about five millions sterling. And there will be an immense number of payments, both of interest and dividends, by other houses than that specially referred to. Probably it is not an exaggeration to say that in the first week of January 12 or 15 millions sterling will be paid in interest and dividends in the London market alone.

Unless, therefore, something entirely unforseen happens money will become very cheap and plentiful. And assuming that peace prospects brighten, there is every reasonable probability that there will be a marked improvement in markets. Of course there is always the danger that there may be disturbances in France, which would affect all money markets in Europe, or, contrary to the expectation at present, the crisis in Germany may become worse. But if nothing of that kind happens money ought to become very plentiful here by the middle of January.

When this happens, and if the political sky clears, there is certain to be a great many new loans and new companies brought out. They have been prepared in vast numbers already. But the scares of the past twelve months have kept them in abeyance. There will likewise be a very considerable investment in other ways abroad; in the United States, Canada, South America, especially Argentina, the whole of the Colonies, India and Egypt, it may safely be predicted we shall witness a very large investment of British capital; but all depends, of course, upon politics.

Meantime the India Council continues to sell its drafts in a very satisfactory manner. It offered for tender on Wednesday 50 lacs and the applications amounted to nearly 504 lacs. The whole amount offered was sold at a trifle over 1s. 4d. per rupee. And in addition a little over a lac was sold by private contract.

WALL STREET, FRIDAY, DEC. 30, 1898.—5 P. M.

The Money Market and Financial Situation.—Rarely if ever since Wall Street has been famous as a financial center have the security markets exhibited such activity and strength during the closing days of the year as have been conspicuous this week. To-day's markets were the most buoyant of the week, except possibly those of Monday, and in several cases the highest quotations of the year were recorded. Influences of a favorable character which have appeared from time to time during the year seem to have united their forces at the moment to strengthen the confidence which so generally exists. Of course it is quite possible that the speculative element may go too far and carry prices beyond the safety point, but there is nothing now in sight which seems to foreshadow a change of general conditions. One of the significant features is the foreign demand for iron and steel products, which comes from various sources. Efforts have been made this week to place large orders, and some of our most extensive steel plants have made contracts covering their entire output for several months to come. The grain markets have also been active under an export demand, but the best prices of the week have not been fully maintained.

There has been some irregularity in the call loan branch of the money market, rates on one or more occasions having temporarily advanced to 6 per cent, but the amount loaned at this figure is limited and rates for time loans have remained steady. The probability of any considerable change in money market conditions seems remote.

The open market rates for call loans on the Stock Exchange during the week on stock and bond collaterals have ranged from 2 to 6 per cent. To day's rates on call were 2 to 4 per cent. Prime commercial paper quoted 3 to 3½ per cent.

The Bank of England weekly statement on Thursday showed a decrease in bullion of £1,252,666, and the percentage of reserve to liabilities was 48·20, against 48·03 last week; the discount rate remains unchanged at 4 per cent. The Bank of France shows a decrease of 3,800,000 francs in gold and 3,625,000 francs in silver.

The New York City Clearing-House banks in their statement of Dec. 24 showed an increase in the reserve held of $4,655,600 and a surplus over the required reserve of $19,619,050, against $16,973,375 the previous week.

The investment demand continues good and prices generally firm, but in only a few cases has an advance amounting to 1 point been recorded. This occurred in Kansas City Pittsburg & Gulf, Reading, Union Pacific, and possibly some other less active issues. The offerings were chiefly low-grade issues and a large proportion of the transactions was in Atchison adjustment 4s, Baltimore & Ohio 4s (when issued), Chesapeake & Ohio gen. 4½s, Kansas City Pittsburg & Gulf, Missouri Kansas & Texas, Northern Pacific, Oregon Short Line, Reading, St. Louis Southwestern, San Antonio & Aransas Pass, Standard Rope & Twine, Texas & Pacific, Union Pacific and Wabash issues.

Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks.—The stock market has continued active and buoyant up to the close. Although the volume of business diminished day by day until to day, the average for the week is larger than for any corresponding period. The usual disposition to close out contracts before the end of the year has not been in evidence, both the speculative and investment demand being sufficient to absorb all offerings of whatever class, generally at advancing prices.

The anthracite coal group has been conspicuous in the advance (although the transactions in these shares were limited) on better earnings already reported by some of the companies and more favorable conditions expected to govern the coal business in future. The grangers were strong features, including Minneapolis & St. Louis and Chicago Great Western, both the latter on rumors of closer alliances with connecting lines.

Of the miscellaneous list Bay State Gas was most active and shows a large percentage of advance. Federal Steel issues are becoming more and more popular, and thus far the tendency of these shares has been upward. The common has advanced 28 points and the preferred about 15 points since they appeared on the market in October. The most sensational movement was in New York Air Brake, which advanced nearly 22 points. International Paper fluctuated over a range of nearly 6 points and American Sugar Refining a range of nearly ½ points.

STREET RAILWAYS AND TRACTION COMPANIES.

The following table shows the gross earnings for the latest period of all STREET railways from which we are able to obtain weekly or monthly returns. The arrangement of the table is the same as that for the steam roads—that is, the first two columns of figures give the gross earnings for the latest week or month, and the last two columns the earnings for the calendar year from January 1 to and including such latest week or month.

Street Railway Net Earnings.—The following table gives the returns of STREET railway gross and net earnings received this week. In reporting these net earnings for the street railways, we adopt the same plan as that for the steam roads—that is, we print each week all the returns received that week, but once a month (on the third or the fourth Saturday) we bring together all the roads furnishing returns, and the latest statement of this kind will be found in the CHRONICLE of December 17, 1898. The next will appear in the issue of January 21, 1899.

Chicago Wisconsin & Minnesota Railroad.

(Statement for six months ending Dec. 31, 1898.)

We have received the following official statement of assets and liabilities as of Dec. 31, 1898, and the income account for the half year ended that date. This includes estimated rental for November and December same as October, the rental under order of Court being the earnings of the property. In 1899 the corporation paid off $100,000 of its improvement 8 per cent notes out of "income treasury assets," and also set aside special fund, which is cash in bank, to pay all coupons on its bonds maturing March 1, 1899. In addition it reports over $130,000 cash asset in treasury, which, with its net income for January and February, it is estimated, will give net cash surplus of about $200,000 after its March coupons are paid. "This surplus will probably be applied in new heavy steel for which the company is now negotiating and arranging to lay next year." The C. W. & M. is an independent corporation which uses the Wisconsin Central Receivers, by its own choice, for operation merely. The lease of 1886 is suspended. It ran to the Wisconsin Central Company, which is practically defunct. Income account shows:

Milwaukee & Lake Winnebago RR.

(Statement of Nov. 30, 1898.)

Below is the company's balance sheet as of Nov. 30, 1898, and a statement of the earnings, charges, etc., for the year ending June 30, 1898, and the five months ending Nov. 30, 1898. These results were obtained under the temporary arrangement made on April 1, 1897, with the receiver of the Wisconsin Central, by which the Ch. Wis. & M. and Mil. & L. W. receive the net earnings each of its own property, after deducting its proportion of all terminal, equipment and other expenses. In July, 1898, the Court held that pending litigation, without prejudice to leases, the rental paid should continue to be the net earnings.

Prior to Nov. 30, 1898, the company had sold all its Manitowoc bonds, and had paid off all its floating debt, and on Nov. 30 it held a "claim against the lessee for rental (temporarily carried in suspense, but which ultimately we shall collect), of $77,234. This item is substantial, and should be added to the balance of income account, $35,032."

Note.—The first and second preferred stock on hand lies in the treasury merely to redeem the debentures (which are convertible into it). The Manitowoc Division sinking fund carried on the books at $1,050,000, represents the $1,000,000 common stock of the railroad company (the entire issue), and also the stock of a land company, holding perhaps three hundred acres of land in the city of Manitowoc. Both these stocks are held by the trustees of the Manitowoc bonds as a sinking fund, and carried at this face value on the books. The real estate mortgage notes given as a liability ($17,472) cover certain parcels of land in the city of Manitowoc on which mortgages are not yet matured, but still are outstanding, to be paid off as fast as they mature, probably.—V. 67, p. 1309.

Akron Street Ry. & Illuminating.—Reorganization Plan.—The plan of reorganization prepared by Samuel Thomas and F. A. Seiberling, provides that a new company shall be organized and shall create the following securities;

Twenty-five-year 5 per cent gold bonds of $1,000 each, to be a lien upon all the new company's railroads, electric light plant and all other property, rights and franchises; total authorized issue.....	$1,200,000
Of which as part consideration for the $1,000,000 of 5 per cents of 1896.....	500,000
Authorized to be sold at not less than 85 per cent of their par value to retire the receiver's certificates, and the $185,000 Akron Street RR. 1st 6s of 1888 (if retired) and to pay the floating debt, reorganization expenses, etc...	400,000
Reserved "for the extension of railway and purchase of new property, but only with the approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of the preferred stock of the said new company".....	300,000
Five per cent non-cumulative preferred stock in $100 shares.....	1,000,000
Common stock in $100 shares.....	1,000,000

Exchange.—The terms of exchange of old securities follow:

Each $1,000 first mort. bond, with all over-due coupons attached, shall be exchangeable for $500 in the new first mortgage 5 per cent bonds; $500 in the new preferred stock, and a further amount in preferred stock equal to the unpaid interest on the outstanding 1st mort. bonds due on Jan. 1, 1899.

Capital stock upon payment of $5 per share thereof will receive shares of new common stock to the amount of 50 per cent of present par value, and preferred stock to an amount equal to the cash payment so made.

"All liabilities, debts or claims against the company may be paid, purchased, settled, compromised, or left undisturbed as the committee in their discretion deem advisable." Under this provision it will be possible to leave outstanding if deemed necessary or best the $185,000 Akron Street RR. 6s of 1888.—V. 66, p. 573.

Allegheny & Western Ry.—Mortgage Filed.—This company, which is building an extension of the Buffalo Rochester & Pittsburg from Punxsutawney to Butler, Pa., has filed a mortgage for $2,500,000 to the Guaranty Trust Co. as trustee.—V. 67, p. 72.

American Bell Telephone Co.—Bonds Sold.—The company has sold $3,000,000 of its 4 per cent 10-year debenture bonds to Lee Higginson & Co., R. L. Day & Co. and Estabrook & Co. The total issue is $10,000,000, and the present sale makes $8,000,000 outstanding. These bonds were fully described in V. 67, p. 72.—V. 67, p. 577.

Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe Ry.—Trackage Right Agreement Obtained Between Mojave and Bakersfield.—An agreement has been reached with the Southern Pacific by which the Atchison will have the desired trackage rights between Mojave, Cal., and Bakersfield, a distance of 68 miles. This completes the connection of the Atchison with the San Francisco & San Joaquin Valley, recently bought, and obviates the necessity for building a new line.

Called Bonds.—Baring Brothers & Co., Limited, announce the numbers of 300 equipment trust gold bonds (series "A") which have been drawn for payment on Jan. 1.—V. 67, p. 1307.

Atlanta Consolidated Street Ry.—New Refunding Mortgage.—The company has filed a mortgage to the Mercantile Trust & Deposit Co. of Baltimore, as trustee, to secure $2,500,000 of 5 per cent bonds of $1,000 each, to be dated Jan. 2, 1899, and to mature on Jan. 1, 1939. Of the new loan $2,025,000 will be used to retire, presumably at once, the $2,025,000 of 6 per cent bonds of 1891 and $225,000 will be reserved to to retire a like amount of first mortgage bonds maturing July 1, 1920. The remaining $250,000 new bonds will be reserved for improvements and new equipment.—V. 67, p. 72.

Baltimore & Ohio RR.—Coupon Payments.—The following interest maturing Jan. 1 will be paid as indicated:

	Interest.	Where Paid.
B. & O. car trust bonds of July 1, 1896.....	$102,000 00	N.Y. Mercantile Tr. Co
Receivers' Pittsburg & Connellsville certificates.	10,250 00	Balt. Tr. & Guar. Co
Pittsburg & Connellsville bonds, due 1898, extended at 4 p. c., and not yet deposited under the plan; total outstanding, $115,000.....	2,300 00	N. Y., Speyer & Co.
Winchester & Potomac 1st mort. 6 p. c. bonds.	4,417 50	Balt., Treas. office.
Winchester & Potomac 2d mort. 5 p. c. bonds..	2,146 25	B'lt. R. Garrett & Sons
Winchester & Strasburg RR. divid'd on stk....	1,492 00	Balt., Treas. office.

The receivers will also take up and redeem the principal of the following securities, or, in accordance with the order of Court, the principal of these securities may be extended in the hands of the present holders, payable at the option of the Receivers or the Court upon five days' notice by advertisement in the New York "Times" and the Baltimore "Sun," the same bearing interest at 5 per cent per annum until the date of such notice:

	Amount.	Where Paid.
B. & O. Car Trust Bonds dated July 1, 1896.....	$3,400,000	N.Y. Mercantile Tr. Co.
Receivers' Pittsburg & Connellsville Certificates dated Jan. 1, 1897.....	650,000	Balt. Tr. & Guar. Co.

Receivers' Certificates Called.—In addition to the receivers' certificates already reported called for redemption (see V. 67, p. 1159) notice is given that the receivers' loan of $680,000 issued for steel rails, and dated July 31, 1897, will be redeemed on the next interest day, Jan. 31, 1899, on presentation at the office of the Mercantile Trust Co., N. Y.—V. 67, p. 1307, 1310.

Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern RR.—Receivership.—It is understood that the road is about to be placed in receiver's hands as a preliminary to reorganization under the plan already announced.—V. 67, p. 1262, 1265.

Boston Terminal.—$1,000,000 Additional Bonds.—The Massachusetts Board of Railroad Commissioners on Thursday heard the company's petition for the right to issue $1,000,000 additional bonds, increasing the loan outstanding to $13,000,000. The petition was taken under advisement.—V. 66, p. 334.

Brightwood Ry. Co. of Washington.—New Mortgages.—This company has filed a mortgage to secure $250,000 5 per cent 19-year bonds to the Colonial Trust Co. as trustee, and one for $500,000 5 per cent 15-year bonds to the American Security & Trust Co. as trustee. The new bonds are no doubt intended for use in refunding the existing funded debt, all of which bears 6 per cent interest.—V. 66, p. 133.

Buffalo City Gas.—Injunction Dissolved.—Justice Cohen of the Supreme Court on Tuesday dissolved the temporary injunction obtained last week by Oscar G. Rafferty and others to prevent the proposed acquisition of the People's Gas Light & Coke Co., and the stockholders of the Buffalo City Gas Co. on Wednesday authorized the transaction by a large majority.—V. 67, p. 1262.

Buffalo General Electric.—Bonds Called.—Refunding.—The company has called for redemption at 104 and interest its entire issue of 6 per cent bonds of 1892, and will pay them off on Feb. 1, 1899. The authorized amount of this loan is $2,400,000, but only $1,575,000 have been issued. In addition there is outstanding a small loan of the old Thomson-Houston Company, one of the companies absorbed, which is due Feb. 1, 1900, making the Buffalo company's total funded debt about $2,000,000, all represented by 6 per cent bonds. These will be refunded into new forty-year 5 per cent gold bonds, effecting a substantial decrease in the fixed charges. More than 95 per cent of the holders of the old 6s of 1892, it is stated, have agreed to exchange their present holdings for the new bonds. The Fidelity Trust & Guaranty Co. of Buffalo has the matter in charge.

Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Ry.—Atlantic Coast Line.—Purchase at Foreclosure Sale.—At the foreclosure sale on Thursday the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley was bought by the Atlantic Coast Line for $3,110,000.

The road was sold as an entirety. The bidders were Mr. Blackford, of the Baltmore committee, acting in the interest of the Seaboard Air Line; President Samuel Spencer for the Southern Railway and General Manager Walters for the Atlantic Coast Line. The bidding was spirited, beginning at $2,100,000 and reaching $3,000,000 before any bidder dropped out. The property, as said, went finally to the Atlantic Coast Line for $3,110,000. The amount of the first mortgage bonds is $3,054,000.

The result of the sale is a surprise, as the Seaboard Air Line and Southern Railway had made open overtures for the property, and one of them, it was supposed, would ultimately be the owner. The Cape Fear & Yadkin will add 338 miles to the system of the Atlantic Coast Line and afford it a line extending from Wilmington, N. C., northwesterly, via Fayetteville and Greensboro, to a junction with the Norfolk & Western at Walnut Cove, near the Virginia State Line, and to Mount Airy on the outskirts of the Blue Ridge.—V. 67, p. 1103.

Central Ohio RR.—Baltimore & Ohio RR.—Committee Representing Minority Stockholders Recommend Acceptance of Plan.—The committee representing the minority stockholders of the Central Ohio reported on Tuesday that no better terms could be secured, and therefore recommended the acceptance of the terms offered by the reorganization managers of the Baltimore & Ohio, namely, the exchange of Central Ohio common and preferred stock for preferred stock of the reorganized Baltimore & Ohio, dollar for dollar, and a cash bonus of $7 50 per $50 share.—See vol. 67, p. 1206, 1307, 1319.

Chicago Burlington & Quincy RR.—Bonds Converted.—Since July 1, 1898, 5 per cent convertible bonds of 1890-92 to the amount of $2,669,000 have been converted into stock, reducing the amount of these bonds outstanding from $15,263,900 to $12,594,900 and increasing the capital stock of the company from $32,002,800 to $34,671,800.—V. 67, p. 1159.

Chicago Indianapolis & Louisville Ry.—Listed.—The New York Stock Exchange has listed $159,000 additional 5 per cent refunding mortgage gold coupon bonds of 1947, making total amount listed to date $4,177,000.—V. 67, p. 733.

Chicago Wisconsin & Minnesota RR.—Milwaukee & Lake Winnebago RR.—Official Statements—Coupons.—Under the heading "Annual Reports" are official statements as to the condition and earnings of both these companies. As to the Chicago Wisconsin & Minnesota road, the directors have set aside a special fund to pay in full the coupons which will mature next March on the first mortgage sixes, the income fives and the improvement purchase money eight per cent notes. This cash is now "specially deposited for this purpose," and by the end of December it was expected the surplus cash assets in the general treasury would exceed $130, 00. The company is inviting proposals to relay the entire road with heavy steel and the rentals receivable in January and February, it is said, will leave on hand something like $200,000 free cash next March, after all the interest coupons are paid. As to the Winnebago Company, the road is reported in good condition, in the neighborhood of thirty to forty thousand dollars having been expended this summer putting in iron bridges and rails. In view of the exhibit made, the management deprecate strongly any suggestion of an attempt to disturb the bonds.—V 67, p. 1308.

Cincinnati Gas Light & Coke.—Stock Increased.—The stockholders on Dec 21 voted to increase the capital stock from $8,500,000 to $9,000,000. Stockholders of record Jan. 2 are permitted to subscribe for the new issue at par in proportion to their holdings.—V. 67, p. 1109.

Citizens' Street RR. of Indianapolis.—Extracts from Decision.—Reference was made last week to the decision of the Supreme Court of Indiana holding that the company's franchise will expire in 1901, and that the contract of the city with the City Company is valid. Judge Howard read the opinion, which concludes as follows:

"We conclude, then that the right of the Citizens' Company to exercise its franchise upon the streets of the city of Indianapolis will expire on Jan. 1, 1901, by limitation of its contract, and also that the agreement entered into by the city and City Company, April 15, 1893, was, and is, a valid contract in presenti between the parties thereto; and that said City Company, under said contract, had a right to enter at once upon the construction of the north and south line, and on consent given by the city, upon any other unoccupied streets and parts of streets not in use by the Citizens' Company or necessary for the reasonable and safe operation of its lines; and that, on like consent given by the city, said City Railway Company may, upon the expiration of the term of the Citizens' Company and the vacation of the streets by said company, enter upon and occupy such vacated streets for the construction and operation of its lines. The judgment is reversed."

An Indianapolis paper remarks that of the Judges who sat on the case the terms of three are just expiring, so that it is quite uncertain what action will be taken on the application for a rehearing, if one is made.—V. 67, p. 1308.

Cleveland Canton & Southern Ry.—Sale.—The property will be sold under foreclosure in Cleveland after five weeks' advertising, which will make the date of sale about the middle of February. The upset price is $1,000,000 on the main line and $50,000 on each of two branch lines. No agreement has been reached by the various interests.—V. 67, p. 176.

Cleveland Painesville & Eastern RR.—New Stock.—The stockholders will vote Jan. 17 upon the proposition to increase the capital stock from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000.—V. 64, p. 284.

Dallas Electric.—Receivership Proceedings Withdrawn.—A press dispatch says that the receivership proceedings have been dropped, all the interests of the Fort Wayne company and of R. T. McDonald having passed into the control of the United Electric Security Co. of Boston.—V. 67, p. 370.

Dallas Terminal Ry. & Union Depot—Dallas Fort Worth & Gulf Ry.—Name Changed—New Bonds.—The stockholders of the Dallas Terminal Railway & Union Depot Co. at an adjourned meeting on Dec 27 voted to change the charter name to the Dallas Fort Worth & Gulf Railway Co. and to issue $1,000,000 5 per cent bonds to retire at once the present loan of $80,000 and to provide for the immediate construction of the extension from Dallas to Fort Worth, 32 miles. The company owns about 8 miles of terminal road in Dallas and suburbs and a considerable amount of real estate in Dallas suitable for terminal purposes. W. C. Connor is President.—V. 67, p. 935.

Delaware RR.—Consolidation.—The stockholders will vote Jan. 13 on a proposition to absorb by consolidation the Queen Anne & Kent RR. (36 miles; stock in 1897, $414,835; bonds, none); the Delaware & Chesapeake Ry. (54 miles; stock in 1897, $600,000; bonds, $100,000 of 4s, due 1912), and the Cambridge & Seaford RR. (27 miles; stock in 1897, $500,000; bonds, none). All of the roads are controlled by the Pennsylvania RR. and are operated as part of the Philadelphia Wilmington & Baltimore. The mileage of the Delaware RR. will be increased by the consolidation from 117 miles to 224 miles.—V. 64, p. 1,000.

Dubuque Water Co.—New Mortgage.—The company's new mortgage for $300,000 is made to the Northern Trust Co of Chicago and to Arthur Huntly, Secretary of the Water Company, as trustee. The Dubuque "Telegraph" says:

It is understood that $225,000 has been or soon will be raised on bonds, and that more will be raised as the money is needed to make improvements. What the company has done or intends to do does not, of course, affect the right of the city to buy the plant.

Bonds Offered.—N. W. Harris & Co are offering $225,000 of the new loan, which they describe as follows:

First mortgage 5 per cent gold bonds, dated Dec. 1, 1898, due Dec. 1, 1919, redeemable at par Dec. 1, 1913 (fifteen years), or at 5 per cent premium on any interest date. Great Northern Ry.—Listed.—The New York Stock Exchange has authorized the listing of $25,000,000 additional preferred capital stock, on and after January 3, 1899, upon receipt of advice that it has been issued in exchange for shares of the capital stock of the St. Paul Minneapolis & Manitoba Ry. Co., making total amount so listed $75,000,000.—V. 67, p. 1263.

International Paper Co.—Listed.—The New York Stock Exchange has placed on the regular list the securities of this company, which have till now been dealt in only in the unlisted department, viz.: $8,493,000 first consol. mort. 6 per cent gold coupon bonds, $20,530,700 preferred stock and $16,040,400 common stock. The Committee on Stock List is also empowered to add to the list additional amounts of the bonds to an aggregate amount not exceeding $100,000, as advice shall be received that the same have been issued in exchange for existing bonds. The company's official statement to the New York Stock Exchange is given in full on page 1359 of this issue of the CHRONICLE.—V. 67, p. 1309.

Kings County Electric Light & Power.—Dividend on Brooklyn Edison.—As stated last week the Central Trust Co. upon presentation of its certificates of deposit representing Brooklyn Edison stock, is issuing its interim certificates calling for the 6 per cent 99 years purchase money gold bonds of the Kings County Electric Light & Power Co. (interest-bearing scrip to be issued for amounts of less than $1,000). The interim certificates are necessary in view of the delay required in the delivery of the engraved bonds. With the interim certificates is paid to the Edison stockholders of record Sept. 30 last a dividend of 2 per cent out of the moneys received by the stockholders' committee from the Brooklyn Edison Co. for that purpose. "The exact amount of the final dividend cannot be known until all the outstanding claims against the Edison Company as of June 30, 1898, shall have been liquidated. As soon as such claims shall have been settled, a further and final dividend will be made."—V. 67, p. 1309.

Kings County Elevated RR.—Reorganization Plan.—The Reorganization Committee, we learn, is actively engaged with the details of a plan of reorganization. This plan, it is understood, will be prepared with a view to the ultimate merger of the property with the Brooklyn Union Elevated, and for the acquisition at foreclosure sale of the Brooklyn & Brighton Beach Road. The "Brooklyn Eagle" says that the Kings County and Fulton Elevated firsts will be exchanged for new first 4s, with a bonus in capital stock, amount not determined.—V. 67, p. 953, 956.

Knickerbocker Ice Co. of Chicago.—Listed.—The New York Stock Exchange has listed the company's $2,000,000 first mortgage 5 per cent gold bonds of 1928 and its $3,000,000 preferred and $4,000,000 common stock.—V. 67, p. 1161.

Lake Erie & Western RR.—New President Yet to be Elected.—The announcement made last week that Vice-President and General Manager Bradbury had been elected President of the company, to succeed Calvin S. Brice, deceased, was incorrect. The election has not yet taken place.—V. 67, p. 1309.

Macon (Ga.) Gas Light and Water Co.—Reorganization.—The stockholders will meet Jan. 30 "for the purpose of acting upon the amendment to the charter of said company, granted by the Superior Court of Bibb County, Nov. 25, 1898, and to take further action as may be necessary to carry into effect the reorganization plan of June 19, 1896, as amended." A. E. Boardman is President and J. B. Hall, Secretary.—V. 67, p. 274.

Maricopa & Phœnix & Salt River Valley RR.—Consolidation—Exchange of Bonds.—The Maricopa & Phœnix RR. Co. having consolidated its road, rolling stock, real estate and franchises with the Phœnix Tempe & Mesa RR., a continuation of said Maricopa & Phœnix RR., and reorganized as the Maricopa & Phœnix & Salt River Valley RR. Co., the holders of the 6 per cent bonds of said Maricopa & Phœnix Railroad are requested by advertisement (see advertising pages to-day's CHRONICLE) to surrender to the company at its office in San Francisco, or to the Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., Trustee, at its office in New York City, said 6 per cent bonds, and receive in lieu thereof 5 per cent bonds of the Maricopa & Phœnix & Salt River Valley RR. at the rate of six 5 per cent bonds, new issue, for five 6 per cent bonds of the Maricopa & Phœnix RR.

Metropolitan West Side Elevated RR. of Chicago.—Foreclosure Sale.—The foreclosure sale is advertised for Jan. 4, the upset price to be $6,000,000.—Vol. 67, p. 1207.

Mexican International RR.—Opening of Monterey Extension.—The seventy-two mile extension from Reata to Monterey was formally put in operation this week. The event attracted much attention in Mexico, the ceremonies being attended by President Diaz and many prominent Government officials. The smelting plants located at Monterey are the most important in the country, and the new road will give direct connection to these works for the large ore production on the line of the Mexican International. The company's first consolidated mortgage 4 per cent bonds will be issued on this extension at the rate of $10,000 a mile.—V. 66, p. 705, 711.

New York Lackawanna & Western Ry.—Terminal Bonds Offered—Terms of Guaranty.—Redmond, Kerr & Co. offer to investors, at 108 and interest, $4,000,000 of terminal and improvement mortgage 4 per cent bonds, principal and interest guaranteed by indorsement on each bond by the Delaware Lackawanna & Western RR., as follows:

The Delaware Lackawanna & Western RR. Co., lessee of the property covered by the mortgage given to secure the payment of the within bond, having requested the New York Lackawanna & Western Railway Company to make said mortgage and to issue this bond, doth hereby, for value received, guarantee its payment, both principal and interest, and agree that the mortgage given to secure its payment shall have a priority of lien upon the mortgaged property over its liens and claims thereon as such lessee.

The total issue is $5,000,000, and the bonds are secured by a mortgage upon terminals in Buffalo which are estimated as worth $8,000,000, and upon the main line from Binghamton to Buffalo. These bonds were issued to the Delaware Lackawanna & Western some time ago to reimburse it for advances made for construction and additions and improvements to the terminal property at Buffalo. See advertisement on another page.—V. 67, p. 1310.

New York Philadelphia & Norfolk RR.—Meeting Jan. 24 to Authorize New Securities.—A special meeting of stockholders will be held on Jan. 24, "for the purpose of taking such steps as may be necessary in the reorganization of the company, including the approval of the issuance of first mortgage bonds to the extent of $3,000,000, and of income bonds to the extent of $1,000,000, and of securing the same by mortgages of the company's franchises and property. The stockholders will also be asked to pass upon the question of reducing the par value of the stock from $100 per share to $50 per share. Other measures necessary in the reorganization may also be presented."—V. 67, p. 275.

Nicaragua Canal-Maritime Canal—Commissioners' Preliminary Report.—A preliminary report of the Nicaragua Canal Commission says in part:

"The Commission visited Nicaragua, personally examined the entire canal region from ocean to ocean, and employed some seventy engineers, with their laborers and helpers, for ten months, in making careful surveys and examinations of the canal region. * * *

"The Commission believes that the construction of a canal across Nicaragua is entirely feasible. The estimates for two of the best known characteristic routes have been nearly completed. These routes are known as the Maritime Canal Company's route and the Lull route. Their estimated cost is approximately $124,000,000 and $123,000,000, respectively. The assumed dimensions are considerably greater than ever before proposed, both in length of locks and in width, depth and radius of curvature of canal. These increased dimensions have been made necessary by the demands of modern commerce, size and draught of modern ships, etc. This has necessarily made a corresponding increase in the estimated cost, and is in no way inconsistent with the estimates made from former surveys which contemplated a much smaller and cheaper canal.

"A canal of smaller dimensions, just sufficient for present needs, is being estimated for. Such a canal would cost considerable less than the estimate for a canal suitable for modern necessities, which is referred to above.

"It is the opinion of this commission that, of the two routes herewith estimated for, the one called the Lull route is the more desirable.

"J. E. WALKER, Rear-Admiral, United States Navy, President of Commission.

"LEWIS M. HAUPT, Civil Engineer, Member.

"I concur with the other members of the Commission in respect to the progress of the work and the feasibility of the canal, but I think, in view of the increased size of the canal estimated for, and the difficulties incident to work in tropical countries, that the estimate is lower than it should be by about 20 per cent.

"PETER C. HAINS, Colonel Corps of Engineers, Member."

Senator Morgan, it is said, believes all the estimates are too high and that $100,000,000 will cover the entire cost.—V. 67, p. 1208.

North Dakota Rate Case.—Decision in Favor of Railroads.—United States Judges Amidon and Thayer at Fargo, N. D., on Dec. 23, decided the railroad rate case in favor of the railroads. The Railroad Commissioners of North Dakota had attempted to enforce a maximum schedule of rates which the railroads claimed would not allow them a reasonable profit on the business done. Action was brought in the United States Court to restrain the Commissioners from enforcing their schedule, with the present favorable result. The opinion was rendered by Judge Amidon and conforms to the decision of Judge Harlan in the Nebraska case, that the railroads are entitled to such compensation for business transported as will yield them a fair return on the capital invested.

Northern Pacific Ry.—Land Grant in Washington.—A press despatch from Spokane on Dec. 24 stated that the Legislature of the State of Washington would memorialize Congress to declare forfeited the company's land grant because of its transfer in the reorganization from the old to the new company. The officials explain this as follows:

The Fusion Legislature of the State of Washington two years ago was hostile to railroad and corporate property interests. Representatives of certain claimants on the old company were prolific in harassing attacks to compel recognition by the new owners, whose purchase was from the United States Court, of their claims against the bankrupt company. One of these attacks was in the shape of a joint resolution to appoint a joint committee to investigate the sale of the land grant. This resolution passed the House, but was defeated in the Senate, and "went by the board." Notwithstanding this fact, the Fusion Speaker appointed the House members of the proposed joint committee, and a portion of this unauthorized committee, the Republican members never having recognized the appointment, has now filed a report with the Secretary of State recommending the Legislature to memorialize Congress to forfeit the land grant. In the meantime the Fusion Legislature has gone out of office.

The question is one which was thoroughly considered by the attorneys when the property was purchased, and has since been passed upon by the Attorney-General of the United States in an official legal opinion to the Secretary of the Interior, pursuant to which the Government recognized fully the legality of the transfer. The question was raised by a protest to the Department by the same interests which inspired this attempt in the Washington Legislature and at the same time, and was disposed of by the United States Attorney-General as follows:

"The right of the old company to the lands granted, which was perfected by the completion of its lines, passed to the purchaser under foreclosure of all its property and rights. These lands were already fully earned. They were subject to no conditions subsequent. My opinion is that you are not justified in refusing to issue patents to the Northern Pacific Railway Company for the reasons stated in the communications submitted to me, but that you should act upon applications for patents by the new company upon exactly the same considerations which would govern you in case there had been no foreclosure and the applications were made by the old company."—V. 67, p. 1264.

Northwestern Elevated RR. of Chicago.—Temporary Loan.—The temporary loan of $4,500,000 has at length been definitely arranged, and the work of construction will therefore be pushed to early completion. It is hoped to have trains running before the end of the new year. The subscribers to the loan, it is learned, include the syndicate headed by Blair & Co. of New York, $2,500,000; stockholders, $1,500,000; Illinois Trust & Savings Bank, $500,000.

The present loan is represented by notes of the company, payable in eighteen months from date, or earlier, at the option of the company, and bearing 5 per cent interest. They are secured by a deposit with the Illinois Trust & Savings Bank, trustee, of $5,000,000 first mortgage 5 per cent gold bonds, $5,000,000 preferred stock and $5,000,000 common stock. At a meeting of the stockholders and directors, held Dec 8, a resolution was adopted limiting the aggregate of the several issues to the amounts here pledged, so that the loan has the security of the company's entire capitalization, both stock and bonds. The amount paid in on the stock of the construction company and already expended upon the property aggregates $4,166,000, making the total cash raised, including the present loan, over 8½ million dollars.

The directorate of the Elevated Co., as now constituted, is:

C. Ledyard Blair of New York, Edward L. Brewster of Chicago, Clarence Buckingham of Chicago, Bryan Lathrop of Chicago, D. H. Louderback of Chicago, W. W. Miller of New York, John C. Welling of Chicago.—V. 67, p. 1264.

Peoria Decatur & Evansville Ry.—New Plan of Scudder Committee.—Owing to the unsatisfactory response to their original reorganization plan, the Scudder committee (second mortgage bondholders' committee) has prepared an amended plan and the Colonial Trust Co. has organized a syndicate to finance the new arrangements. The amended plan provides for the paying off of one or both of the two issues of first mortgage bonds, as may be decided best. The plan also provides that the second mortgage bondholders can receive back any assessments already paid and are entitled to sell their bonds at 15 for cash to the syndicate or to receive for them 50 per cent in new common stock. In the latter case they are to have the right to subscribe to all the new securities on the same terms as the syndicate. These and other provisions are stated in the official circular as follows:

I. Depositors of STOCK, upon the amended plan being declared operative, will, on presenting their certificates at the depositary, New York Security & Trust Co., receive back their stock and payment of all subscriptions or assessments that have been made.

II. Depositors of FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, upon the amended plan being declared operative, will receive back their bonds upon the surrender of the certificates issued therefor, and upon payment of the moneys advanced by the committee or depositary thereon.

III. Depositors of SECOND MORTGAGE BONDS, who have paid the first instalment of the subscription called for by the plan of May 26, 1897, —viz., $40 per bond:

(a) May at once and until Feb. 1, 1899, sell their certificates to the Trust Company at 15 per cent, or $150 for each second mortgage bond represented thereby, and upon the amended plan being declared operative may receive back the $40 per bond paid thereon upon surrendering the receipt therefor; or,

(b) May at once and until Feb. 1, 1899, have their certificate stamped "Assented," and thereby become entitled, upon the amended plan being declared operative, (1) to receive 50 per cent of their holdings in the new common stock when issued; (2) to receive back the $40 per bond upon surrender of the receipt therefor; and (3) to buy from the Trust Company a certain amount of new preferred and common stock, as provided in the amended plan.

(c) If any such depositors of second mortgage bonds shall assent to the amended plan by not withdrawing their securities, but shall not have their certificates stamped "Assented," and shall not sell their certificates to the Trust Company, they shall be entitled, upon the amended plan being declared operative, to receive from the Trust Company 14 per cent of the par value of the principal of such certificates in cash—that is, $140 for each second mortgage bond represented thereby—and to receive back any cash paid to the committee or depositary upon surrender to the depositary of the receipt therefor.

Whether depositors of second mortgage bonds proceed under (a), (b) or (c), they will be free from any pecuniary obligation to the committee.

The syndicate agrees to buy the property of the Peoria division clear of all mortgage and incumbrance and may also buy the property of the Evansville division if it so chooses. It may issue as many bonds and as much preferred stock as it may see fit, subject to the following conditions: If it acquires only the Peoria division, the interest charges on the property shall not exceed $70,000 per year, and dividends on the preferred stock and interest charges shall not exceed $130,000 per year. If the Evansville division is also acquired interest charges on the entire property shall not exceed $140,000 and interest and dividends on the preferred stock shall not exceed $190,000. The syndicate further agrees to furnish $500,000 to be expended on the property during the next five years in addition to amounts derived from the earnings of the property.

The amount of new common stock is fixed at $3,000,000. The amounts of bonds and preferred stock and the rate of interest have not yet been decided. February 1 is the time limit set for coming into the plan. The reorganization committee is composed of M. L. Scudder, C. S. Fairchild, Jenkins Van Schaick, R. S. Grant and Wm. H. Payne.—V. 67, p. 1002.

Philadelphia Newtown & New York RR.—Philadelphia & Frankford—To Scale Interest to 3 Per Cent.—The Reading Company has arranged to pay interest on the bonds of the Philadelphia Newtown & New York RR. at the rate of 3 per cent per annum and to discharge the three overdue coupons at the same rate. The loan is for $1,408,000, of which the Reading owns $849,100 and the public $558,900. An arrangement is in progress looking to the adjustment of the defaulted bonds of the Philadelphia & Frankford RR.

Pittsburg Gas Consolidation—Chartiers Valley Gas.—Control Purchased.—In connection with the purchase of control of the Philadelphia Gas Co. at $40 a share, it seems representatives of the same syndicate signed a contract to purchase a control of the Chartiers Valley Gas Co. (which is under lease to the Philadelphia Co.) at the rate of $30 a share cash. The authorized capital stock of the Chartiers Company is $4,000,000.—V. 67, p. 1309.

South Bound Ry.—Florida Central & Peninsular RR.—Bonds.—In our issue of Sept. 24, 1898, we mentioned the sale by the Construction Company of $1,530,000 bonds of the South Bound Ry. Incidentally, the loan was spoken of as guaranteed. This was a mistake in the exact sense in which we purpose always to use the term "guaranteed." As stated in the table in our Investors' Supplement the bonds possess what is sometimes called a "rental guaranty;" that is, the terms of the lease of the road call for the payment of a rental equal to the interest on the loan. There is no other guaranty.—V. 67, p. 1260.

Southern Pacific RR. of California.—Listed.—The New York Stock Exchange has listed $813,000 additional first consolidated mortgage guaranteed 5 per cent gold bonds of 1937, making total amount of unstamped bonds listed to date $7,984,000.—V. 67, p. 1264.

Stuttgart & Arkansas River.—Sale Postponed.—The foreclosure sale, it is stated, has been postponed to Jan. 20, 1899. —V. 66, p. 1190.

St. Louis & Northern Short Line Company—St. Louis Peoria & Northern Railway.—Organized.—The certificate of organization, dated Oct. 1, 1898, was filed Dec. 30, at the office of the Secretary of State of Illinois, incorporating the "St. Louis & Northern Short Line" Co. This is the company which it is intended shall carry out the project already announced for a new through line between Chicago and St. Louis, with branches, etc. The plan will be found outlined in V. 67, p. 843, 902 and 957, under the heading St. Louis Peoria & Northern Ry. The St. Louis & Northern Short Line Company is empowered by its certificate of organization to construct and acquire railroad lines as follows:

To construct a railway from a point between Peoria and Pekin, near Grove, to East Clinton, with a branch at or near Geneseo, to the Mississippi River, near Moline, and to acquire by lease or purchase a railway from East St. Louis to a point at or near Peoria; also to construct or acquire by lease or purchase a branch from a point on said railway north of Springfield to a point at or near Chicago, and also to construct or acquire by lease or purchase a branch or cut-off from a point on said railway at or near Glen Carbon to a point at or near Mount Olive and also to construct a branch from a point at or near Marine to Sparta, and also to construct or acquire by lease or purchase such other branches or spurs as may be necessary or convenient and allowed by law, and to equip and operate its said railway and branches so constructed and acquired between said terminal points. —V. 67, p. 957.

Stanislaus & San Joaquin Water Co.—Foreclosure Sale.—This company's irrigation works were sold at public auction Dec. 17, in pursuance of the foreclosure proceedings brought by the California Safe Deposit & Trust Co., the mortgage trustee, and were purchased by Attorney Booth of Gunnison & Booth of San Francisco for $37,300. The property, which is said to have cost nearly $400,000, includes the dams in the Stanislaus River above Knight's Ferry and distributing ditches in the northern part of Stanislaus County and the eastern and southern portion of San Joaquin County. There was due, it is said, on the mortgage foreclosed, for principal $60,000 and for interest about $50,000.

Summit Branch RR.—Summit Branch Coal Co.—Offer to Purchase Securities.—The reorganization committee having been unable, under the plan of reorganization, to secure the needed capital, and being unwilling to formulate a new plan recommends the sale of the securities to the Pennsylvania RR. Co. on the following terms:

To pay one-third of the face value of the old Summit Branch RR. bonds, i. e., $333 33 for each $1,000 bond, and to buy the stock in the new Summit Branch Coal Co. held by individuals at $9 per share, being the amount contributed by the stockholders under the plan of reorganization. This offer is open until Jan. 10, 1899.—V. 67, p. 179.

Syracuse & East Side RR.—Sold.—At the foreclosure sale on Dec. 29 the property was purchased for the bondholders by William B. Broomall, of Chester, Pa., for $30,000.—V. 66, p. 473.

Third Avenue RR. of New York City.—Quarterly.—Earnings for the quarter ending Sept. 30 have been reported:

3 mos. end. Sept. 30—	Gross earnings.	Net earnings.	Other income.	Interest, taxes, etc.	Balance, surplus.
1898	$572,620	$221,034	$22,187	$92,394	$150,827
1897	678,933	318,671	20,119	91,821	246,969

Loans and bills payable, $9,988,822, against $9,693,848 on June 30.—V. 67, p. 1309.

Union Traction Co. of New Jersey.—Sale Jan. 27.—The foreclosure sale is advertised for Jan. 27. There is no upset price. Over seven-eighths of the outstanding bonds are on deposit with, and have assented to the plan of, the McCormick Committee, which committee will accordingly buy in the road at foreclosure sale. The plan of reorganization, now operative, was published in the Chronicle of July 16, page 127. Pursuant to its terms the reorganized company will issue $650,000 stock and $500,000 first mortgage 5 per cent gold bonds, coupons for first year to be cut from all bonds issued in exchange for old securities.—V. 67, p. 1056.

United Breweries Co. of Chicago.—Bonds Offered—Property—Earnings.—The organization of this company in its earliest stages was traced in the Chronicle several months ago. A circular offering a portion of the total issue of $3,413,000 6 per cent first mortgage sinking fund gold bonds, dated Aug. 1, 1898, and due Aug. 1, 1928, gives the following:

Organization.—This company, organized under the laws of New Jersey, acquired on Aug. 11, 1898, the following thirteen breweries, twelve of which are located in Chicago, and one at Blue Island, Cook County, Ill.:

Blue Island Brewing Co.,	Northwestern Brewing Co.,
Chicago Brewing Co.,	Phœnix Brewing Co.,
Citizens' Brewing Co.,	William Ruehl Brewing Co.,
Carl Corper Brewing & Malting Co.,	Sieben Brewery,
Fecker Brewing Co.,	South Chicago Brewing Co.,
Henn & Gabler Brewing Co.,	Star Brewery of Chicago.
Monarch Brewing Co.,

Output and Earnings.—The total annual output of these thirteen breweries was for the years ending Dec. 31, 1896 and 1897, 478,774 and 448,850 barrels respectively, and for the year ending Sept. 30, 1898, 476,344 barrels. The net earnings for 1896 were $483,967; for 1897 were $403,115; average net earnings for two years, about $440,000, or more than twice the amount necessary to meet the interest on the bond issue of $3,413,000. It is expected that net earnings will be increased in the future by economies incident to consolidation.

Assets.—The assets of the company on August 11, 1898, amounted to $4,712,029 as follows: Ground and buildings, exclusive of brewery buildings, $1,011,906; brewery buildings and fixed plants, $2,156,732; cash on hand, book debts, stock of beer, barley, malt, hops and other brewing material, outstanding accounts and bills receivable, and all other assets, $1,543,385 44.

Capitalization.—The capitalization is as follows: Stock, $5,463,000; bonds, $3,413,000. Principal and interest payable in gold coin of the present standard of weight and fineness. Bonds, $1,000 each. Coupons payable F. & A. 1st, in New York. Trustees: Otto T. Bannard and Gordon MacDonald, President and Secretary, respectively, of the Continental Trust Company of New York, which company certifies the bonds. Bankers: Messrs. Kessler & Company.

The mortgage provides for a sinking fund of $ 5,000 per annum, beginning Aug. 1, 1900, and annually thereafter. The sinking fund to be held by the Continental Trust Co., and applied to the purchase of bonds, provided the same can be purchased at not more than 105 and interest. After the year 1908, and not before, bonds sufficient for the requirements of the sinking fund may be redeemed by lot at not less than 105 and interest.

Of the above total issue of $3,413,000 of bonds, $488,500 are in the hands of the trustee and underwritten and guaranteed by bankers, to retire an equal amount of prior liens as they from time to time mature. The large majority of the capital stock is held by the former owners, whose interest thereby continues in the business and its management, and who are also under contract not to engage in the brewery business in the State of Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin, except through employment with the company. President is I. Baumgartl; Vice-President and Treasurer, Louis A. Ruehl; secretary, C. Hermann Plautz. —V. 67, p. 823.

Wabash RR.—Debenture Interest Passed.—The directors on Thursday decided to pass again the interest on the $4,500,000 debentures (Series A). These debentures paid 6 per cent yearly in 1890, 1891 and 1892, none in 1894 and 1895, and 1 per cent in 1896.—V. 67, p. 579.

Washington County RR.—Completed.—This road has been completed and is in operation from Washington Junction, on the Bar Harbor branch of the Maine Central, northeasterly to Calais, Me., a distance of 102 miles, with a branch from Eastport Junction to Eastport, Me., a distance of 16 miles.—V. 66, p. 1142.

Of the said $10,000,000 of bonds authorized by the said mortgage, $8,408,000 of bonds have been issued and are now in the hands of the public, as follows, to wit:

Coupon bonds for $1,000 each, Nos. 1 to 7,985 inclusive, Nos. 8,011 to 8,185 inclusive, Nos. 8,700 to 8,947 inclusive, $8,408,000, which the International Paper Company now asks to have listed.

The said International Paper Company further requests that the committee be empowered to add to the list from time to time additional amounts of said bonds, to an amount not exceeding $100,000, as the same shall be issued in exchange for outstanding existing bonds.

The total authorized issue under said mortgage is $10,000,000 of bonds, consisting of coupon bonds of the par value of $1,000 each, numbered consecutively from 1 upwards, all of which coupon bonds are dated February 1, 1898, and will mature upon the first day of February, in the year 1918, and bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable February 1 and August 1 in each, both principal and interest being payable at the office or agency of the Paper Company in the city of New York, in gold coin of the United States of the standard of weight and fineness as it existed February 1, 1898.

The said bonds are in part secured by a sinking fund, provided for in the trust deed or mortgage, to the amount of $150,000, to be paid to the trustee February 1, 1905, and a like amount in each and every year thereafter, out of the surplus net earnings of the coporation for the preceding year, and the said bonds are redeemable by the operation of the said sinking fund to the extent of said sinking fund, upon the first day of February or the first day of August in any year after 1907 at 105 per cent and accrued interest, at the option of the corporation.

Provision is made for the registration of the principal of the said bonds, all transfers of registerad bonds to be made on the books of the corporation at its office or agency in the city of New York, and noted on the bonds.

The said bonds are convertible into the Preferred capital stock of the company in accordance with Section 3 of the certificate of incorporation of the said Paper Company, viz.:

"The amount of the capital stock of said corporation shall be $45,000,000, divided into 450,000 shares of the par value of $100 each, of which 250,000 shares, amounting to $25,000,000, shall be preferred stock, and 200,000 shares, amounting to $20,000,000 shall be common stock; but the power is expressly reserved and declared lawfully to increase said preferred stock by the addition thereto of 100,000 shares of preferred stock of the par value of $100 each, if, and when, and to the extent that, the same shall be required for the conversion of all or any of the mortgage bonds to be issued by the corporation for the aggregate principal sum of $10,000,000, as permitted by the mortgage securing said bonds."

Of the aggregate authorized amount of $10,000,000, bonds to the aggregate amount of $8,185,000 have been executed by the corporation, certified by the trustee, and returned to the corporation for use in the purchase of property, and for the purpose of maintaining, operating and managing the same, and for other lawful purposes of the corporation: these bonds for the principal sum of $8,160,000 have already been negotiated and delivered to the public, and are now outstanding. Of the remainder of such authorized issue, bonds to the amount of $1,301,000 were originally reserved, at the time of the incorporation of the company, in the hands of the trustee, to be issued and used from time to time for the express purpose of acquiring by purchase or exchange, or redeeming, as in said mortgage provided. at par and accrued interest, prior bonds then outstanding, secured by mortgages upon the property formerly owned by the Glens Falls Paper Mill Company to the aggregate amount of $601,000 of principal; prior bonds then outstanding secured by mortgages upon property formerly owned by the Otis Falls Pulp Company, to the aggregate amount of $500,000 of principal; and prior bonds then outstanding secured by mortgages upon property formerly owned by the Falmouth Paper Company, to the aggregate amount of $200,000 of principal. But since the incorporation of the International Paper Company, said prior bonds of the Glens Falls Paper Mill Company to the extent of $30,000, said prior bonds of the Falmouth Paper Company to the extent of $132,000, said prior bonds of the Otis Falls Pulp Company to the extent of $86,000, or an aggregate amount of $248,000 of said prior bonds, have been acquired by this company by redemption, and a like amount of the said $10,000,000 issue of the International Paper Company has been issued in lieu thereof.

The only obligations secured by prior mortgages upon the property covered by the said first consolidated mortgage are the outstanding bonds hereinbefore mentioned for the aggregate principal sum of $1,053,000, and bonds now outstanding secured by mortgage upon the property acquired from the Hudson River Pulp & Paper Company, to the aggregate amount of the principal thereof, of $1,500,000, all or any part of which latter are subject to redemption on the first day of any January or July after the year 1907, at 105 per cent. The property purchased from the Ontario Paper Company, situated at Watertown, N. Y., is subject to a prior mortgage securing six per cent bonds to the aggregate principal sum of $150,000, payable February 1, 1918.

With these exceptions the said first consolidated mortgage is a first lien upon the manufacturing plants, water powers and woodlands of the following nineteen corporations, located in New York and the New England States, in which States the greater part of the news-paper-manufacturing industry is located, which were acquired by purchase, paying therefor partly in cash and partly in the bonds and stock of this corporation, viz.:

The Commercial Times.

COMMERCIAL EPITOME.

FRIDAY NIGHT, December 30, 1898.

Owing to the observance of the Christmastide holidays the business week under review has been an unusually short one and little of interest has transpired. In most lines of merchandise the year about to close has been a fairly prosperous one, although in some instances, where over-production has been a factor, low prices have been experienced. As to the prospects for business and values during the coming year the general feeling is one of confidence. Outside speculative interest, which has been an active bull factor in the stock market for some months past, is beginning to give increased attention to the commercial markets, and buying by the general public for investment account in the grain and cotton markets has been a feature of the week. Advices from the Philippine Islands report the surrender of Iloilo, the second city of the group, to the insurgents.

Lard on the spot has been in moderately active demand, principally from the home trade; prices have advanced. The close was firm at 5·85c. for prime Western and 5·20c. for prime City. Refined lard has been firmer but quiet, closing at 5·75c. for refined for the Continent. Speculation in lard for future delivery has been moderately active and prices have advanced. Buying by outsiders for investment account and sympathy with the advance in grain have been the strengthening features. The close was firm.

Cut meats have had only a limited sale, but values have held to a steady basis, closing at 5@5⅜c. for pickled bellies, 14@10lb average, 3¾@3⅞c. for pickled shoulders and 6⅝@7¼c. for pickled hams. Beef has been firm but quiet. Offerings have been limited, owing to light stocks, closing at $8 50@9 00 for mess, $9@10 for packet, $11@12 for family and $14 50@15 50 for extra India mess. Tallow has advanced to 3¾c. Oleo stearine has been quiet but steady at 5¼c. Lard stearine has been firmer, closing at 6½c. for prime City. Cotton seed oil has been quiet but steady at 22@22½c. for prime yellow. Butter has been quiet, but with light receipts values have held steady at 15@21c. for creamery. Cheese has had a fair sale at steady prices, closing at 7@11c. for State factory, full cream. Fresh eggs have been higher, closing firm at 27c. for choice Western.

Brazil grades of coffee have had only a small distributing sale and prices have weakened slightly. The market for invoices has been quiet and early in the week prices declined under a larger crop movement and weaker advices from several points. The close was steady at 6¾c. for Rio No. 7. Mild grades have been quiet but values have held fairly steady at 8@8¼c. for fair Cucuta. East India growths have been dull and without change. Speculation in the market for contracts has been fairly active but at lower prices. The larger movement of the crop and weaker advices from Brazil prompted increased pressure to sell. The close was steadier. The following are final asking prices:

Jan	5·45c.	April	5·80c.
Feb	5·60c.	May	5·85c.
Mar	5·70c.	July	5·90c.

Speculation in cotton for future delivery has been slightly more active and there has been a moderate advance in prices. The movement of the crop has continued large and prices at the Southern markets for actual cotton have been in some instances slightly easier. Many of the local trade are also anticipating a full movement of the crop during January. Owing, however, to the fact that public sentiment was favorable to cotton on the present basis of values, regular operators have not been disposed to be aggressive in their operations, and the buying by outsiders for investment account has had sufficient force to advance prices to a higher basis. Weather conditions at the South have been more favorable for the picking of the crop, but reports received generally state that the crop now being gathered is of inferior quality. Foreign advices have been of a fairly encouraging nature, values in the Liverpool market advancing in response to the improvement noted locally. To-day the market was easier under disappointing foreign advices, some selling by Liverpool and the South, and sales by recent buyers to realize profits prompted by a larger movement of the crop for the week than expected. The close showed prices 2@4 points lower for the day. Cotton on the spot has been steady at 5⅞c. for middling uplands.

The rates on and off middling, as established Nov. 16, 1898, by the Revision Committee, at which grades other than middling may be delivered on contract, are as follows.

Fair	c. 1¼ on	Good Ordinary	c. 11/16 off
Middling Fair	7/8 on	Good Middling Tinged	Even
Strict Good Middling	1/2 on	Strict Middling Stained	7/32 off

Low Middling	7/16 off	Low Middling Stained	1 3/8 off

On this basis the official prices for a few of the grades for the past week—Dec. 24 to Dec. 30—would be as follows.

JAPAN COMPLAINS OF POOR PACKING OF COTTON.—The Philadelphia Commercial Museum received recently a letter from a large cotton and cotton goods house of Osaka, Japan, in which the packing of American cotton is complained of as follows:

"The present method of packing the cotton from the United States is too bulky and very inconvenient to deal with. Though of course there is a difference in quality, the packing of Bombay cotton is less in bulk and more convenient to handle. This year the round-packed bales from the United States have been imported, but they are not as convenient as those that come from Bombay. Is there no other way of packing?

"Cotton from the United States is almost always short weight, that is to say, when we weigh it in Japan the weight is less than we have been charged for. Of course there is some difference in climate and variations in dampness. The Bombay bales are almost always heavier by from three to ten pounds than the weight given by the shipper. Our way of dealing with Bombay cotton is to make a trial weight of ten or fifteen bales of each lot and compare the result with the original weight. If this is satisfactory, the entire lot is delivered without weighing each bale, but cotton from the United States being almost invariably short in weight, every bale has to be weighed. That very much hinders the facility of transacting business. Is there no way to improve this?

"We also want to call attention to the dirt and sand in cotton from the United States. Sand is frequently plentiful in your cotton. Perhaps it has been blown into the cotton when in the field, but however it comes there the result is damage to the milling machines and a drawback on the productiveness of the mill. Is there no way to get rid of it?"

NEW ENGLAND MILL SITUATION.—Five mills at Fall River are shut down this week, and the others are running at full capacity. It is reported that the stocks of print cloths at Fall River, Providence and Boston will be not much over 600,000 pieces at the end of the year, or nearly 2,000,000 pieces less than at the close of 1897.

BREADSTUFFS.

FRIDAY, December 30, 1898.

At the opening of business for the week mills advanced their limit 10c. per barrel on spring patents and winter straights. At the higher prices asked, however, the volume of business transacted was small as the home trade was disposed to hold off at the higher prices asked, despite the fact that the market for the grain was higher. The export business also has been quiet. Rye flour has been in moderately active demand, and prices have been advanced 5c. per barrel. Buckwheat flour has had a fair sale at firm prices. Corn meal has been in fairly active demand and higher.

Speculation in wheat for future delivery has been more active and the tendency of prices has been towards a higher basis. The principal advance in values occurred early in the week. There was considerable buying for investment account, as public sentiment was in favor of the market, the active export demand and the only very moderate supplies in sight created confidence as to the future course of values. Foreign advices were stronger and there was some buying for foreign account. At the higher prices, however, the export business showed a falling off, the increased costs checking the demand. There was fairly free selling by recent buyers to realize profits, under which there was some reaction. A fair volume of business has been transacted for export, but the demand has been spasmodic, shippers buying on the reactions, the higher prices having a tendency to hold business in check. To-day the market was fairly active and higher. The continued small movement of the crop in the Northwest, unfavorable conditions in the winter wheat belt for the growing crop and buying by outsiders for investment account, were the strengthening features. There was a moderate amount of selling for foreign account. Business in the spot market was fairly active at higher prices. Sales reported here and at outports were about 500,000 bushels.

Indian corn futures have been moderately active and firmer. Tuesday there was a fairly sharp advance in prices of 1½@1¾c. The crop movement was large and weather conditions in the corn belt were favorable. In the face, however, of general buying for investment account, stimulated by stronger foreign advices and a fairly active export demand, they had little influence and prices advanced. Wednesday and Thursday part of the improvement was lost under realizing sales by longs. Corn was higher early in sympathy with the advance in wheat. Subsequently, however, under realizing sales, the improvement was lost. The spot market was fairly active. Sales for export here and at outports were 420,000 bushels.

Oats for future delivery at the Western market have been only moderately active, but there has been a slight advance in prices, in sympathy with the advance in values for other grains and on some buying by outsiders for investment account. Business in the spot market has been fairly active and at firmer prices. The home trade has been the buyer. To-day the market was firmer in sympathy with the advance in other grains. The spot market was moderately active and firmer.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

New York, Friday, P. M., December 30, 1898.

The volume of business transacted at first hands during the past week has shown a material falling away from the average of weeks recently preceding. The holiday influence and the absorption of jobbers and others in stock-taking operations have been apparent. This is so well understood that the prevailing quietude has not had the least effect upon the general tone, nor has it arrested the hardening tendency of prices in various lines of cotton goods. The latter market presents a remarkable contrast with the conditions prevailing at the beginning of the year. Stocks of all kinds were then abundant; to-day in most directions supplies are scanty and in many productions well sold ahead. Prices were then weak and declining; they are now strong and advancing. Curtailment of production was at that time a prominent theme in discussions as to how the market could be improved. The new year will open with nearly all mills running full and in many instances working over-time. Low prices, improved general conditions throughout the country and increased demand for export, have all contributed to bring about the change, with confidence quite general that it will prove a genuine one. In the woolen goods division the week's business has been moderate and the market is without material change.

Woolen Goods.—The reorders for men's wear lightweight woolens and worsteds this week have been on a moderate scale, only the holiday influence interfering with the demand. No new feature has developed and the demand has been readily met at previous prices in both staple and fancy lines. The new heavy-weight season is still very backward. There are no important lines openly upon the market yet, but a number of agents have been quietly testing the disposition of buyers. So far as can be gathered their efforts have not been productive of encouraging results. Buyers are not ready to place orders with any freedom, and are unanimous in expecting a lower range of prices than last season. Overcoatings are not moving with any degree of freedom and prices are irregular. Cloakings inactive and featureless. Dress goods are quiet, but some staple worsteds firmer in price. Flannels and blankets quiet.

Domestic Cotton Goods.—The exports of cotton goods from this port for the week ending December 26 were 2,016 packages, valued at $102,164, their destination being to the points specified in the tables below:

* From New England mill points direct.

The value of the New York exports for the year has been $11,708,575 in 1898, against $9,930,101 in 1897.

The home and export demand for heavy brown sheetings and drills has been quiet during the past week, but the strength of the market is unabated, occasional advances in fact being quoted of ¼c. to ⅛c. per yard in standards. Four yards are very firm and in one yarn light-weight grey goods the market tends against buyers. Duck is steady and brown Osnaburgs quiet at previous prices. Sales of bleached cottons have been moderate, but the market is well in hand and prices firm. Wide sheetings also firm and occasionally advanced 5 per cent. Cotton flannels and blankets, denims, ticks, plaids, and other coarse, colored cottons are without material change. Kid-finished cambrics generally ⅛c. higher. Fancy calicoes are sold with reserve if not in stock, and tendency of prices against buyers. More staple lines have an upward tendency. American shirting prints advanced ¼c. Fine printed specialties well sold and firm. Staple ginghams firm, with a moderate business, and in dress styles similar conditions rule. Regular print cloths unchanged at 2⅜c., but in wide odd goods prices have gained 1-16c. further per yard.

Foreign Dry Goods.—The foreign goods division of the market has ruled very quiet all the way. Spring business in all staple lines of merchandise is backward, and in specialties buyers are operating with moderation.

Bainbridge, N. Y.—Legality of Bonds Questioned.—In the CHRONICLE November 26, 1898, we recorded the sale of $22,000 water-works bonds. From a local correspondent we learn that when these bonds were authorized all but two of the Board of Trustees resigned and their places were filled by the appointment of other citizens. The bonds were then sold, as stated above, and a large quantity of water mains, &c., were bought and laid. It appears that, upon investigation, the purchaser of the bonds refused to take them unless the action of the Board of Trustees be legalized by the Board of Supervisors. This the Board of Supervisors has refused to do by a vote of 20 to 1, claiming that on account of existing injunctions and litigations they had no right to legalize the bonds.

Modesto (Cal.) Irrigation District.—Bond Litigation.—Application was recently made to the Attorney-General by R. J. McKimmon, a tax-payer of Modesto, for leave to bring an action in quo warranto against this district. The application stated that the district was illegally organized and attacked the validity of $1,000,000 bonds issued by the directors. It is stated that an action is now pending in the United States Court to enforce payment on the matured coupon of these bonds. The Attorney General, according to latest reports, has taken the matter under advisement.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Loan Bill Valid.—On December 24, 1898, Judges Pennypacker and Sulzberger, in Common Pleas Court No. 1, handed down a decision declaring valid the ordinance authorizing the issuance of $11,200,000 bonds for various purposes. After reviewing the history of the "Loan Bill" (given in the CHRONICLE from time to time), the Court takes up the various allegations made by Robert R. Barr and William Yocum in their bill in equity filed against the loan, and dismisses each in turn. In the first place the claim was made that the election was not lawfully held because there was no separate vote upon the several propositions for the increase of indebtedness. This the Court held was not required by the Constitution, which provides only for the submission of the question of increasing the debt, and it is reasonably clear that it was not the intention that the electors should determine the purpose to which the moneys were to be applied.

The complainants also contended that since the Legislature used the word "desire" in the Act of June 9, 1891, it was the intention that only those individuals who constituted the corporate authority at the time the desire was signified should be permitted to make the increase in debt. Hence the present Councils, they claimed, could not carry out the desire expressed and granted to the previous Councils. Such a construction, the Court declares, would lead to insurmountable practical difficulty. The death of a single member of Councils would render the whole proceeding, with its attendant labor and expense, abortive. The Court holds that "the corporate authorities named in the Act of June 9, 1891, are those in whom for the time being the municipal authority is vested, having reference to their functions and not to their personality."

The complainants also claimed that the ordinance of June 17 unlawfully attempted to delegate to the Mayor the power of fixing the rate of interest to be paid upon the loan. This the Court dismisses, stating that such power was not delegated. The ordinance provides for a rate of interest not exceeding 3½%. In other words, the interest is fixed at 3½% unless the proper authorities determine upon a less rate.

The final objection was that the tax levy of seven-tenths of a mill did not comply with the requirements of the law as to the amounts to be annually levied and collected. This, the Court states, had been fully replied to in the answer filed to the bill, when it was claimed that the tax was sufficient to provide for the interest and principal of the loan. The problem of working out the exact amount required is, the Court states, tremendous. An increase in value of properties may make too much; a depression may make too little. An impecunious tax-payer who fails to make returns or a defaulting tax-collector upsets it entirely. The use of the words "sufficient for" implies that discretion is to be exercised to determine what will be sufficient, and there was no allegation in the bill that those charged with the duty had not in good faith endeavored to reach a correct solution of the problem, or even that the tax rate fixed may not reasonably be expected to produce sufficient funds with which to meet the principal and interest of the debt as required.

The bill was dismissed at the costs of the complainant. See CHRONICLE Dec. 17, Nov. 19, Sept. 24, July 30 and July 16.
